

EPIPHANY†

— Seattle —

THE SECOND SUNDAY AFTER THE EPIPHANY

HOLY EUCHARIST

JANUARY 14, 2024 AT 8:45 AM

Dear Epiphany,

I am so excited to be with you this morning. For those whom I haven't had the pleasure of meeting, I served as the Associate Rector at Epiphany from 2009 to 2017. After leaving Epiphany, I served as the rector of St. John the Baptist in West Seattle. For the past few years, I have been serving as rector of St. John's in Essex, Connecticut.

Many of you are participating in our Year in the Bible program. Doyt and I dreamed this up together one year ago and it has been a delight to see it come to life. Epiphany and St. John's, Essex, have been working our way through the Bible since September and rediscovering the Old Testament together. A highlight of my week is co-teaching the Thursday Bible Study on Zoom with Lisa Ozaeta. I have greatly enjoyed this opportunity to reconnect with many of you.

When I reflect on my time at Epiphany, there are so many wonderful memories. My husband Joel and I were with you during the birth of both of our children. Our sons, Avery (13) and Myles (10), were baptized here and their early formation happened in these Sunday School classrooms and worship spaces.

It was here that I had the opportunity to work alongside Doyt, but also Tom and Carol Foster, Diane Carlisle, Elizabeth Walker, Laura Sargent, and others. We rebuilt the Sunday School program, helped launch Epiphany Preschool, created a robust network of small groups, renovated the campus, and so much more. I will be forever grateful for the tremendous amount I learned from each of you during those years. Thank you again for all that you gave me and for affording me the opportunity to join you today.

In grace and peace,

Kate Wesch +

THE GATHERING

We invite you to help create the experience of silence before our service.
Our hope is to calm our hearts as we prepare to enter into an intensity of shared presence.
Thank you for turning off all electronic devices.

CHILDREN'S SERMON

*All who would like to hear the children's sermon, please proceed to the Great Hall.
You will return to the church at the Peace for the celebration of the Holy Eucharist.*

All are seated.

THE LESSON: 1 Samuel 3:1-10

Now the boy Samuel was ministering to the Lord under Eli. The word of the Lord was rare in those days; visions were not widespread.

At that time Eli, whose eyesight had begun to grow dim so that he could not see, was lying down in his room; the lamp of God had not yet gone out, and Samuel was lying down in the temple of the Lord, where the ark of God was. Then the Lord called, "Samuel! Samuel!" and he said, "Here I am!" and ran to Eli, and said, "Here I am, for you called me." But he said, "I did not call; lie down again." So he went and lay down. The Lord called again, "Samuel!" Samuel got up and went to Eli, and said, "Here I am, for you called me." But he said, "I did not call, my son; lie down again." Now Samuel did not yet know the Lord, and the word of the Lord had not yet been revealed to him. The Lord called Samuel again, a third time. And he got up and went to Eli, and said, "Here I am, for you called me." Then Eli perceived that the Lord was calling the boy. Therefore Eli said to Samuel, "Go, lie down; and if he calls you, you shall say, 'Speak, Lord, for your servant is listening.'" So Samuel went and lay down in his place.

Now the Lord came and stood there, calling as before, "Samuel! Samuel!" And Samuel said, "Speak, for your servant is listening."

THE GOSPEL: John 1:43-51

Gospeler The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

All Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus decided to go to Galilee. He found Philip and said to him, "Follow me." Now Philip was from Bethsaida, the city of Andrew and Peter. Philip found Nathanael and said to him, "We have found him about whom Moses in the law and also the prophets wrote, Jesus son of Joseph from Nazareth." Nathanael said to him, "Can anything good come out of Nazareth?" Philip said to him, "Come and see." When Jesus saw Nathanael coming toward him, he said of him, "Here is truly an Israelite in whom there is no deceit!" Nathanael asked him, "Where did you get to know me?" Jesus answered, "I saw you under the fig tree before Philip called you." Nathanael replied, "Rabbi, you are the Son of God! You are the King of Israel!" Jesus answered, "Do you believe because I told you that I saw you under the fig tree? You will see greater things than these." And he said to him, "Very truly, I tell you, you will see heaven opened and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of Man."

Gospeler The Gospel of the Lord.

All Praise to you, Lord Christ.

THE SERMON: The Reverend Kate Wesch

Reflective silence and stillness are kept after the sermon.

Sermon Notes

The people stand to say

THE NICENE CREED

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

The intercessor and people pray responsively.

Intercessor As Jesus calls on us to follow him. Let us call on Jesus for the needs, concerns, and hopes of all peoples.

The people remain standing or kneel.

Intercessor Grant, O Lord, that your Church may be a sign of truth and hope. May our unity give you glory throughout the world and serve as a sign of your faithful love. Lord, in your mercy,

All hear our prayer.

Intercessor Guide the leaders of all nations and those whom they govern that justice and peace may increase. May we experience the fruits of righteousness and the blessings of your reign of love. Lord, in your mercy,

All hear our prayer.

Intercessor May this good earth and its creatures reveal your glory. Give us grace to guard its riches wisely and to share its bounty justly. Lord, in your mercy,

All hear our prayer.

Intercessor Bless all who struggle to establish greater peace upon earth, especially those who serve in the military, those on missions of hope and mercy, and their families. Lord, in your mercy,

All hear our prayer.

Intercessor Comfort and heal the poor, the persecuted, the sick, and all who suffer, especially Mary Jo, Kris, Michael, Lex, Tate, Bill, Don, Karen, Joanna, Marjorie, John, Amber, and Cheryl. May we be agents of hope in your name. Lord, in your mercy,

All hear our prayer.

Intercessor For those who have died in the communion of your Church, especially Rose Chimo and Marylyn Vincent, and those whose faith is known to you alone, grant them rest and the sure knowledge of your peace. Remind us, Lord, that neither death nor life will separate us from your love. Lord, in your mercy,

All hear our prayer.

Intercessor For those on our hearts, offering intercession and solace, comfort and healing, praise and thanksgiving, for those we now name silently or aloud.

The people may add their own petitions.

Intercessor Lord, let your loving-kindness be upon them;

All Who put their trust in you.

The Presider offers a concluding Collect.

Presider God of mystery, lover of all, hear the prayers of your people and keep us ready always to serve as prophets and apostles of your kingdom; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Presider continues

THE CONFESSION OF SIN

Presider We pray also for the forgiveness of our sins.

The people kneel. A moment of reflective silence is kept.

Said by all

All Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,
have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Presider Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

The people stand.

THE PEACE

Presider The peace of the Lord be always with you.

All And also with you.

The ministers and people greet one another in the name of Christ.

THE LITURGY OF THE TABLE

OFFERTORY SENTENCE

Presider Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, "Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?" And I said, "Here am I; send me!"

The offertory is the time during the service when we give offerings to God, acknowledging that all we have comes from God. The choir offers their gift of music, and this is our opportunity to offer thanks to God through a monetary gift to support the ministries of Epiphany. Active Epiphany parishioners make an annual pledge commitment toward the vitality of our ministries. In some cases pledging parishioners also make a financial contribution at the offertory. Money placed in the hunger basket at Communion supports our outreach ministry of feeding those in need. You may use the QR code, either during the anthem or later at your convenience, or place your offering in the offering plate as it is passed.

OFFERTORY ANTHEM: Christ whose glory fills the skies

T. Frederick Candlyn (1892-1964)

Christ, whose glory fills the skies,
Christ, the true, the only light,
Sun of Righteousness, arise,
Triumph o'er the shades of night;
Dayspring from on high, be near;
Daystar, in my heart appear.

Dark and cheerless is the morn
Unaccompanied by thee;
Joyless is the day's return,
Till thy mercy's beams I see;
Till they inward light impart,
Glad my eyes and warm my heart.

Visit then this soul of mine;
Pierce the gloom of sin and grief;
Fill me, Radiancy divine,
Scatter all my unbelief;
More and more thyself display,
Shining to the perfect day.

The people stand.

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER A

Presider The Lord be with you.

All And also with you.

Presider Lift up your hearts.

All We lift them to the Lord.

Presider Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

All It is right to give God thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, because in the mystery of the Word made flesh, you have caused a new light to shine in our hearts, to give the knowledge of your glory in the face of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

SANCTUS sung by all

Richard Proulx

Ho-ly, ho-ly, ho-ly Lord, God of po-wer and might, heaven and earth are full of your glo-ry. Ho-san-na in the high-est, Ho-san-na in the high-est. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho-san-na in the high-est. Ho-san-na in the high-est.

The people stand or kneel. Then the Presider continues.

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all. He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Presider and people

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

Presider

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him.

Presider and people

Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

Presider

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. AMEN.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to pray,

THE LORD'S PRAYER said by all

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name.
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

THE INVITATION TO COMMUNION

Presider The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

All are invited to receive the Holy Communion. It is your choice as to whether you receive Holy Communion or a blessing. You may receive Communion or a blessing at the standing station in the front of the nave or proceed to the altar rail. The bread will be placed in your palm. You may consume the bread and then drink from the chalice (please grasp the bottom of the chalice firmly and guide it to your lips); or, you may leave the bread in your palm for the chalice bearer to dip it into the wine and place it on your tongue. Self-intinction is strongly discouraged by the Episcopal church. The people's response to receiving the bread and the wine is "Amen." Gluten-free wafers are available. To indicate to the Eucharistic minister that you would like a gluten-free wafer, please present your hands palms down. Those who do not wish to receive Communion are invited to come forward for a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms over your chest.

POSTCOMMUNION PRAYER

Presider Let us pray.

All Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood. Help us so to live out our days that we may be signs of your wonders in the world; through Jesus Christ our Savior. Amen.

THE BLESSING

Presider May Christ, the Son of God, be manifest in you, that your lives may be a light to the world; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you, and remain with you always. Amen.

Men's Breakfast Group | Saturday, January 20 | 8:00-9:30 am | Great Hall

You're invited to join the Men's Breakfast Group! Our theme is that we shall continue to form strong relationships within the men in the body of the church. This will be carried out by spiritual practices that are evident in the talks given at our breakfasts. We would love to hear your thoughts as we start the New Year! Your RSVP is highly important. Please RSVP to Amanda Eap at amanda@epiphanyseattle.org.

Dear Epiphany,

It is with mixed emotions that we announce the departure of Will Brothers from the vestry. Will has accepted a wonderful job in Denver, and he, his wife Bailey, and their kids Maria and Bishop are off to a new home and a new adventure. We are happy to say they found a great Episcopal Church in Golden, Colorado, where they have settled. During their years here in Seattle, we at Epiphany saw Will and Bailey meet, and then get married. We celebrated the births of Maria and Bishop and had the privilege to baptize them as well. And we were blessed by the significant energy and leadership that Will and Bailey brought to Epiphany. They will be missed.

Fortunately, Epiphany has a deep pool of leaders, and Lee Anderson-Brooke has accepted the vestry appointment to fill out Will's term. Please read his bio below.

Our common life at Epiphany is filled with each other's comings and goings. We celebrate these walks with a sense of hope built on the ground of love.

Yours in Christ,

Lee Anderson-Brooke

Lee and his wife Debbie started attending Epiphany after casually introducing themselves to parishioner Susan Phinney at a Benaroya Hall event and somehow getting into a conversation about local churches—a bold and unusual topic of conversation for strangers in downtown Seattle. Lee only became a Christian when he was 40, after meeting Debbie and realizing she wouldn't date him otherwise. Born and raised in England, he was living in Finland when they met, and the Anglican church in downtown Helsinki was the only church offering services in English—which proved handy because it meant he was familiar with the Episcopal service and already knew when to sit and stand by the time they walked into Epiphany. Over the last four years, Epiphany Seattle has proven pivotal in Lee and Debbie's spiritual journeys and both of them consider themselves incredibly fortunate to be part of this community.

Offerings at Epiphany

Adult Formation | Sundays (except First Sundays, when there is a brunch) | 10:00 am | Great Hall

Join others for an hour of learning. Topics vary each week from spiritual formation, human interest, current affairs, and more.

Choral Evensong | Sundays | 5:30–6:30 pm | Church and YouTube

Sung at the close of day in cathedrals and churches throughout the world, Choral Evensong is a service of Evening Prayer, derived from the ancient offices of Vespers and Compline. The choir sings the traditional evening prayers of the church that have been offered for centuries, while the congregation listens, joins in the hymns, and adds their own prayers to those of the choir.

Zoom Bible Study | Thursdays | 11:00–noon | Zoom

Join other parishioners from Epiphany and parishioners from St. John's in Essex, Connecticut, for a Zoom-only study class on the Bible. This class will look in depth at some of the stories from the previous week's reading from the Year in the Bible. Please contact Lisa Ozaeta at lisa@epiphanyseattle.org for information and the Zoom link.

Bible Study | Fridays | 10:30–11:30 am | Great Hall and Zoom

The Rev. Doyt Conn, Jr.

The Bible is the core document that defines the framework in which followers of Jesus live. And so, this class is not just about becoming familiar with the Bible, it is about unpacking it and pulling it apart and seeking out links and allusions and associations between different parts of the Bible. This Bible study is a journey into words and meaning and characters and the context behind them. We will be looking at stories that align with our Year in the Bible readings. Come be part of this biblical quest of Christian meaning, understanding, and relevance with the Rev. Doyt Conn. All are welcome. Contact Diane Carlisle at dcarlisle@epiphanyseattle.org for information and the Zoom link.

Are you or a loved one in need of some extra, tender loving care? Pastoral Care Ministries at Epiphany can reach out through a written prayer, a Eucharistic visit, a phone call, a greeting card, a bouquet of Epiphany flowers, a prayer shawl, and/or a meal delivered. Please contact Diane Carlisle at verger@epiphanyseattle.org

Vestry Candidates' Biographies

Wendy Sefcik is a life-long Episcopalian and was baptized in the faith as an infant at a family ceremony with her cousins in Los Angeles. In 1968, she moved from Denver to Bellevue with her family and attended St. Thomas Episcopal Medina. Wendy went to college at UCLA where she joined All Saints Beverly Hills. In 1986, she moved back to Seattle to earn her MBA at UW. She and her husband Steve raised two daughters, Taylor and Spencer, and were members of St. Stephens Laurelhurst. Wendy co-chaired the Sunday School, was part of Altar Guild and chaired the Finance Committee. Wendy and Steve moved to Epiphany Parish in 2015. She was thrilled to join this dynamic community of people. She is part of the Teen Feed crew, ushers at the 11am service, is Treasurer for the Service & Outreach committee, and is on the Pew Torch ministry. She is honored to be asked to be on the Vestry and looks forward to serving the Parish in this faith-filled way. Outside of Epiphany, Wendy is a VP for a Swiss-based firm and looks forward to semi-retirement in 2024 to pursue her long list of 'To Dos' including welcoming her first grandchild.

John Cary was born in Seattle, raised in Spokane, and after school out of state and a job on Capitol Hill, returned to Seattle in 1973 and began practicing law. Sue and John have lived in the Mount Baker neighborhood since 1974. They have two children and four grandchildren, ranging in age from 5 to 15, in whom they take great delight. While Sue and John have traveled overseas extensively, They especially enjoy the water and mountains of the Pacific Northwest - hiking, camping, skiing and sailing.

Sue (a cradle Episcopalian) and John joined Epiphany about 1980 when their kids were at the age to learn the true meaning of Christmas and Easter. He has served in a number of roles at Epiphany, including the Vestry, search committees, and host for Overnight Watch, but the most substantial was nearly 20 years as Chancellor, the church's lawyer.

Sue and John participate enthusiastically in Epiphany's pilgrimages, beginning with the Holy Land to walking the Pilgrim's Way to Canterbury this summer. They love the Music Program and attend as many musical events as They can. This summer they became choir groupies and followed them to services at St. Paul's and Durham Cathedrals. Epiphany has become one of the center points of their lives and their home community.

John has been especially drawn to Doyt's teaching and has participated in the Minyan from its beginning and in as many forums and classes as he can. He is now a part of the crew undertaking to read the Bible in a Year. Taking to heart Doyt's injunction to pray the Hour by Hour services, he belongs to the Marco Polo group that reads daily lessons. He grew up in a non liturgical church - Presbyterian - but was drawn to the Episcopalian service at St. John the Divine during graduate school. At Epiphany John has come to an appreciation of the richness of the liturgy and how it connects us with our souls. Epiphany has become his spiritual home. He would be greatly honored to serve Epiphany as a member of the Vestry.

George Brumder was born and raised in Pasadena, California. After graduating from college in the Pacific Northwest, he lived in Boston, San Francisco, and Manhattan before settling in Seattle with his bride in 2003. Despite an inclination to continue a peripatetic lifestyle, once children came and attendant friendship groups formed, Seattle was quickly deemed the perfect place to raise a family -- George and his wife, Jean, have two children: George (19) and Greta (16)... Growing up, George attended All Saints Church (of Pasadena, not Beverly Hills) and was a junior acolyte for a number of years. Church attendance vanished in college, but was reinvigorated at the stunningly beautiful Trinity Church in Boston then the lovely Episcopal Church of St. Mary the Virgin in San Francisco. Church attendance again fell by the wayside in New York City, but upon moving to Seattle, George quickly began auditioning Episcopal churches. He thinks he tried nearly every one in town (but curiously not Epiphany) and just hadn't found his home when his friend, Alex Polson's, funeral was held at Epiphany in 2021 -- Doyt presided over a beautiful service and the rest is history. He's scarcely missed a Sunday since. George serves on the Board of the College Club Seattle and works in the equipment leasing industry as the Pacific Northwest sales manager for CSI Leasing.

Barbara Cairns lives in Leschi, and Epiphany has been her neighborhood church for 12 years. She was drawn by two invitations on the website: 1) "Wherever you are on your spiritual journey you have a place at Epiphany." Understanding. Respectful. Intriguing. 2) There was guided meditation on offer. This I know how to do. Doyt asked at their first meeting, "What are you looking for?" Ah, a serious priest. This ain't bean bag. She understood the Buddhist framework; she knew the experience of equanimity occasioned by practice. She said, "I miss devotion, belonging, love. I am feeling pulled here, but I don't understand the Christian construct, the story. Are there practices?" Oh, Lamb. Since then, Barbara has taken almost every class on offer and taught a few—on Mysticism, Thomas Merton, George Herbert, St. Paul, Noah, Climate Change. The day job peeks through on occasion. She's taught Sunday School, delivered a homily, constructed Taize altars, lectured, ladled soup, polished brass, and helped design, write, and produce a new website. There's that job again. She is deeply grateful for the beauty of Epiphany's interior spaces, its gardens, its music. For friendships that endure. For being called to account. Too, for the intelligence of its sermons, the reliable surprises in its weekly liturgy, the chiropractic mental adjustment afforded her each week as she gathers with two or more of you and helps constitute the body of Christ. She is placing her bets on Doyt's belief that the neighborhood church is the hope of the world, because she has experienced the hope and joy that comes from deep connection over time and sustained personal change for the better. At present, Barbara is a regular attendee of the Rector's Bible Study, Evensong, and the 11:00 a.m. Sunday Eucharist. She is at once honored and humbled by the invitation to serve on the Vestry of Epiphany Parish. See, that wasn't so hard; could have been worse.
