THE SUNDAY OF THE RESURRECTION EASTER DAY

FESTIVAL EUCHARIST
APRIL 5, 2026

8:45 AM & 11:00 AM

Alleluia! He is Risen!
The Lord is Risen indeed! Alleluia!

Happy Easter! We are so glad you are here to celebrate the joy, light, and new life of Easter with us today. Whether you are visiting for the first time, returning after a long time away, or someone who is here every single Sunday, welcome.

People have been celebrating the Resurrection and an empty tomb for two thousand years. Maybe you come because it's tradition or something you do with your family. Maybe you come because you are curious. Maybe, it's because you are longing for more, something deeper to provide meaning in your life. Maybe you just need an infusion of hope and joy. What are you hoping to find here this morning?

We like to say wherever you are on your spiritual journey, you have a place at Epiphany. We've been saying that every single Sunday for almost twenty years. We say it because it's true. Wherever you are and whatever you are seeking, you are most welcome to do that here in this community.

Another thing we like to say at Epiphany is the bad thing is never the last thing. That's shorthand for theologically explaining the resurrection. If you have ever wondered what the resurrection really means, this is it. The bad thing is never the last thing. Easter isn't just something that happened a really long time ago on the other side of the world; it is something that is still happening.

The good news of Easter promises an infusion of hope into the darkest corners of our lives. If you have arrived this morning feeling weary, uncertain, or sad, know that the hope of the resurrected Christ shines extra bright today. It shows up in the joy of singing in a full church, smelling the spring flowers, and taking a break from the world outside these walls.

The neighborhood church is the hope of the world. If you are seeking connection or community, this place is here for you. The uncurated community at Epiphany has doors wide open ready to receive anyone who chooses to make this place their home.

So whether this is your first Easter in a long time or one of many, know that you are part of this story of new life. The stone is still rolling away. Light is still breaking through. Love is still having the final word. May you carry that hope with you, not just today, but into whatever awaits you beyond these doors. Alleluia! Christ is risen.

Easter blessings,

Kate +

Presider The Lord be with you.
All And also with you.
Presider Let us pray.

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

All Almighty God, who through your only-begotten Son Jesus Christ overcame death and opened to us the gate of everlasting life: Grant that we, who celebrate with joy the day of the Lord's resurrection, may be raised from the death of sin by your life-giving Spirit; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

At the 8:45 service children will be invited to follow the verger to the Chapel for a children's sermon with the Reverend Kate Wesch. They will return at the Peace for Holy Eucharist.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

All are seated.

THE LESSON: Colossians 3:1-4

If you have been raised with Christ, seek the things that are above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God. Set your minds on things that are above, not on things that are on earth, for you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. When Christ who is your life is revealed, then you also will be revealed with him in glory.

Lector The Word of the Lord.
All Thanks be to God.

The people remain seated.

PSALM 118:1-2, 14-24

Chant: Thomas Attwood Walmisley

Choir, then all
Refrain

On this day the Lord has act-ed. We will re-joyce and be glad.

Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good;
his mercy endures for ever.
Let Israel now proclaim,
"His mercy endures for ever." Refrain

The LORD is my strength and my song, and he has become my salvation.
There is a sound of exultation and victory in the tents of the righteous:
The right hand of the LORD has triumphed!
the right hand of the LORD is exalted!
the right hand of the LORD has triumphed!
I shall not die, but live,
and declare the works of the LORD.
The LORD has punished me sorely,
but he did not hand me over to death. Refrain

On this day the Lord has act-ed. We will re-joice and be glad.

Open for me the gates of righteousness;
I will enter them;
I will offer thanks to the LORD.
"This is the gate of the LORD;
he who is righteous may enter."
I will give thanks to you, for you answered me
and have become my salvation.
The same stone which the builders rejected has become the chief cornerstone.
This is the LORD's doing,
and it is marvelous in our eyes.
On this day the LORD has acted;
we will rejoice and be glad in it. Refrain

The people stand.

THE GOSPEL ACCLAMATION The refrain is sung first by the Cantor, and then sung by all.

Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia.

Verse: Christ, our paschal lamb, has been sacrificed;
let us then feast with joy in the Lord.
Refrain (sung by all)

THE GOSPEL: Matthew 28:1-10

Gospeler The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.
All Glory to you, Lord Christ.

After the sabbath, as the first day of the week was dawning, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary went to see the tomb. And suddenly there was a great earthquake; for an angel of the Lord, descending from heaven, came and rolled back the stone and sat on it. His appearance was like lightning, and his clothing white as snow. For fear of him the guards shook and became like dead men. But the angel said to the women, "Do not be afraid; I know that you are looking for Jesus who was crucified. He is not here; for he has been raised, as he said. Come, see the place where he lay. Then go quickly and tell his disciples, 'He has been raised from the dead, and indeed he is going ahead of you to Galilee; there you will see him.' This is my message for you." So they left the tomb quickly with fear and great joy, and ran to tell his disciples. Suddenly Jesus met them and said, "Greetings!" And they came to him, took hold of his feet, and worshiped him. Then Jesus said to them, "Do not be afraid; go and tell my brothers to go to Galilee; there they will see me."

Gospeler The Gospel of the Lord.
All Praise to you, Lord Christ.

THE SERMON: The Reverend Doyt L. Conn, Jr.

Reflective silence and stillness are kept after the sermon.

The people stand to say
THE NICENE CREED

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

The intercessor and people pray responsively.

Intercessor Let us pray that all the world might share in the glorious freedom of all the people of God, which the risen Christ has won for us.

For the creation that God birthed with love and redeemed with compassion; may all things in heaven and on earth render God fitting praise.

Risen Savior,

All Hear our prayer.

Intercessor For those who have been reborn in Christ through these life-giving waters of faith; may the newly baptized hold fast to the life of grace.

Risen Savior,

All Hear our prayer.

Intercessor For the church universal, which has renewed its baptismal covenant; may all believers cling to the peace of Christ.

Risen Savior,

All Hear our prayer.

Intercessor For Christian households that gather on this feast day to share a family meal; may the homes of believers be blessed with joy and love.

Risen Savior,

All Hear our prayer.

Intercessor For all who rejoice in the feast of the Lamb; may our celebration of the Eucharist free us to be servants of the gospel of life.

Risen Savior,

All Hear our prayer.

Intercessor For those who have died in the peace of the Savior; may the faithful departed rise at God's word to the glory of the resurrection.

Risen Savior,

All Hear our prayer.

Intercessor For those on our hearts, offering intercession and solace, comfort and healing, praise and thanksgiving, for those we now name silently or aloud.

The people may add their own petitions.

Intercessor Lord, let your loving-kindness be upon them;

All Who put their trust in you.

The Presider offers a concluding Collect.

Presider God of love and mercy, hear the prayers of your church on this feast of the resurrection, and keep alive in us the peace of the risen Christ, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God forever and ever.
Amen.

THE PEACE

Presider The peace of the Lord be always with you.

All And also with you.

The ministers and people greet one another in the name of Christ.

WELCOME AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

THE LITURGY OF THE TABLE

OFFERTORY SENTENCE

Presider Thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

The offertory is the time during the service when we give offerings to God, acknowledging that all we have comes from God. The choir offers their gift of music, and this is our opportunity to offer thanks to God through a monetary gift to support the ministries of Epiphany. Active Epiphany parishioners make an annual pledge commitment toward the vitality of our ministries. In some cases pledging parishioners also make a financial contribution at the offertory. Money placed in the hunger basket at Communion supports our outreach ministry of feeding those in need. You may use the QR code, either during the anthem or later at your convenience, or place your offering in the offering plate as it is passed.

Contributions to the Hunger Basket at the front of the nave help feed more than 300 families who rely on the local Madrona YWCA Food Bank for part of their weekly food supplies.

OFFERTORY ANTHEM: Hilariter

Richard Dirksen (1921-2003)

The whole bright world rejoices now,
Alleluia, alleluia!
The birds do sing on every bough,
Alleluia, alleluia!

Then shout beneath the racing skies,
Alleluia, alleluia!
To him who rose that we might rise,
Alleluia, alleluia!

And all you living things make praise,
Alleluia, alleluia!
He guideth you on all your ways,
Alleluia, alleluia!

To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost—
Alleluia, alleluia!
Our God most high, our joy and boast.
Alleluia, alleluia!

INVITATION TO HOLY COMMUNION

Presider We now turn our attention to the altar, where we first witness, and then share in, the very becoming of God among us: first as bread and wine, then within ourselves through that bread and wine, and finally out into the world through the lives we live. Everyone is welcome to receive communion at this altar.

The people stand.

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER A

Presider The Lord be with you.

All And also with you.

Presider Lift up your hearts.

All We lift them to the Lord.

Presider Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

All It is right to give God thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. But chiefly are we bound to praise you for the glorious resurrection of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord; for he is the true Paschal Lamb, who was sacrificed for us, and has taken away the sin of the world. By his death he has destroyed death, and by his rising to life again he has won for us everlasting life.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

SANCTUS sung by all

*Richard Proulx
Mass for the City*

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow-er and might,___ heav - en and earth___ are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na, ho - san - na, ho - san - na in___ the high - est. Bless - ed is he___ who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na, ho - san - na, ho - san - na in___ the high - est. Ho -

The people stand or kneel. Then the Presider continues.

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all. He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Presider and people

Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him.

Presider and people

Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

Presider

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. AMEN.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to pray,

THE LORD'S PRAYER said by all

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name.
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

BREAKING OF THE BREAD

The Presider breaks the consecrated Bread. A period of silence is kept.

FRACTION ANTHEM: Christ our Passover

Frank Boles

The refrain is sung once by the cantor and then by all, and again after the verse.

THE INVITATION TO COMMUNION

Presider The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

All are invited to receive the Holy Communion. It is your choice as to whether you receive Holy Communion or a blessing. You may receive Communion or a blessing at the standing station in the front of the nave or proceed to the altar rail. The bread will be placed in your palm. You may consume the bread and then drink from the chalice (please grasp the bottom of the chalice firmly and guide it to your lips); or, you may leave the bread in your palm for the chalice bearer to dip it into the wine and place it on your tongue. Self-intinction is strongly discouraged by the Episcopal church. The people's response to receiving the bread and the wine is "Amen." Gluten-free wafers are available. To indicate to the Eucharistic minister that you would like a gluten-free wafer, please present your hands palms down. Those who do not wish to receive Communion are invited to come forward for a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms over your chest.

POSTCOMMUNION PRAYER

Presider Let us pray.

All Almighty and everliving God, we thank you for feeding us with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ; and for assuring us in these holy mysteries that we are living members of the Body of your Son, and heirs of your eternal kingdom. And now, Father, send us out to do the work you have given us to do, to love and serve you as faithful witnesses of Christ our Lord. To him, to you, and to the Holy Spirit, be honor and glory, now and for ever. Amen.

THE BLESSING

Presider May Almighty God, who has redeemed us and made us his children through the resurrection of his Son our Lord, bestow upon you the riches of his blessing. Amen.

May God, who through the water of baptism has raised us from sin into newness of life, make you holy and worthy to be united with Christ for ever. Amen.

May God, who has brought us out of bondage to sin into true and lasting freedom in the Redeemer, bring you to your eternal inheritance. Amen.

And the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit—the God who loves you, who really, really loves you—be upon you and remain with you for ever. Amen.

Great Hall

The men at Epiphany gather monthly to encourage renewed fellowship and deeper connections. In April, we will hear from Joel Wesch, a parishioner and firefighter who will share on "Safety Tips and Preparedness in the Home." All men at Epiphany are invited to attend (bring along friends from outside our church family). If you have any questions, please contact Brook Berry at brook@brookberry.biz.

A Family Series

Sunday, May 3
4:30 - 6:45 pm
Great Hall & Fireside Room

Join us for the final session of this year's Family Series, a five-part journey exploring the holistic well-being of children.

May's speaker will be the Diocese's former Canon for Faith Formation, Valerie Reinke. Her topic will be, "Who is God?": Responding to the Big Questions that Children Ask—a conversation your family will not want to miss! During the talk, we are simultaneously offering age-appropriate spiritual education for all children attending.

Dinner is included for those who register. Please contact Cadence Granados at cgranados@epiphanyseattle.org with any questions.

Concerts in the Courtyard

Last Four Fridays in July
6:30 - 8:00 pm

Save the dates! On the last four Fridays of July from 6:30 - 8:00 pm gather in the Epiphany courtyard for live music by local Seattle bands! Bring a chair or blanket, your dancing spirit, and enjoy a picnic.

Each week, we're also collecting new socks for Operation Nightwatch and Teen Feed. Come celebrate community, music, and service! Stay tuned for more details!

For more information, contact Amanda Eap at amanda@epiphanyseattle.org
