THE LAST SUNDAY AFTER THE EPIPHANY

HOLY EUCHARIST

WITH CONFIRMATIONS, RECEPTIONS & REAFFIRMATIONS

FEBRUARY 15, 2026 AT 11:00 AM

Dear Epiphany,

This Sunday is a day of joy and promise for our parish. We welcome Bishop Phil LaBelle to Epiphany as we celebrate confirmations, receptions into the Episcopal Church, and the reaffirmation of baptismal vows. These rites are the Church at its best, standing alongside people as they say “yes” to a way of life rooted in Jesus. It is also an opportunity to renew our own “yes” to follow him in the days ahead.

If you haven’t met Bishop Phil yet, here’s a snapshot. He is the ninth Bishop of the Diocese of Olympia, elected in May 2024 and consecrated in September 2024. Before coming to Western Washington, he served as rector of St. Mark’s in Southborough, Massachusetts, where he helped launch interfaith, community-building work like Southborough Neighbors for Peace. His ministry has been shaped by a desire to gather people across differences and tend to the spiritual health of communities.

It is the role of the bishop to visit every church in the diocese at least once every three years. It is likely we won’t have the honor of having Bishop Phil with us again until 2029. While he is here today, he will lay hands on our candidates and pray for the Holy Spirit’s strengthening gifts. If you are being confirmed, received, or reaffirming your vows, know that your “yes” blesses all of us. And if you are in the pews witnessing these promises, remember that your presence matters. We are not spectators; we are companions. We promise to support one another in continuing in the apostles’ teaching and fellowship, in persevering in resisting evil, in seeking and serving Christ in all persons, and in respecting the dignity of every human being (BCP 304–305). These aren’t abstract ideals; they’re the shape of our daily lives.

Please also make a point to join Bishop Phil for the 10:00 am Forum in the Great Hall. Bring your curiosity and your questions. It’s a chance to hear his hopes for the Church in Western Washington, to share what you love about Epiphany, and to imagine together how we can be a community that embodies Christ’s peace and welcome in Seattle.

With love in Christ,
Kate

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY (said by all)

All O God, who before the passion of thy only-begotten Son didst reveal his glory upon the holy mount: Grant unto us that we, beholding by faith the light of his countenance, may be strengthened to bear our cross, and be changed into his likeness from glory to glory; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

THE LESSON: Exodus 24:12-18

The Lord said to Moses, "Come up to me on the mountain, and wait there; and I will give you the tablets of stone, with the law and the commandment, which I have written for their instruction." So Moses set out with his assistant Joshua, and Moses went up into the mountain of God. To the elders he had said, "Wait here for us, until we come to you again; for Aaron and Hur are with you; whoever has a dispute may go to them."

Then Moses went up on the mountain, and the cloud covered the mountain. The glory of the Lord settled on Mount Sinai, and the cloud covered it for six days; on the seventh day he called to Moses out of the cloud. Now the appearance of the glory of the Lord was like a devouring fire on the top of the mountain in the sight of the people of Israel. Moses entered the cloud, and went up on the mountain. Moses was on the mountain for forty days and forty nights.

Lector The Word of the Lord.
All Thanks be to God.

The people remain seated.

PSALM 99 Dominus regnavit

Chant by Percy Whitlock

The Lord is King, be the people never so impatient *
he sitteth between the cherubims, be the earth never so unquiet.

The Lord is great in Sion * and high above all people.

They shall give thanks unto thy Name * which is great, wonderful, and holy.

The king's power loveth judgement; thou hast prepared equity * thou hast executed judgement and righteousness in Jacob.

O magnify the Lord our God * and fall down before his footstool, for he is holy.

Moses and Aaron among his priests, and Samuel among such as call upon his Name * these called upon the Lord, and he heard them.

He spake unto them out of the cloudy pillar * for they kept his testimonies, and the law that he gave them.

Thou heardest them, O Lord our God *
thou forgavest them, O God, and punishedst their own inventions.

O magnify the Lord our God, and worship him upon his holy hill * for the Lord our God is holy.

The people stand.

THE GOSPEL ACCLAMATION The refrain is sung first by the Cantor, and then sung by all.

Verse: The Word of God became flesh and dwelt among us.
To those who accepted him, he gave power to become children of God. Refrain (sung by all)

THE GOSPEL: Matthew 17:1-9

Gospeler The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.
All Glory be to thee, O Lord.

Six days later, Jesus took with him Peter and James and his brother John and led them up a high mountain, by themselves. And he was transfigured before them, and his face shone like the sun, and his clothes became dazzling white. Suddenly there appeared to them Moses and Elijah, talking with him. Then Peter said to Jesus, "Lord, it is good for us to be here; if you wish, I will make three dwellings here, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah." While he was still speaking, suddenly a bright cloud overshadowed them, and from the cloud a voice said, "This is my Son, the Beloved; with him I am well pleased; listen to him!" When the disciples heard this, they fell to the ground and were overcome by fear. But Jesus came and touched them, saying, "Get up and do not be afraid." And when they looked up, they saw no one except Jesus himself alone.

As they were coming down the mountain, Jesus ordered them, "Tell no one about the vision until after the Son of Man has been raised from the dead."

WELCOME AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

THE LITURGY OF THE TABLE

OFFERTORY SENTENCE

Bishop May all the earth give you worship and praise, and break into song to your name, O God.

The offertory is the time during the service when we give offerings to God, acknowledging that all we have comes from God. The choir offers their gift of music, and this is our opportunity to offer thanks to God through a monetary gift to support the ministries of Epiphany. Active Epiphany parishioners make an annual pledge commitment toward the vitality of our ministries. In some cases pledging parishioners also make a financial contribution at the offertory. Money placed in the hunger basket at Communion supports our outreach ministry of feeding those in need. You may use the QR code, either during the anthem or later at your convenience, or place your offering in the offering plate as it is passed.

The loose offering will be given to the bishop for his discretionary fund.

OFFERTORY ANTHEM: Antiphon

Ralph Vaughan Williams (1872-1958)

Let all the world in every corner sing, my God and King!
The heavens are not too high, His praise may thither fly,
The earth is not too low, His praises there may grow.
Let all the world in every corner sing, my God and King!

Let all the world in every corner sing, my God and King!
The church with psalms must shout, no door can keep them out;
But, above all, the heart must bear the longest part.
Let all the world in every corner sing, my God and King!

The people stand as the thurifer comes to the top of the chancel steps. The thurifer bows to the people and the people bow to the thurifer. The thurifer censens the people, and then all bow again.

The people remain standing.

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER II

Bishop The Lord be with you.
All And with thy spirit.
Bishop Lift up your hearts.
All We lift them up unto to the Lord.
Bishop Let us give thanks unto our Lord God.
All It is meet and right so to do.

The Bishop continues

It is very meet, right, and our bounden duty, that we should at all times, and in all places, give thanks unto thee, O Lord, holy, almighty, everlasting God, because in the mystery of the Word made flesh, thou hast caused a new light to shine in our hearts, to give the knowledge of thy glory in the face of thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Therefore with Angels and Archangels, and with all the company of heaven, we laud and magnify thy glorious Name; evermore praising thee, and singing:

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly, Lord God of Hosts: Hea - ven and earth are full of thy glo - ry. Glo -

- ry be to thee, O Lord Most High. Bless - ed is he that com - eth in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

All glory be to thee, O Lord our God, for that thou didst create heaven and earth, and didst make us in thine own image; and, of thy tender mercy, didst give thine only Son Jesus Christ to take our nature upon him, and to suffer death upon the cross for our redemption. He made there a full and perfect sacrifice for the whole world; and did institute, and in his holy Gospel command us to continue, a perpetual memory of that his precious death and sacrifice, until his coming again.

For in the night in which he was betrayed, he took bread; and when he had given thanks to thee, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying, "Take, eat, this is my Body, which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me."

Likewise, after supper, he took the cup; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, saying, "Drink this, all of you; for this is my Blood of the New Covenant, which is shed for you, and for all, for the remission of sins. Do this, as oft as ye shall drink it, in remembrance of me."

Wherefore, O Lord and heavenly Father, we thy people do celebrate and make, with these thy holy gifts which we now offer unto thee, the memorial thy Son hath commanded us to make; having in remembrance his life, blessed passion, and precious death, his mighty resurrection and glorious ascension; and looking for his coming again with power and great glory.

And we most humbly beseech thee, O merciful God, to hear us, and, with thy Word and Holy Spirit, to bless and sanctify these gifts of bread and wine, that they may be unto us the Body and Blood of thy dearly-beloved Son Jesus Christ.

And we earnestly desire thy goodness to accept this our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving, whereby we offer and present unto thee, O Lord, our selves, our souls and bodies. Grant, we beseech thee, that all who partake of this Holy Communion may worthily receive the most precious Body and Blood of thy Son Jesus Christ, and be filled with thy grace and heavenly benediction; and also that we and all thy whole Church may be made one body with him, that he may dwell in us, and we in him; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord;

By whom, and with whom, and in whom, in the unity of the Holy Ghost all honor and glory be unto thee, O God Almighty, world without end. AMEN.

And now, as our Savior Christ hath taught us, we are bold to pray,

THE LORD'S PRAYER sung by all

Our Fa-ther, who art in hea - ven, hal-low - ed be thy Name, thy king-dom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in hea - ven. Give us this day our dai-ly bread.
And for-give us our tres-pas-ses, as we for-give those who tres-pass a-gainst us.
And lead us not in-to temp-ta - tion, but de-li-ver us from e - vil. For thine is the king-dom, and the power, and the glo - ry, for ev - er and ev - er. A - men.

BREAKING OF THE BREAD

The Bishop breaks the consecrated Bread. A period of silence is kept.

FRACTION ANTHEM: O Lamb of God

Bodine

O Lamb of God, that tak-est a-way the sins of the world, have mer - cy up - on us. O Lamb of God, that tak-est a-way the sins of the world, have mer - cy up - on us. O Lamb of God, that tak-est a-way the sins of the world, grant us Thy peace.

THE INVITATION TO COMMUNION

Bishop

The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

All are invited to receive the Holy Communion. It is your choice as to whether you receive Holy Communion or a blessing. You may receive Communion or a blessing at the standing station in the front of the nave or proceed to the altar rail. The bread will be placed in your palm. You may consume the bread and then drink from the chalice (please grasp the bottom of the chalice firmly and guide it to your lips); or, you may leave the bread in your palm for the chalice bearer to dip it into the wine and place it on your tongue. Self-intinction is strongly discouraged by the Episcopal church. The people's response to receiving the bread and the wine is "Amen." Gluten-free wafers are available. To indicate to the Eucharistic minister that you would like a gluten-free wafer, please present your hands palms down. Those who do not wish to receive Communion are invited to come forward for a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms over your chest.

MUSIC AT COMMUNION

Thee We Adore

T. Frederick H. Candlyn (1892-1964)

Thee we adore, O hidden Savior, thee, who in thy sacrament art pleased to be; both flesh and spirit in thy presence fail.
Yet here thy presence we devoutly hail.

O blest memorial of our dying Lord, who living bread to all doth here afford! O may our souls forever feed on thee, and thou, O Christ, forever precious be.

Fountain of goodness, Jesu, Lord and God, cleanse us, unclean, in thy most cleansing flood; increase our faith and love, that we may know the hope and peace which from thy presence flow.

O Christ, whom now beneath a veil we see, may what we thirst for soon our portion be, to gaze on thee unveiled, and see thy face, the vision of thy glory and thy grace.

The people stand as able.

POSTCOMMUNION PRAYER

Bishop Let us pray.

All Eternal God, heavenly Father, who hast graciously accepted us as living members of thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord, and fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood: Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve thee with gladness and singleness of heart; through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE BLESSING

Bishop May Almighty God, who led the Wise Men by the shining of a star to find the Christ, the Light from Light, lead you also, in your pilgrimage, to find the Lord. Amen.

May God, who sent the Holy Spirit to rest upon the Only begotten at his baptism in the Jordan River, pour out that Spirit on you who have come to the waters of new birth. Amen.

May God, by the power that turned water into wine at the wedding feast at Cana, transform your lives and make glad your hearts. Amen.

And the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit—the God who loves you, who really, really loves you—be upon you and remain with you for ever. Amen.

Sundays, February 22, March 1, 8, 15, 22 & 29
10:00 am – 11:00 am | The Great Hall

RELATA refers to the totality of all relationships, and we engage in these relationships through the stories we tell. These stories begin with our origin stories and move through experiences of belonging, achieving, and loving, while also touching on elements of the spiritual and the practices that shape us, landing, finally, on agape love.

At Epiphany, our core story is the Gospel of Jesus Christ. This Lent, we invite you to participate in RELATA for Christians, a six-week journey where we will gather around tables each Sunday from 10:00 AM to 11:00 AM, reflecting on the life of Jesus through the RELATA lens.

Register here as your registration helps us create a consistent and meaningful table experience throughout the six weeks. Join us for what promises to be a refreshing and enriching way to experience Lent at Epiphany. Youth (6th-12th grades) are encouraged to participate as well!

5:30 pm
The Great Hall

On Shrove Tuesday, hosted by the Men's Breakfast Group, the day before Ash Wednesday, join us in the Great Hall to enjoy some pancakes and bacon before Lent!

This tradition reflects the old practice of using up all the eggs, butter, milk, and meat in the pantry before the Lenten fast begins. All are welcome.

At 6:15 pm, we will gather in the courtyard for the burning of the palms in preparation for Ash Wednesday. If you have your palm frond or palm cross from last year, please bring it. Even if you don't have a palm, join us for this brief, but powerful liturgy. Then return to the Great Hall to continue eating!

If you have any questions, email Amanda Eap at amanda@epiphanyseattle.org

Dear Epiphany,

Our Super Bowl party tradition started back in 2017 with just Billy Rosewarne and me. Since then, we've hosted a party every single year! We now co-host with Alvin Moseberry and receive amazing help from our awesome choir members.

Every year, we move couches from all around campus into the Great Hall so we can gather together as a parish community. This party is truly a special time of fellowship for everyone—from 2-year-olds to our oldest members. People join us from near and far: be they neighbors, choir, staff, RELATA attendees, the Vestry—you name it!

This year was full of laughter, cheering, and so much good food. Our potluck filled five whole tables! We had everything from delicious homemade dishes to beer and non-alcoholic drinks. There was so much joy in the room. Some of us even danced their hearts out!

At the end of the night, I stepped into the Great Hall kitchen for just a moment. When I came back out, the couches were already disappearing, as everyone worked together to clean up. This was such a moving moment for me. It showed me how our congregation truly comes together in fellowship and teamwork. The whole party felt relaxing, joyful, and exactly what a strong community should look like.

Back in 2017, we had 70 people attend. This past Sunday, February 8, we had an amazing 127 attendees! Our community is growing, which is so exciting to see.

Scan the QR Code below to see what a blast we had! And from the bottom of my heart, thank you to everyone who helped make this party such a success.

Be sure to save the date for next year: Sunday, February 14, 2027. You won't want to miss it!

With gratitude and excitement,

Amanda
