

EPIPHANY†

— Seattle —

THE FOURTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

HOLY EUCHARIST

JUNE 16, 2024 AT 8:45 AM

Dear Epiphany,

Thank you.

As I sit down to write this letter, I am filled with gratitude and a touch of sadness as I prepare to step into a new chapter in my life. I want to express my deep appreciation for my time at Epiphany.

I started at Epiphany in 2021 as a seminary intern. As a seminary intern, I managed our online presence and plugged in wherever I could. Last year, after I graduated seminary, I transitioned to Associate Rector where I have been responsible for children, youth, and families, adult education, preaching, and a host of other things. While at Epiphany I transformed from a seminary student to deacon to priest. I am so thankful that I was able to do that here. I wasn't sure what I wanted to say in this letter other than thank you, so I have decided to highlight a few of things over the last year that have been meaningful to me and hope to bring a smile to you as you remember the year as well.

From the moment I joined this congregation, I was welcomed with open hearts and open minds. Your willingness to engage, to learn, and to grow continually inspires me. I have loved teaching classes and Bible Study. Some specific memories that are special to me include teaching the Ancient Practices class with Susan Pitchford, embracing the Practice of Silence during Lent, and facilitating the amazing Silence with Icons event with Christine Bingham. I am also very thankful for working through the Bible in a Year with you all. Those in the Thursday Bible study have been a real gift to me. There were times in some of that Old Testament reading that I wasn't sure we were going to make it. Thank goodness for those Saint John's Bible illuminations.

I am so thankful for your kids and the youth of this congregation. First Informed Communion and Confirmation were highlights for sure. The kids and youth in both FIC and Confirmation were deeply engaged and asked so many questions. Participating in these two events was deeply meaningful for me. Last Sunday in Sunday School, we listed all of the things that we did over the year. I couldn't believe the list. We did so many crafts and told so many stories. We analyzed the Super Bowl commercial, we talked about how to read the Bible, we engaged in some Godly play...and there were puppets and pinatas. There was joy. Your kids filled me with joy. The youth were always willing to volunteer and help out. They were competitive at games (and killed me at every game from cards to Mario Kart) and were always ready to eat a lot of pizza. I think we have finally found all of the Easter eggs from our flashlight Easter egg hunt.

Doyt has been more than just a colleague; he has been a mentor and a friend. He is a generous teacher. He was always available to discuss anything from theology to caffeine strategies. I am pretty sure I will never have the opportunity again to go so in depth with someone on AI, Lazarus, or the ontological nature of being human. These conversations will be missed.

Your openness to new ideas and your readiness to say "yes" to new initiatives made serving here so much fun. There is a real entrepreneurship at Epiphany that adds a vibrancy to the congregation. There is a willingness to try something new and see how it goes. I look forward to seeing how Epiphany continues to be a leader in the greater Church with your spirit of innovation and vitality. You have been gifted with many riches and have the opportunity to be a real beacon for the rest of the Church. I can't wait to see it.

Tomorrow, I will start a new job as the Interim Vicar of St. Clare's in Snoqualmie. Many of you know that I live in Snoqualmie, and this is my home parish. I will serve there until my youngest daughter goes to college. In the Fall of 2025, we will move to Oklahoma. I am looking forward to the opportunity of leading this church. I will take the lessons that I have learned here at Epiphany and try to put them to good use.

Thank you, from the bottom of my heart, for the joy and the countless blessings of being on staff. May God continue to bless each one of you and guide you in all your endeavors.
With deepest gratitude and love,

Lisa Bozarth Ozaeta+

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

All Keep, O Lord, your household the Church in your steadfast faith and love, that through your grace we may proclaim your truth with boldness, and minister your justice with compassion; for the sake of our Savior Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

All are seated.

THE LESSON: 2 Corinthians 5:6-10

We are always confident; even though we know that while we are at home in the body we are away from the Lord—for we walk by faith, not by sight. Yes, we do have confidence, and we would rather be away from the body and at home with the Lord. So whether we are at home or away, we make it our aim to please him. For all of us must appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each may receive recompense for what has been done in the body, whether good or evil.

Lector The Word of the Lord.
All Thanks be to God.

The people stand to sing.

THE GOSPEL: Mark 4:26-34

Gospeler The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.
All Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said, "The kingdom of God is as if someone would scatter seed on the ground, and would sleep and rise night and day, and the seed would sprout and grow, he does not know how. The earth produces of itself, first the stalk, then the head, then the full grain in the head. But when the grain is ripe, at once he goes in with his sickle, because the harvest has come."

He also said, "With what can we compare the kingdom of God, or what parable will we use for it? It is like a mustard seed, which, when sown upon the ground, is the smallest of all the seeds on earth; yet when it is sown it grows up and becomes the greatest of all shrubs, and puts forth large branches, so that the birds of the air can make nests in its shade."

With many such parables he spoke the word to them, as they were able to hear it; he did not speak to them except in parables, but he explained everything in private to his disciples.

Gospeler The Gospel of the Lord.
All Praise to you, Lord Christ.

THE SERMON: The Reverend Doyt L. Conn, Jr.

Sermon notes

Reflective silence and stillness are kept after the sermon.

The people stand to say
THE NICENE CREED

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

The intercessor and people pray responsively.

Intercessor As the kingdom of God spreads among us, let us offer prayers for the whole world and for every person in every need.

All Glory and praise to you, O living God.

Intercessor For the leaders of the nations and all in authority, and for peace and justice, let us pray to the Lord.

All Glory and praise to you, O living God.

Intercessor For all who struggle to establish greater peace upon earth, especially those who serve in the military, those on missions of hope and mercy, and their families, let us pray to the Lord.

All Glory and praise to you, O living God.

Intercessor For the sick and the suffering, especially Judy, Faatima, Natalie, Herb, Audrey, Tom, William, Trent, Joan, Anita, Thurston, John, Amber, and Cheryl, for the hungry and the oppressed, and for the dying and the dead, especially Tom Finch, Amarr Murphy, and the Rt. Reverend Vincent Warner, let us pray to the Lord.

All Glory and praise to you, O living God.

Intercessor For those on our hearts, especially the parishioners of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church in Vestavia Hills, Alabama on the second anniversary of the shooting and killing of three parishioners at a potluck in their Great Hall and the staff, students, and families of Garfield Highschool, offering intercession and solace, comfort and healing, praise and thanksgiving, for those we now name silently or aloud.

The people may add their own petitions.

Intercessor Lord, let your loving-kindness be upon them;

All Who put their trust in you.

The Presider offers a prayer for Fathers.

O Lord our God, creator of heaven and earth, bless, we pray, all fathers. Strengthen them to nurture, protect, and guide the children entrusted to their care. Instill within them the virtues of love and patience. May they be slow to anger and quick to forgive. And through the ministrations of your Holy Spirit, may all fathers be strong and steadfast examples of faithfulness, responsibility, and loving-kindness; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Presider continues

THE CONFESSION OF SIN

Presider We pray also for the forgiveness of our sins.

The people kneel. A moment of reflective silence is kept.

Said by all

All Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,
have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Presider Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

The people stand.

THE PEACE

Presider The peace of the Lord be always with you.

All And also with you.

The ministers and people greet one another in the name of Christ.

THE LITURGY OF THE TABLE

OFFERTORY SENTENCE

Presider This is the day the Lord has made. Let us rejoice and be glad in it.

The offertory is the time during the service when we give offerings to God, acknowledging that all we have comes from God. The choir offers their gift of music, and this is our opportunity to offer thanks to God through a monetary gift to support the ministries of Epiphany. Active Epiphany parishioners make an annual pledge commitment toward the vitality of our ministries. In some cases pledging parishioners also make a financial contribution at the offertory. Money placed in the hunger basket at Communion supports our outreach ministry of feeding those in need. You may use the QR code, either during the anthem or later at your convenience, or place your offering in the offering plate as it is passed.

OFFERTORY ANTHEM: Let all the world

Kenneth Leighton (1929-88)

Let all the world in every corner sing, my God and King!
The heavens are not too high, His praise may thither fly,
The earth is not too low, His praises there may grow.
Let all the world in every corner sing, my God and King!

Let all the world in every corner sing, my God and King!
The church with psalms must shout, no door can keep them out;
But, above all, the heart must bear the longest part.
Let all the world in every corner sing, my God and King!

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER A

Presider The Lord be with you.
All And also with you.
Presider Lift up your hearts.
All We lift them to the Lord.
Presider Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
All It is right to give God thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, For you are the source of light and life, you made us in your image, and called us to new life in Jesus Christ our Lord. Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

SANCTUS sung by all

William Mathias

Ho - ly, ho - ly,
ho - ly Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho-san-na in the high - est. Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho-san-na in the high-est.

The people stand or kneel. Then the Presider continues.

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all. He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Presider and people

Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him.

Presider and people

Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

Presider

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. AMEN.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to pray,

THE LORD'S PRAYER said by all

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name.
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

BREAKING OF THE BREAD

The Presider breaks the consecrated Bread. A period of silence is kept.

FRACTION ANTHEM: Lamb of God

David Hurd
New Plainsong Mass

Lamb of God, you take a - way the sins of the world:
have mer - cy on us. Lamb of God, you take a - way the sins of the world: have mer - cy on us. Lamb of God, you take a - way the sins of the world: grant us peace.

THE INVITATION TO COMMUNION

Presider The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

All are invited to receive the Holy Communion. It is your choice as to whether you receive Holy Communion or a blessing. You may receive Communion or a blessing at the standing station in the front of the nave or proceed to the altar rail. The bread will be placed in your palm. You may consume the bread and then drink from the chalice (please grasp the bottom of the chalice firmly and guide it to your lips); or, you may leave the bread in your palm for the chalice bearer to dip it into the wine and place it on your tongue. Self-intinction is strongly discouraged by the Episcopal church. The people's response to receiving the bread and the wine is "Amen." Gluten-free wafers are available. To indicate to the Eucharistic minister that you would like a gluten-free wafer, please present your hands palms down. Those who do not wish to receive Communion are invited to come forward for a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms over your chest.

MUSIC AT COMMUNION: Draw us in the Spirit's tether

Harold Friedell (1905-58)

Draw us in the Spirit's tether;
For when humbly, in thy name,
Two or three are met together,
Thou art in the midst of them:
Alleluya! Alleluya!
Touch we now thy garment's hem.

As the brethren used to gather
In the name of Christ to sup,
Then with thanks to God the Father
Break the bread and bless the cup,
Alleluya! Alleluya!
So knit thou our friendship up.

All our meals and all our living
Make as sacraments of thee,
That by caring, helping, giving,
We may true disciples be.
Alleluya! Alleluya!
We will serve thee faithfully.

1 Draw nigh and take the Bo - dy of the Lord,

 to all believers life eternal yields;

POSTCOMMUNION PRAYER

Presider Let us pray.

All Almighty God, whose Son is the light of the world, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood. May your people, illumined by your word and sacraments, shine with the radiance of his glory, that he may be known, worshiped, and obeyed to the ends of the earth; for he is alive and reigns, now and for ever. Amen.

THE BLESSING

Presider May God bless you and keep you. May God's face shine upon you, and be gracious to you. May God's countenance be upon you, and give you peace. And the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be upon you and remain with you for ever. Amen.

Bible Study | Fridays | 10:30–11:30 am | Christie House Library and Zoom

The Rev. Doyt Conn, Jr.

The Bible is the core document that defines the framework in which followers of Jesus live. And so, this class is not just about becoming familiar with the Bible, it is about unpacking it and pulling it apart, and seeking out links and allusions and associations between different parts of the Bible. This Bible study is a journey into words and meaning and characters, and the context behind them. We do not rush things in this class, and furthermore, because of the slow pace and our theological orientation, you can drop in and quickly find your way, even if you haven't been attending the class. Come be part of this biblical quest of Christian meaning, understanding, and relevance with the Rev. Doyt Conn. All are welcome. Contact Diane Carlisle at verger@epiphany-seattle.org for information and the Zoom link. Rector's Bible Study is on hiatus until Fall 2024.

After Evensong on June 23rd at 6:30 there will be a meal in the Great Hall to ask for your feedback. RELATA will be a course that feeds people as well as being a place of conversation, connection, and community. And so this meal will be part of the pilot, and we'll ask for your feedback here. So come join us to have a meal to celebrate the end of our RBT pilot program and to help us fine tune the manner by which we will feed our RELATA guests. Come enjoy food and fellowship with other parishioners! Please rsvp by emailing Diane Carlisle at verger@epiphanyseattle.org. Space is limited. All are welcome, even if you did not participate in the RBT (Relata Pilot) program.

HELP RAISE $10,000 FOR OUR YWCA BACK-TO-SCHOOL DRIVE!

For years Epiphany has been a proud donor to the YWCA's back-to-school drive, and this year is no exception. The YWCA will be providing $100 (elementary school) or $200 (middle and high school) gift certificates directly to the students so they can buy exactly the school supplies they need. Our goal is $10,000. Can we do it? Since in previous years we donated over $9,000, I say YES! To donate, simply go to <https://onrealm.org/epiphanyseattle/give/backpack>, or you can send a check to Epiphany with "YWCA Back-To-School Drive" written in the memo section. Donations must be received by August 9.
