

AND MARY SAID,

My soul magnifies the Lord,
and my spirit rejoices in God my Savior;
for he has looked with favor on the lowliness of his servant.
Surely, from now on all generations will call me blessed;
for the Mighty One has done great things for me, and holy is his name.
His mercy is for those who fear him from generation to generation.
He has shown strength with his arm;
he has scattered the proud in the thoughts of their hearts.
He has brought down the powerful from their thrones, and lifted up the lowly;
he has filled the hungry with good things,
and sent the rich away empty.
He has helped his servant Israel in remembrance of his mercy, according to the promise he made to our ancestors, to Abraham & to his descendants forever.

CHORAL EVENSONG

NOVEMBER 30, 2025

5:30 pm

Welcome to this service of Choral Evensong. Choral Evensong has its roots in the ancient monastic offices of Vespers and Compline, from which it retains a framework in which prayers are chanted, Scripture is read, and canticles (biblical songs) are sung in response to the lessons. Since the sixteenth century, Evensong has provided a daily opportunity for stillness, contemplation, prayer, and praise in the cathedrals, chapels, and great parish churches of England. Today it is sung regularly throughout the Anglican communion (of which the Episcopal Church is a part). The congregation adds its prayer to the offering of the choir and is encouraged to join heartily in the speaking of responses and the singing of hymns.

Doth live and reign eternally. Amen.

PSALM 80: Qui regis Israel

Anglican Chant: S. Walford Davies

Hear, O thou Shepherd of Israel, thou that ledest Joseph like a sheep * shew thyself also, thou that sittest upon the cherubims.

Before Ephraim, Benjamin, and Manasses *
stir up thy strength, and come, and help us.

Turn us again, O God *
shew the light of thy countenance, and we shall be whole.

O Lord God of hosts *
how long wilt thou be angry with thy people that prayeth?

Thou feedest them with the bread of tears * and givest them plenteousness of tears to drink.

Thou hast made us a very strife unto our neighbours * and our enemies laugh us to scorn.

Turn us again, thou God of hosts *
shew the light of thy countenance, and we shall be whole.

Thou hast brought a vine out of Egypt *
thou hast cast out the heathen, and planted it.

Thou madest room for it * and when it had taken root it filled the land.

The hills were covered with the shadow of it * and the boughs thereof were like the goodly cedar-trees.

She stretched out her branches unto the sea * and her boughs unto the river.

Why hast thou then broken down her hedge * that all they that go by pluck off her grapes?

The wild boar out of the wood doth root it up * and the wild beasts of the field devour it.

Turn thee again, thou God of hosts, look down from heaven * behold, and visit this vine;

And the place of the vineyard that thy right hand hath planted * and the branch that thou madest so strong for thyself.

It is burnt with fire, and cut down * and they shall perish at the rebuke of thy countenance.

Let thy hand be upon the man of thy right hand * and upon the son of man, whom thou madest so strong for thine own self.

And so will not we go back from thee *
O let us live, and we shall call upon thy Name.

Turn us again, O Lord God of hosts *
shew the light of thy countenance, and we shall be whole.

The people stand for the Gloria Patri.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost.
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

All are seated.

THE FIRST LESSON: Isaiah 55:1-5

Everyone who thirsts, come to the waters; and you that have no money, come, buy and eat! Come, buy wine and milk without money and without price. Why do you spend your money for that which is not bread, and your labour for that which does not satisfy? Listen carefully to me, and eat what is good, and delight yourselves in rich food. Incline your ear, and come to me; listen, so that you may live. I will make with you an everlasting covenant, my steadfast, sure love for David. See, I made him a witness to the peoples, a leader and commander for the peoples. See, you shall call nations that you do not know, and nations that do not know you shall run to you, because of the Lord your God, the Holy One of Israel, for he has glorified you.

The people remain seated.

THE MAGNIFICAT: Second Service

William Byrd

My soul doth magnify the Lord, and my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour.
For he hath regarded the lowliness of his handmaiden.
For behold from henceforth all generations shall call me blessed.
For he that is mighty hath magnified me, and holy is his Name.
And his mercy is on them that fear him throughout all generations.
He hath showed strength with his arm;
He hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.
He hath put down the mighty from their seat, and hath exalted the humble and meek.
He hath filled the hungry with good things, and the rich he hath sent empty away.
He remembering his mercy hath holpen his servant Israel,
As he promised to our forefathers, Abraham and his seed for ever.

The people stand for the Gloria Patri.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost.
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

All are seated.

THE SECOND LESSON: 2 Peter 1:1-11

Simon Peter, a servant and apostle of Jesus Christ,

To those who have received a faith as precious as ours through the righteousness of our God and Saviour Jesus Christ:

May grace and peace be yours in abundance in the knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lord.

His divine power has given us everything needed for life and godliness, through the knowledge of him who called us by his own glory and goodness. Thus he has given us, through these things, his precious and very great promises, so that through them you may escape from the corruption that is in the world because of lust, and may become participants in the divine nature. For this very reason, you must make every effort to support your faith with goodness, and goodness with knowledge, and knowledge with self-control, and self-control with endurance, and endurance with godliness, and godliness with mutual affection, and mutual affection with love. For if these things are yours and are increasing among you, they keep you from being ineffective and unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. For anyone who lacks these things is short-sighted and blind, and is forgetful of the cleansing of past sins. Therefore, brothers and sisters, be all the more eager to confirm your call and election, for if you do this, you will never stumble. For in this way, entry into the eternal kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ will be richly provided for you.

The people remain seated.

THE NUNC DIMITTIS: Second Service

Byrd

Lord, now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace, according to thy word;
For mine eyes have seen thy salvation, which thou hast prepared before the face of all people, to be a light to lighten the Gentiles, and to be the glory of thy people Israel.

The people stand for the Gloria Patri.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost.
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

All remain standing and chant the creed.

THE APOSTLES' CREED

All I believe in God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth;
And in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord;
who was conceived by the Holy Ghost,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried.
He descended into hell.
The third day he rose again from the dead.
He ascended into heaven,
and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father almighty.
From thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Ghost,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

O God, from whom all holy desires, all good counsels, and all just works do proceed: Give unto thy servants that peace which the world cannot give, that our hearts may be set to obey thy commandments, and also that by thee, we, being defended from the fear of all enemies, may pass our time in rest and quietness; through the merits of Jesus Christ our Saviour. Amen.

Lighten our darkness, we beseech thee, O Lord; and by thy great mercy defend us from all perils and dangers of this night; for the love of thine only Son, our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

THE ANTHEM: Vigilate

Byrd

Stay awake, because you do not know when the Lord of the house is coming at evening or midnight, at cock-crow or in the morning. Stay awake, therefore, lest when he comes suddenly he find you asleep. And what I say to you I say to all: stay awake.

(sung in Latin)

Silence and stillness are kept after the anthem.

All stand.

THE GENERAL THANKSGIVING

All Almighty God, Father of all mercies, we thine unworthy servants do give thee most humble and hearty thanks for all thy goodness and loving-kindness to us and to all thou hast made.
We bless thee for our creation, preservation, and all the blessings of this life;
but above all for thine inestimable love in the redemption of the world by our Lord Jesus Christ, for the means of grace, and for the hope of glory.
And, we beseech thee, give us that due sense of all thy mercies, that our hearts may be unfeignedly thankful;
and that we show forth thy praise,
not only with our lips, but in our lives,
by giving up our selves to thy service, and by walking before thee in holiness and righteousness all our days;
through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom, with thee and the Holy Ghost, be all honour and glory, world without end. Amen.

A PRAYER OF SAINT CHRYSOSTOM

Officiant Almighty God, who hast given us grace at this time with one accord to make our common supplication unto thee; and hast promised through thy well-beloved Son that when two or three are gathered together in his Name thou wilt be in the midst of them: Fulfill now, O Lord, the desires and petitions of thy servants as may be best for us; granting us in this world knowledge of thy truth, and in the world to come life everlasting.
Amen.

THE BLESSING

Officiant The Lord be with you.

All And with thy Spirit.

Officiant Let us bless the Lord.

All Thanks be to God.

Officiant Glory to God whose power, working in us, can do infinitely more than we can ask or imagine: Glory to him from generation to generation in the Church, and in Christ Jesus for ever and ever. Amen.

The gift bags include socks, slippers, a scarf, warm hat, gloves, face wipes, lip balm, and a $25 Target gift card in elegant reusable tote bags. We order in bulk, assemble the bags at Epiphany, and deliver to Angeline's. Epiphany's very own knitting group has already made all of the hats and many of the scarves!

Angeline's, located in Belltown, serves women experiencing homelessness with drop-in services including breakfast, lunch, and dinner, access to bathrooms, showers, laundry facilities, personal storage lockers, group activities and workshops, health care access, and referrals to community services

You can help by providing cash donations by December 14 using clicking on the QR code below or by delivering cash or a check to the church office.

Have A Heart Celebration: Save the Date and Auction Request!

Be sure to put February 1, 2026, on your calendar for next year's Have a Heart Celebration! Last year was a great success, and so we plan on a similar theme of great food, drinks, and conversation, as well as a small auction, wine pull, and raffle for fun and excitement. And it's not too early to help out!

For the wine pull we'd greatly appreciate donations of bottles of wine that are $20 and above. And for the auction, we're once again focusing on experiences—boat rides, special dinners/cocktail parties, private tours, and tickets or gift cards to events/experiences. Please contact Ann McCurdy at ann@frostymoose.com if you have any items/experiences you'd like to donate to the auction. (Keep in mind: it's a small auction, so we can't take everything!)

Inquirers' Class: A Monthly Series (October through May)

What does it mean to be a Christian in 21st-century America, or even a Christian in Seattle, or an Episcopalian, or a member of Epiphany? If these questions ever crossed your mind, you may want to consider coming to our Inquirers' class. This is a class for newcomers to Epiphany or to the faith, or anyone else for that matter, who wants to be part of a discussion about our church, our denomination, and our religion as it relates to this community, and our lives beyond these sacred walls. Topics will be Jesus, what it means to be human, the church (particularly the Episcopal church), the Bible, spiritual exercises, and worship. The classes will be held on the first Sunday of every month, October through May, at 12:30 pm after the 11:00 am morning service. The way this course is designed you can drop into any class, as they are not cumulative or sequential. The point is to brush up on Christianity as practiced at Epiphany. All are welcome, whether new to Epiphany or just looking to more deeply engage your Christian journey.

December 7: Spiritual Exercises

We become what we do—which is why we call Epiphany a spiritual gym. Here we learn and practice the spiritual calisthenics of worship, prayer, sabbath, the liturgical calendar, pilgrimage, tithing, fasting, study, silence, and solitude... and the list goes on. Come hear about this core pattern within the Christian lifestyle. Come be part of this conversation.
