THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

All Almighty and everlasting God, you have given to us your servants grace, by the confession of a true faith, to acknowledge the glory of the eternal Trinity, and in the power of your divine Majesty to worship the Unity: Keep us steadfast in this faith and worship, and bring us at last to see you in your one and eternal glory, O Father; who with the Son and the Holy Spirit live and reign, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

All are seated.

THE LESSON: Proverbs 8:1-4, 22-31

Does not wisdom call, and does not understanding raise her voice? On the heights, beside the way, at the crossroads she takes her stand; beside the gates in front of the town, at the entrance of the portals she cries out:

“To you, O people, I call, and my cry is to all that live. The Lord created me at the beginning of his work, the first of his acts of long ago. Ages ago I was set up, at the first, before the beginning of the earth. When there were no depths I was brought forth, when there were no springs abounding with water. Before the mountains had been shaped, before the hills, I was brought forth—when he had not yet made earth and fields, or the world’s first bits of soil.

“When he established the heavens, I was there, when he drew a circle on the face of the deep, when he made firm the skies above, when he established the fountains of the deep, when he assigned to the sea its limit, so that the waters might not transgress his command, when he marked out the foundations of the earth, then I was beside him, like a master worker; and I was daily his delight, rejoicing before him always, rejoicing in his inhabited world and delighting in the human race.”

Lector The Word of the Lord.
All Thanks be to God.

THE GOSPEL: Matthew 28:16-20

Gospeler The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.
All Glory to you, Lord Christ.

The eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain to which Jesus had directed them. When they saw him, they worshiped him; but some doubted. And Jesus came and said to them, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything that I have commanded you. And remember, I am with you always, to the end of the age."

Gospeler The Gospel of the Lord.
All Praise to you, Lord Christ.

THE SERMON: The Reverend Kate Wesch

Reflective silence and stillness are kept after the sermon.

Sermon notes:

The people stand to say
THE NICENE CREED

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

All Who put their trust in you.

The Presider offers a concluding Collect.

The Presider continues

THE CONFESSION OF SIN

Presider We pray also for the forgiveness of our sins.

The people kneel. A moment of reflective silence is kept.

Said by all

we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, that we may delight in your will,

and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

WELCOME AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

THE LITURGY OF THE TABLE

OFFERTORY SENTENCE

Presider From the rising of the sun to its going down, let God, the Three in One, be praised.

The offertory is the time during the service when we give offerings to God, acknowledging that all we have comes from God. The choir offers their gift of music, and this is our opportunity to offer thanks to God through a monetary gift to support the ministries of Epiphany. Active Epiphany parishioners make an annual pledge commitment toward the vitality of our ministries. In some cases pledging parishioners also make a financial contribution at the offertory. Money placed in the hunger basket at Communion supports our outreach ministry of feeding those in need. You may use the QR code, either during the anthem or later at your convenience, or place your offering in the offering plate as it is passed.

OFFERTORY ANTHEM: Let there be light

Gilbert Martin (b. 1941)

Thou, whose almighty Word
chaos and darkness heard,
and took their flight:
Hear us, we humbly pray,
and where the gospel's day sheds not its glorious ray,
let there be light!

Thou who didst come to bring,
on thy redeeming wing,
healing and sight,
Health to the sick in mind,
sight to the inly blind:
O now, to all mankind,
let there be light!

Spirit of truth and love,
Life-giving, holy dove,
speed forth thy flight;
Move o'er the water's face,
bearing the lamp of grace;
and in earth's darkest place,
let there be light!

Holy and blessed three,
glorious Trinity,
Grace, Love, and Might!
Boundless as ocean's tide
rolling in fullest pride,
through the world far and wide,
let there be light!

INVITATION TO HOLY COMMUNION

Presider We now turn our attention to the altar, where we first witness, and then share in, the very becoming of God among us: first as bread and wine, then within ourselves through that bread and wine, and finally out into the world through the lives we live. Everyone is welcome to receive communion at this table.

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER A

Presider The Lord be with you.
All And also with you.
Presider Lift up your hearts.
All We lift them to the Lord.
Presider Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
All It is right to give God thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, for with your co-eternal Son and Holy Spirit, you are one God, one Lord, in Trinity of Persons and in Unity of Being; and we celebrate the one and equal glory of you, O Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

SANCTUS sung by all

William Mathias

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho-san-na in the high - est. Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho-san-na in the high-est.

The people stand or kneel. Then the Presider continues.

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all. He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Presider and people

Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him.

Presider and people

Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

Presider

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. AMEN.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to pray,

THE LORD'S PRAYER said by all

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name.
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

BREAKING OF THE BREAD

The Presider breaks the consecrated Bread. A period of silence is kept.

FRACTION ANTHEM: Lamb of God

*David Hurd
New Plainsong Mass*

Lamb of God, you take a - way the sins of the world:
have mer - cy on us. Lamb of God, you take a - way the sins of the world: have mer - cy on us. Lamb of God, you take a - way the sins of the world: grant us peace.

THE INVITATION TO COMMUNION

Presider The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

All are invited to receive the Holy Communion. It is your choice as to whether you receive Holy Communion or a blessing. You may receive Communion or a blessing at the standing station in the front of the nave or proceed to the altar rail. The bread will be placed in your palm. You may consume the bread and then drink from the chalice (please grasp the bottom of the chalice firmly and guide it to your lips); or, you may leave the bread in your palm for the chalice bearer to dip it into the wine and place it on your tongue. Self-intinction is strongly discouraged by the Episcopal church. The people's response to receiving the bread and the wine is "Amen." Gluten-free wafers are available. To indicate to the Eucharistic minister that you would like a gluten-free wafer, please present your hands palms down. Those who do not wish to receive Communion are invited to come forward for a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms over your chest.

POSTCOMMUNION PRAYER

Presider Let us pray.

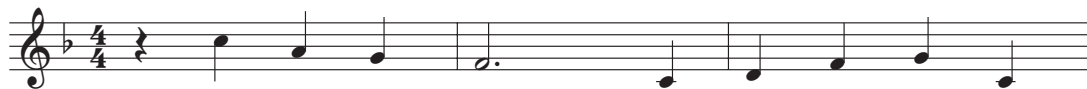

All Almighty God, whose Son is the light of the world, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood. Amen.

THE BLESSING

Presider May God bless you and keep you. May God's face shine upon you, and be gracious to you. May God's countenance be upon you, and give you peace. A pastoral letter is a message from the bishop to the clergy and people of the diocese, offered as part of the bishop's ministry of teaching, guidance, and pastoral care. In the regular order of our common life in the Church, such letters are shared with congregations, and so we print it here at the bishop's request.

Greetings to you in the name of the holy and undivided Trinity, one God.

On this day we gather to reflect on that which makes us distinctly Christian in our theology and practice: the belief that God exists in community. That God is in relationship within God's self. Additionally, we believe that the relationship within the Triune God existed before taking any action which brought about the cosmos. God chose to engage in creation so that God could breathe forth new relationships with the whole of creation—from the furthest galaxies of deep space to the microorganisms on the ocean floor. Even more, God formed humanity in God's own image.

I believe that image centers on our being connected too. As those who bear the imago dei—the image of God—we are called to be in relationship with God, one another, and the natural world. Relationships define both our humanity and the God whom we worship and serve. Jesus—the living Word made flesh—showed us this directly in how he lived among us, constantly deepening connections with others through his ministry, actions, and prayer.

The predominant culture of western industrialized countries, and especially our own, focuses on the individual above the collective whole. It is easy to succumb to the siren call that our individual needs and desires always take precedence over the needs and desires of others. That as long as we and ours are taken care of, what happens to others is of little or no concern.

This is antithetical to the way of Jesus. It is anti-Christ.

This past weekend, our current political administration announced a new policy that all those seeking green cards must leave the U.S. and apply from their home countries to do so. As reported, this policy—and many others that have preceded it in relation to immigrants, asylum seekers, and resident aliens—will separate families: spouses from each other, parents from children. With no regard for relationships or familial bonds, this administration seeks to further contempt for the other—that is, those who are not a part of the dominant culture or who are minorities of any kind—which has become one of the defining aspects of this administration.

This new policy, like the others before it, will greatly impact people within our Diocese. Amongst our clergy and lay members are those who have come to the United States desiring a better life and those who fled atrocities in their home countries, who are in the process of receiving permanent residency and citizenship. If this policy is enacted as described—a significant departure from previous immigration policies—it will rip congregations, communities, and families apart. We are reminded by St. Paul in Scripture that we are all the Body of Christ and that we need each member in order to function. We are in relationship with one another in order to be Christ's presence in the world.

I entreat you in the name of the holy and undivided Trinity to respond. First, through prayer and contemplation. It is only in stillness and time connected with the Almighty that we ourselves can be changed and strengthened and then, as a result, take responsible action. The practice of contemplative prayer grounds our faith in relationship with the God who created us, and, as we've seen again and again, it has the power to change both us and our world.

Second, stay connected with others, especially those who are impacted by these decisions. Many of these are fearful, filled with uncertainty, and feeling alone. We must not fall prey to the belief that as long as we individually are fine, it really doesn't matter. We are called to be our siblings' keepers, to attend to their needs, and to stay in relationship with them. There are a myriad of ways to do this, and I encourage you to intentionally make space in your lives and worship communities to do so.

Finally, we must always respect the dignity of every human being. Whether we agree with a person's positions or not, we must never degrade others, because all of us bear the image of God. All of us have been created to be in relationship with each other. Jesus commanded his followers to love those they perceived to be their enemies and to pray for them. I would encourage us to be in relationship and conversation with all our neighbors, breaking down those walls that divide us. We will be known as Christ's followers through our love and care for all people.

Beloved, stay in relationship with God, each other, and this amazing world of ours; this is the reason God created us. No matter what happens in our nation or our world, as disciples of Jesus, our call is to faithfully remain connected through love and hope and peace.

May the Holy eternal Majesty, the Holy incarnate Word, and the Holy abiding Spirit, bless you now and in the days ahead.

A Conversation on Adult Formation

Sunday, June 7 at 10:00 am
Christie House Library

You're invited to join a conversation about the future of adult formation at Epiphany. We'll gather to take a "30,000-foot view" of our offerings—reflecting on what's working well and where there may be gaps. If you care about adult formation and want to help shape what comes next, we hope you'll join us.

Youth Group: Quarterly Priest Fireside Chat

Sunday, June 7
5:30 - 7:00 pm
Doyt's Office

Have questions about God, faith, or what the church teaches? Bring your curiosity and join us for our Quarterly Priest Fireside Chat—a relaxed space where students can ask our priests anything about theology, scripture, or spiritual life. No question is too big, too small, or too weird! Dinner is provided for those who RSVP on Realm.

Men's Ministry: Holy Smokes BBQ

Thursday, June 11
6:00 - 8:00 pm
St. Francis Garden

The grills are hot, the burgers are sizzling, and the Men of Epiphany are gathering once again for Holy Smokes—our summer BBQ series full of great food, cold drinks, loud laughter, and excellent company. Join us for relaxed summer evenings featuring burgers, brats, and occasional grill-master glory. Whether you're a BBQ veteran or simply willing to hold a plate and tell a good story, there's a seat for you at the table. Suggested donation: $10 to help cover food costs. Feel free to bring a favorite beverage to share. Questions? Reach out to Brook Berry at brook@brookberry.biz.

Preserve & Enhance our Spiritual Home

The Capital Campaign

Join us for a Chancel Gathering to learn more about how you can participate in honoring our past and generously passing Epiphany to future generations.

100% participation: Epiphany has thrived for the past 18 years through a simple but powerful pattern: when everyone participates and gives generously according to their capacity, we have what we need. If we honor this same principle today, we'll be able to care for this place and continue as a thriving Episcopal church.
