

EPIPHANY †

— Seattle —

THE TWENTY-THIRD SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

HOLY EUCHARIST
OCTOBER 27, 2024 AT 11:00 AM

Dear Epiphany,

Can you believe that Advent is just around the corner? It feels like the Fall Picnic was only just here! There's a lot to look forward to this year, including a discussion group that will meet on the four Sundays in Advent that I'm working on with Kyler Granados. We'll get a chance to tell you more about it on November 10, during the 10:00 am forum, but for now, I wanted to share a bit about the spirit behind how and why we came up with our idea.

Why Advent? What's with the ritual of marking the Sundays before Christmas, anyway? On one level, it's a celebration: it's the time we stop counting Sundays from Pentecost and we start a new turn of the church year. It's also a time of reflection, preparation, and expectation, often paralleled with Lent in its mindfulness and sometimes even its liturgical colors. This parallel makes sense, because both of these seasons point to a pivotal event and doctrinal truth of our faith, with Advent preparing our hearts and minds to fully appreciate the meaning of the Incarnation. And that's a big deal. Thirdly, the season of Advent strikes an apocalyptic chord, asking us to keep our eyes on the horizon of the coming of Christ in power and glory. So, there's a whole spectrum of emotions packed into four short weeks.

According to 'Walk in Love: Episcopal Beliefs & Practices,' the season of Advent is also a time to contemplate shadows as we anticipate the light. This is a theme that Kyler and I noticed in the first Collect of the season, which speaks of "works of darkness" and "the armor of light." We talked about how this cycle syncs with what's happening in the physical world, as days grow shorter and light becomes more precious. Kyler noted how the shadows in this prayer are strangely active, while light is defensive; pausing at that image, I imagine dark waves crashing on an embattled citadel on a lonely shore. There's something both true and troubling about this picture, which makes the prayer itself a rich prompt for discussion.

What does the light promise? Where does that promise cast shadows? What blocks the rays from coming through? It's the richness of images like these that encouraged us to build our Advent offering around the four Sunday Collects. They are one way our tradition has developed to help us make sense of the Christian story and our place in it; they serve both liturgical and contemplative purposes, and, we hope, make for excellent discussion prompts. A collect, after all, is a condensation of collective practice and memory, so it already contains a multitude of voices.

You'll hear more about this offering and our Sunday forum soon, but I want to end with a small confession: this letter isn't primarily motivated by advertising either. The true spirit of this text is my love of the liturgical calendar, a love that this year feels almost desperate. It's the only spiritual practice that seems to actually make sense to me. In conversations around the RELATA table, I marvel at others who seem to find joy and spiritual fulfillment in the Daily Office and other more regular disciplines, and thank God for the grace of ritual cycles that seem to more naturally be my speed. Please enjoy these last Sundays after Pentecost.

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY (said by all)

All Almighty and everlasting God, give unto us the increase of faith, hope, and charity; and, that we may obtain that which thou dost promise, make us to love that which thou dost command; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

All are seated.

THE LESSON: Job 42:1-6, 10-17

Job answered the Lord: "I know that you can do all things, and that no purpose of yours can be thwarted. Who is this that hides counsel without knowledge?" Therefore I have uttered what I did not understand, things too wonderful for me, which I did not know. 'Hear, and I will speak; I will question you, and you declare to me.' I had heard of you by the hearing of the ear but now my eye sees you; therefore I despise myself, and repent in dust and ashes."

And the Lord restored the fortunes of Job when he had prayed for his friends; and the Lord gave Job twice as much as he had before. Then there came to him all his brothers and sisters and all who had known him before, and they ate bread with him in his house; they showed him sympathy and comforted him for all the evil that the Lord had brought upon him; and each of them gave him a piece of money and a gold ring. The Lord blessed the latter days of Job more than his beginning; and he had fourteen thousand sheep, six thousand camels, a thousand yoke of oxen, and a thousand donkeys. He also had seven sons and three daughters. He named the first Jemimah, the second Keziah, and the third Keren-happuch. In all the land there were no women so beautiful as Job's daughters; and their father gave them an inheritance along with their brothers. After this Job lived for one hundred and forty years, and saw his children, and his children's children, four generations. And Job died, old and full of days.

Lector The Word of the Lord.

All Thanks be to God.

The people remain seated.

PSALM 126: In convertendo sung by the choir

Anglican Chant: John Fenstermaker

When the Lord restored the fortunes of Zion, * then were we like those who dream.

Then was our mouth filled with laughter, *
and our tongue with shouts of joy.

Then they said among the nations, *
"The Lord has done great things for them."

The Lord has done great things for us, *
and we are glad indeed.

Restore our fortunes, O Lord, *
like the watercourses of the Negev.

Those who sowed with tears *
will reap with songs of joy.

Those who go out weeping, carrying the seed, *
will come again with joy, shouldering their sheaves.

The people stand.

THE GOSPEL ACCLAMATION The refrain is sung first by the Cantor, and then sung by all.

Verse: Our Savior Jesus Christ destroyed death and brought life to light through the Gospel.

Refrain (sung by all)

THE GOSPEL: Mark 10:46-52

Gospeler The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.

All Glory be to thee, O Lord.

Jesus and his disciples came to Jericho. As he and his disciples and a large crowd were leaving Jericho, Bartimaeus son of Timaeus, a blind beggar, was sitting by the roadside. When he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to shout out and say, "Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!" Many sternly ordered him to be quiet, but he cried out even more loudly, "Son of David, have mercy on me!" Jesus stood still and said, "Call him here." And they called the blind man, saying to him, "Take heart; get up, he is calling you." So throwing off his cloak, he sprang up and came to Jesus. Then Jesus said to him, "What do you want me to do for you?" The blind man said to him, "My teacher, let me see again." Jesus said to him, "Go; your faith has made you well." Immediately he regained his sight and followed him on the way.

Gospeler The Gospel of the Lord.

All Praise be to thee, O Christ.

THE LITURGY OF THE TABLE

OFFERTORY SENTENCE

Presider The Lord is good to all, and his compassion is over all that he has made.

The offertory is the time during the service when we give offerings to God, acknowledging that all we have comes from God. The choir offers their gift of music, and this is our opportunity to offer thanks to God through a monetary gift to support the ministries of Epiphany. Active Epiphany parishioners make an annual pledge commitment toward the vitality of our ministries. In some cases pledging parishioners also make a financial contribution at the offertory. Money placed in the hunger basket at Communion supports our outreach ministry of feeding those in need. You may use the QR code, either during the anthem or later at your convenience, or place your offering in the offering plate as it is passed.

OFFERTORY ANTHEM: Teach me, my God and King

Craig Phillips (b. 1961)

Teach me, my God and King, in all things thee to see,
And what I do in anything, to do it as for thee.

All may of thee partake; nothing can be so mean,
Which with this tincture, "for thy sake," will not grow bright and clean.

A servant with this clause makes drudgery divine:
Who sweeps a room, as for thy laws, makes that and the action fine.

This is the famous stone that turneth all to gold;
For that which God doth touch and own cannot for less be told.

The people stand as the thurifer comes to the top of the chancel steps. The thurifer bows to the people and the people bow to the thurifer. The thurifer censes the people, and then all bow again.

The people remain standing.

OFFERTORY HYMN: Praise God from whom all blessings flow

Old 100th

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow; praise him, all creatures here below; praise him above, ye heavenly host: praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

The musical score is written in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. It consists of three systems of music, each with a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The lyrics are: "Praise God, from whom all blessings flow; praise him, all creatures here below; praise him above, ye heavenly host: praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost." The piano accompaniment features a steady bass line and chords that support the vocal melody.

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER II

Celebrant The Lord be with you. People And with thy spirit.
Celebrant Lift up your hearts. People We lift them up unto the Lord.
Celebrant Let us give thanks unto our Lord God.
People It is meet and right so to do.

The Eucharistic Prayer II is written in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. It consists of four lines of music, each with a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The lyrics are: "The Lord be with you. And with thy spirit. Lift up your hearts. We lift them up unto the Lord. Let us give thanks unto our Lord God. It is meet and right so to do." The piano accompaniment features a steady bass line and chords that support the vocal melody.

The Presider continues

It is very meet, right, and our bounden duty, that we should at all times, and in all places, give thanks unto thee, O Lord, holy, almighty, everlasting God, through Jesus Christ our Lord; who on the first day of the week overcame death and the grave, and by his glorious resurrection opened to us the way of everlasting life.

Therefore with Angels and Archangels, and with all the company of heaven, we laud and magnify thy glorious Name; evermore praising thee, and singing:

SANCTUS sung by all

Willan

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly, Lord God of Hosts: Hea - ven and earth are full of thy glo - ry. Glo -
- ry be to thee, O Lord Most High. Bless - ed is he that com - eth -
- in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

All glory be to thee, O Lord our God, for that thou didst create heaven and earth, and didst make us in thine own image; and, of thy tender mercy, didst give thine only Son Jesus Christ to take our nature upon him, and to suffer death upon the cross for our redemption. He made there a full and perfect sacrifice for the whole world; and did institute, and in his holy Gospel command us to continue, a perpetual memory of that his precious death and sacrifice, until his coming again.

For in the night in which he was betrayed, he took bread; and when he had given thanks to thee, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying, "Take, eat, this is my Body, which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me."

Likewise, after supper, he took the cup; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, saying, "Drink this, all of you; for this is my Blood of the New Covenant, which is shed for you, and for many, for the remission of sins. Do this, as oft as ye shall drink it, in remembrance of me."

Wherefore, O Lord and heavenly Father, we thy people do celebrate and make, with these thy holy gifts which we now offer unto thee, the memorial thy Son hath commanded us to make; having in remembrance his blessed passion and precious death, his mighty resurrection and glorious ascension; and looking for his coming again with power and great glory.

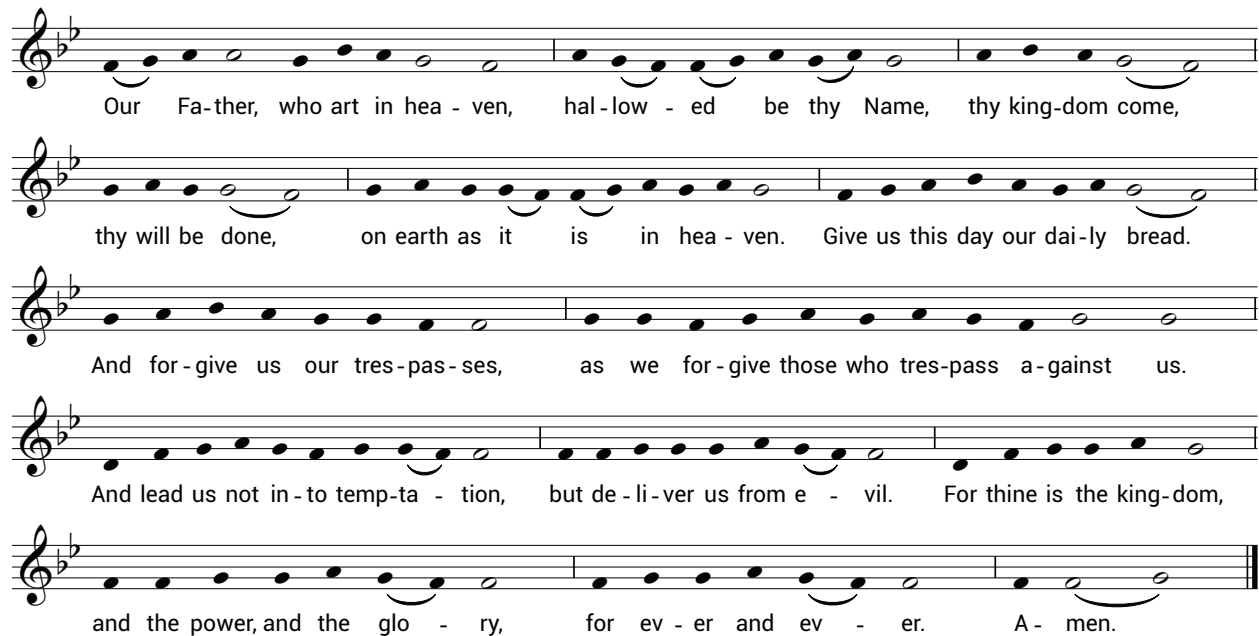

And we most humbly beseech thee, O merciful God, to hear us, and, with thy Word and Holy Spirit, to bless and sanctify these gifts of bread and wine, that they may be unto us the Body and Blood of thy dearly-beloved Son Jesus Christ.

And we earnestly desire thy fatherly goodness to accept this our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving, whereby we offer and present unto thee, O Lord, our selves, our souls and bodies. Grant, we beseech thee, that all who partake of this Holy Communion may worthily receive the most precious Body and Blood of thy Son Jesus Christ, and be filled with thy grace and heavenly benediction; and also that we and all thy whole Church may be made one body with him, that he may dwell in us, and we in him; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord;

By whom, and with whom, and in whom, in the unity of the Holy Ghost all honor and glory be unto thee, O God Almighty, world without end. AMEN.

And now, as our Savior Christ hath taught us, we are bold to pray,

THE LORD'S PRAYER sung by all

Our Fa-ther, who art in hea - ven, hal-low - ed be thy Name, thy king-dom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in hea - ven. Give us this day our dai-ly bread.
And for-give us our tres-pas-ses, as we for-give those who tres-pass a-gainst us.
And lead us not in-to temp-ta - tion, but de-li-ver us from e - vil. For thine is the king-dom, and the power, and the glo - ry, for ev - er and ev - er. A - men.

Dear Epiphany,

There's a presidential election coming up, Tuesday, November 6. You may have heard. It's hard to know the outcome, but I do know that prayer is critically important in keeping us centered despite the outcome. It is our common calling, irrespective of who support this election.

So here is the plan for connecting through Epiphany as the election unfolds:

Monday, November 4, 7:00 pm: Ecumenical Service of Personal Peace and Respite at Epiphany (in the chapel) with Grace Presbyterian, Mount Baker Presbyterian, and the Japanese Presbyterian churches.

Tuesday, November 5, all day: Chapel open for prayer and to walk the labyrinth. If you need to talk to or pray with someone during the day please reach out to Doyt at 310-625-5039, Kate at 206-605-7746, Diane at 206-617-4994, or Lex at 512-809-1284. We are here and available to you.

Also, given that we don't know what may happen as a result of the election, be on the lookout for an email from Doyt connecting to a parish-wide Zoom call. God willing, there will be no reason for the community to gather, but if there is, we will be ready.

Wednesday, November 6, 7:30 pm: Taize Service for Peace and Unity in the church at Epiphany.

We are people of resurrection who know in our souls that the bad thing is never the last thing.

Yours in Christ,

Doyt+

Thanksgiving drive for YWCA Families

As we approach Thanksgiving, take a moment to reflect on what makes this holiday special: the joy of gathering with family and friends, sharing gratitude for the blessings in our lives, and enjoying dishes that warm our stomachs and hearts.

For families in emergency shelters or temporary housing, this season is especially challenging. Many families rely on the kindness of others to provide a meaningful Thanksgiving meal for their children.

All children deserve a celebratory holiday meal. In past years, we witnessed the excitement and gratitude from parents and children when we delivered holiday meals to families in the East Cherry apartments. Our help truly matters.

Epiphany is the only large donor that provides this support for YWCA Thanksgiving meals.

How can you help?

The YWCA seeks to provide $75 and $150 grocery gift cards to the families. The larger gift cards go to families of 4+ people. Please consider what you can donate for this effort and donate by November 8. Donations of any amount are significant and can be pooled with other donations.

You can donate by going directly to www.onrealm.org/epiphanyseattle/give/YWCA-Thanksgiving, scan the QR code below, cash or check delivered to the church office. We will provide the funds to the YWCA which they will use to purchase gift cards.

Thank you for your generosity and support for our YWCA friends. If you have any questions or would like more information, feel free to reach out to Sherilyn at speterson@perkinscoie.com.

Women's Retreat Group | Saturday | November 2 | 8:30–1:00 PM | Great Hall

Dear Women of Epiphany,

Please join us on Saturday, November 2, 2024, for the Women's Retreat Group Half-Day Fall Retreat! Our retreat topic is Belonging!

Program: Together, we will explore the power of belonging and what it means to belong and in some cases to yearn to belong. Debbie Anderson- Brooke will lead us in small group discussions for our first-ever all women's RELATA, where we will share stories of "belonging." This will be followed by a time of personal reflection. We will culminate in a fun activity to close out the morning.

At noon, we'll have a potluck salad luncheon and social time. To RSVP please scan the QR code below.

To Bring:

- Hour by Hour (if you have one)
- Favorite salad item for pot-luck luncheon salad bar

We look forward to sharing this time with you!

Blessings,

Karen Forbes & Valerie Conn

Co-chairs, Women's Retreat Group
