

EPIPHANY†

Seattle

COME AS YOU ARE HOLY EUCHARIST
FEBRUARY 15, 2026 AT 4:30 PM

Dear Epiphany,

This Sunday is a day of joy and promise for our parish. We welcome Bishop Phil LaBelle to Epiphany as we celebrate confirmations, receptions into the Episcopal Church, and the reaffirmation of baptismal vows. These rites are the Church at its best, standing alongside people as they say “yes” to a way of life rooted in Jesus. It is also an opportunity to renew our own “yes” to follow him in the days ahead.

If you haven’t met Bishop Phil yet, here’s a snapshot. He is the ninth Bishop of the Diocese of Olympia, elected in May 2024 and consecrated in September 2024. Before coming to Western Washington, he served as rector of St. Mark’s in Southborough, Massachusetts, where he helped launch interfaith, community-building work like Southborough Neighbors for Peace. His ministry has been shaped by a desire to gather people across differences and tend to the spiritual health of communities.

It is the role of the bishop to visit every church in the diocese at least once every three years. It is likely we won’t have the honor of having Bishop Phil with us again until 2029. While he is here today, he will lay hands on our candidates and pray for the Holy Spirit’s strengthening gifts. If you are being confirmed, received, or reaffirming your vows, know that your “yes” blesses all of us. And if you are in the pews witnessing these promises, remember that your presence matters. We are not spectators; we are companions. We promise to support one another in continuing in the apostles’ teaching and fellowship, in persevering in resisting evil, in seeking and serving Christ in all persons, and in respecting the dignity of every human being (BCP 304–305). These aren’t abstract ideals; they’re the shape of our daily lives.

Please also make a point to join Bishop Phil for the 10:00 am Forum in the Great Hall. Bring your curiosity and your questions. It’s a chance to hear his hopes for the Church in Western Washington, to share what you love about Epiphany, and to imagine together how we can be a community that embodies Christ’s peace and welcome in Seattle.

With love in Christ,
Kate

OPENING ACCLAMATION

Presider Blessed be the one, holy, and living God.
All Glory to God for ever and ever.

THE PRAYER OF THE DAY

Presider God be with you.
All And also with you.
Presider Let us pray together.

All O God, who before the passion of your only begotten Son revealed his glory upon the holy mountain: Grant to us that we, beholding by faith the light of his countenance, may be strengthened to bear our cross, and be changed into his likeness from glory to glory; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

WE HEAR THE WORD

All are seated.

THE LESSON: Exodus 24:12-18

The Lord said to Moses, "Come up to me on the mountain, and wait there; and I will give you the tablets of stone, with the law and the commandment, which I have written for their instruction." So Moses set out with his assistant Joshua, and Moses went up into the mountain of God. To the elders he had said, "Wait here for us, until we come to you again; for Aaron and Hur are with you; whoever has a dispute may go to them."

Then Moses went up on the mountain, and the cloud covered the mountain. The glory of the Lord settled on Mount Sinai, and the cloud covered it for six days; on the seventh day he called to Moses out of the cloud. Now the appearance of the glory of the Lord was like a devouring fire on the top of the mountain in the sight of the people of Israel. Moses entered the cloud, and went up on the mountain. Moses was on the mountain for forty days and forty nights.

Lector Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.
All Thanks be to God.

whoever follows me will have the light of life.

THE GOSPEL: Matthew 17:1-9

Gospeler The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.
All Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Six days later, Jesus took with him Peter and James and his brother John and led them up a high mountain, by themselves. And he was transfigured before them, and his face shone like the sun, and his clothes became dazzling white. Suddenly there appeared to them Moses and Elijah, talking with him. Then Peter said to Jesus, "Lord, it is good for us to be here; if you wish, I will make three dwellings here, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah." While he was still speaking, suddenly a bright cloud overshadowed them, and from the cloud a voice said, "This is my Son, the Beloved; with him I am well pleased; listen to him!" When the disciples heard this, they fell to the ground and were overcome by fear. But Jesus came and touched them, saying, "Get up and do not be afraid." And when they looked up, they saw no one except Jesus himself alone.

WELCOME AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

WE CELEBRATE COMMUNION

OFFERTORY SENTENCE

Presider Offer to God a sacrifice of thanksgiving, and make good your vows to the Most High.

The offertory is a time during the service when we give offerings to God, acknowledging that all we have comes from God. This is our opportunity to offer thanks to God through a monetary gift to support the ministries of Epiphany. Active Epiphany parishioners make an annual pledge commitment toward the vitality of our ministries. In some case pledging parishioners also make a financial contribution at the offertory. You may place your offering in the plate, or use the QR code. The collection will be brought up alongside the bread and the wine as we make our offering of "first fruits" to God.

The people stand to sing.

OFFERTORY HYMN: From all that dwell below the skies

A musical score for a hymn, featuring three systems of music. Each system has a treble and bass staff with a key signature of one sharp (F#). The lyrics are written below the notes. The first system includes three verses. The second system continues the lyrics. The third system concludes the hymn with a double bar line.

INVITATION TO HOLY COMMUNION

Presider We now turn our attention to the altar, where we first witness, and then share in, the very becoming of God among us: first as bread and wine, then within ourselves through that bread and wine, and finally out into the world through the lives we live.

PRAYER FOR THE MEAL. (Church of Kenya)

During the Eucharistic Prayer, we invite you to participate in the ancient tradition of bowing at certain moments as a sign of reverence. A simple bow of the head is appropriate. During the recitation of the Sanctus ("Holy, holy, holy"), consider a profound bow, lowering the upper half of your body to about a 45-degree angle. These gestures are ways of using our whole bodies in worship, reminding us of the sacredness of the moments we share together in prayer. If you are unsure, feel free to observe others or do what the presider does behind the altar.

Priest Is God with us?

People* God is with us.

Priest Is Christ among us?

People* Christ is with us.

Priest Is the Spirit here?

People* The Spirit is with us.

Priest This is our God.

People* Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

Priest We are God's people.

People* We are redeemed.

Priest Lift up your hearts.

People* We lift them to the Lord.

Priest Let us give thanks to the Lord our God

People* It is right to give God thanks and praise.

It is right and our delight to give you thanks and praise, living God, supreme over the world, Creator, Provider, Savior and Giver. From a wandering nomad you created your family; for a burdened people you raised up a leader; for a confused nation you chose a king; for a rebellious crowd you sent your prophets. In these last days you have sent us your Son, your perfect image, bringing your kingdom, revealing your will, dying, rising, reigning, and remaking your people for yourself. Through him you have poured out your Holy Spirit, filling us with light and life.

Therefore with angels, archangels, faithful ancestors, and all in heaven, we proclaim your great and glorious name, forever praising you and saying:

SANCTUS

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
heaven and earth are full of your glory,
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

The people remain standing. The Priest continues

Almighty God, owner of all things, We thank you for giving up your only Son to die on the cross for us who owe you everything. Pour your refreshing Spirit on us as we remember him in the way he commanded, through these gifts of your creation.

On the same night that he was betrayed he took bread and gave you thanks; he broke it and gave it to his disciples saying, "Take, eat; this is my body which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me."

People Amen. His body was broken for us.

Priest In the same way, after supper he took the cup and gave thanks; he gave it to them, saying, "Drink this, all of you; this is my blood of the new covenant which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Do this as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me."

People Amen. His blood was shed for us.

Priest Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith.

People Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

Priest We are siblings through his blood.

Therefore, heavenly Father, hear us as we celebrate this covenant with joy, and await the coming of our brother, Jesus Christ. the perfect sacrifice, once and for all. To fulfill your purpose, Jesus gave himself up to death, and rising from the grave, destroyed death, and made the whole creation new. Sanctify these holy gifts by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him.

People Amen. Jesus is Lord.

Priest And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to pray:

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

BREAKING OF THE BREAD

The Priest breaks the consecrated Bread. A period of silence is kept.

THE INVITATION TO COMMUNION

Priest The Gifts of God for the people of God. Holy things for holy people.

All seeking God are welcome at Christ's Table to receive Holy Communion or a blessing, For a blessing, cross your hands over your chest. Gluten-free bread is available for those requiring it.

The people stand as able.

Presider Let us pray.

All Loving God, we have learned from your Word and eaten from your table. We give you thanks and praise for accepting us into your family. Send us out with your blessing, to live and to witness for you in the power of your Spirit, through Jesus Christ, the firstborn from the dead. Amen.

THE BLESSING

Presider Let us depart from this place in peace, and as we go on our way, forget not those who are poor, pray for those who are sick, make no peace with oppression, and love one another in God as Christ has loved us, and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit—the God who loves you, who really, really loves you, be with you now and forever more. Amen.

RELATA refers to the totality of all relationships, and we engage in these relationships through the stories we tell. These stories begin with our origin stories and move through experiences of belonging, achieving, and loving, while also touching on elements of the spiritual and the practices that shape us, landing, finally, on agape love.

At Epiphany, our core story is the Gospel of Jesus Christ. This Lent, we invite you to participate in RELATA for Christians, a six-week journey where we will gather around tables each Sunday from 10:00 AM to 11:00 AM, reflecting on the life of Jesus through the RELATA lens.

Register here as your registration helps us create a consistent and meaningful table experience throughout the six weeks. Join us for what promises to be a refreshing and enriching way to experience Lent at Epiphany. Youth (6th-12th grades) are encouraged to participate as well!

Dear Epiphany,

Our Super Bowl party tradition started back in 2017 with just Billy Rosewarne and me. Since then, we've hosted a party every single year! We now co-host with Alvin Moseberry and receive amazing help from our awesome choir members.

Every year, we move couches from all around campus into the Great Hall so we can gather together as a parish community. This party is truly a special time of fellowship for everyone—from 2-year-olds to our oldest members. People join us from near and far: be they neighbors, choir, staff, RELATA attendees, the Vestry—you name it!

This year was full of laughter, cheering, and so much good food. Our potluck filled five whole tables! We had everything from delicious homemade dishes to beer and non-alcoholic drinks. There was so much joy in the room. Some of us even danced their hearts out!

At the end of the night, I stepped into the Great Hall kitchen for just a moment. When I came back out, the couches were already disappearing, as everyone worked together to clean up. This was such a moving moment for me. It showed me how our congregation truly comes together in fellowship and teamwork. The whole party felt relaxing, joyful, and exactly what a strong community should look like.

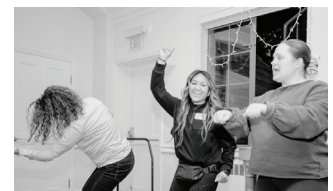

Back in 2017, we had 70 people attend. This past Sunday, February 8, we had an amazing 127 attendees! Our community is growing, which is so exciting to see.

Scan the QR Code below to see what a blast we had! And from the bottom of my heart, thank you to everyone who helped make this party such a success.

Be sure to save the date for next year: Sunday, February 14, 2027. You won't want to miss it!

With gratitude and excitement,

Amanda
