

EPIPHANY†

Seattle

THIRTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

HOLY EUCHARIST

AUGUST 23, 2026 AT 8:45 AM

An induction loop is provided for the benefit of hearing aid users.
To use please switch your hearing aid to "T."

THE GATHERING

We invite you to help create the experience of silence before our service.
Our hope is to calm our hearts as we prepare to enter into an intensity of shared presence.
Thank you for turning off all electronic devices.

VOLUNTARY: Fugue

George Morgan (1823-92)

At the sound of the bell, all rise as able.

Presider Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
All And blessed be God's kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

Presider Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

All Grant, O merciful God, that your Church, being gathered together in unity by your Holy Spirit, may show forth your power among all peoples, to the glory of your Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

All are seated.

THE LESSON: Isaiah 51:1-6

Listen to me, you that pursue righteousness, you that seek the Lord. Look to the rock from which you were hewn, and to the quarry from which you were dug. Look to Abraham your father and to Sarah who bore you; for he was but one when I called him, but I blessed him and made him many. For the Lord will comfort Zion; he will comfort all her waste places, and will make her wilderness like Eden, her desert like the garden of the Lord; joy and gladness will be found in her, thanksgiving and the voice of song.

Listen to me, my people, and give heed to me, my nation; for a teaching will go out from me, and my justice for a light to the peoples. I will bring near my deliverance swiftly, my salvation has gone out and my arms will rule the peoples; the coastlands wait for me, and for my arm they hope.

Lift up your eyes to the heavens, and look at the earth beneath; for the heavens will vanish like smoke, the earth will wear out like a garment, and those who live on it will die like gnats; but my salvation will be for ever, and my deliverance will never be ended.

Lector The Word of the Lord.
 All Thanks be to God.

The people stand as able and sing.

Words: German composite; tr. pub. New York, 1850, alt. Music: St. Elizabeth, melody from Schlesische Volkslieder, 1842; harm. Thomas Tertius Noble (1867-1953).

THE GOSPEL: Matthew 16:13-20

Gospeler The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.
 All Glory to you, Lord Christ.

When Jesus came into the district of Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, "Who do people say that the Son of Man is?" And they said, "Some say John the Baptist, but others Elijah, and still others Jeremiah or one of the prophets." He said to them, "But who do you say that I am?" Simon Peter answered, "You are the Messiah, the Son of the living God." And Jesus answered him, "Blessed are you, Simon son of Jonah! For flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but my Father in heaven. And I tell you, you are Peter, and on this rock I will build my church, and the gates of Hades will not prevail against it. I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven, and whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven." Then he sternly ordered the disciples not to tell anyone that he was the Messiah.

Gospeler The Gospel of the Lord.
 All Praise to you, Lord Christ.

THE SERMON: The Reverend Doyt L. Conn, Jr.

Reflective silence and stillness are kept after the sermon.

Sermon notes:

The people stand to say
THE NICENE CREED

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

The intercessor and people pray responsively.

Intercessor With all our heart and with all our mind, let us pray to the Lord.

The people remain standing or kneel.

Intercessor For Sean, our presiding bishop, Phil, our bishop, and for all who minister in Christ, and for all the holy people of God, let us pray to the Lord.

All Glory and praise to you, O living God.

Intercessor For all believers who put their trust in the incarnate Son of God, let us pray to the Lord.

All Glory and praise to you, O living God.

Intercessor For the leaders of the nations and all in authority, and for peace and justice, let us pray to the Lord.

All Glory and praise to you, O living God.

Intercessor For all who struggle to establish greater peace upon earth, especially those who serve in the military, those on missions of hope and mercy, and their families, let us pray to the Lord.

All Glory and praise to you, O living God.

Intercessor For all first responders, especially our urban and wildland firefighters: that God may protect and strengthen them during this season of heat and wildfire danger, and bring them safely home to their families, and watch over all those threatened by wildfires, let us pray to the Lord.

All Glory and praise to you, O living God.

Intercessor For the sick and the suffering, especially Suzanne, Bill, Susan, Ben, Matthew, Lynn, Anna, Janet, John, Tara, Thomas, Alex, Pam, Ted, and Peggy, for the hungry and the oppressed, and for the dying and the dead, let us pray to the Lord.

All Glory and praise to you, O living God.

Intercessor For those on our hearts, especially all those threatened by the fires in Spokane and surrounding communities, offering intercession and solace, comfort and healing, praise and thanksgiving, for those we now name silently or aloud.

The people may add their own petitions.

Intercessor Lord, let your loving-kindness be upon them;

All Who put their trust in you.

The Presider offers a Concluding Collect.

Lord Jesus Christ, you said to your apostles, "Peace I give to you; my own peace I leave with you:" Regard not our sins, but the faith of your Church, and give to us the peace and unity of that heavenly City, where with the Father and the Holy Spirit you live and reign, now and for ever. Amen.

The Presider continues

THE CONFESSION OF SIN

Presider We pray also for the forgiveness of our sins.

The people kneel. A moment of reflective silence is kept.

Said by all

All Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,
have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Presider Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

The people stand.

THE PEACE

Presider The peace of the Lord be always with you.

All And also with you.

The ministers and people greet one another in the name of Christ.

WELCOME AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

THE LITURGY OF THE TABLE

OFFERTORY SENTENCE

Presider Ascribe to the Lord the honor due his Name; bring offerings and come into his courts.

The offertory is the time during the service when we give offerings to God, acknowledging that all we have comes from God. The choir offers their gift of music, and this is our opportunity to offer thanks to God through a monetary gift to support the ministries of Epiphany. Active Epiphany parishioners make an annual pledge commitment toward the vitality of our ministries. In some cases pledging parishioners also make a financial contribution at the offertory. Money placed in the hunger basket at Communion supports our outreach ministry of feeding those in need. You may use the QR code, either during the anthem or later at your convenience, or place your offering in the offering plate as it is passed.

OFFERTORY ANTHEM: O sacred oracles of truth

George Frideric Handel (1685-1759)

O sacred oracles of truth,
O living spring of purest joy!
By day be ever in my mouth,
And all my nightly thoughts employ.
Whoe'er withhold attention due,
Neglect themselves, despising you.

INVITATION TO HOLY COMMUNION

Presider We now turn our attention to the altar, where we first witness, and then share in, the very becoming of God among us: first as bread and wine, then within ourselves through that bread and wine, and finally out into the world through the lives we live. Everyone is welcome to receive communion at this table.

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER A

Presider The Lord be with you.

All And also with you.

Presider Lift up your hearts.

All We lift them to the Lord.

Presider Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

All It is right to give God thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, for you are the source of light and life, you made us in your image, and called us to new life in Jesus Christ our Lord. Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

SANCTUS sung by all

Richard Proulx

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow - er and might, heaven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.
 Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho -
 san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

The people stand or kneel. Then the Presider continues.

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all. He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Presider and people

Christ has died.
 Christ is risen.
 Christ will come again.

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him.

Presider and people

Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

Presider

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. AMEN.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to pray,

THE LORD'S PRAYER said by all

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name.
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

BREAKING OF THE BREAD

The Presider breaks the consecrated Bread. A period of silence is kept.

FRACTION ANTHEM: Lamb of God

Lamb of God, you take a - way the sins of the world: have mer - cy on us.

Lamb of God, you take a - way the sins of the world: have mer - cy on us.

Lamb of God, you take a - way the sins of the world: grant us peace.

THE INVITATION TO COMMUNION

Presider The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

All are invited to receive the Holy Communion. It is your choice as to whether you receive Holy Communion or a blessing. You may receive Communion or a blessing at the standing station in the front of the nave or proceed to the altar rail. The bread will be placed in your palm. You may consume the bread and then drink from the chalice (please grasp the bottom of the chalice firmly and guide it to your lips); or, you may leave the bread in your palm for the chalice bearer to dip it into the wine and place it on your tongue. Self-intinction is strongly discouraged by the Episcopal church. The people's response to receiving the bread and the wine is "Amen." Gluten-free wafers are available. To indicate to the Eucharistic minister that you would like a gluten-free wafer, please present your hands palms down. Those who do not wish to receive Communion are invited to come forward for a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms over your chest.

MUSIC DURING COMMUNION

Laus Trinitati

Hildegard von Bingen (1098-1179)

Praise to the Trinity,
she who is the sound and the life
and the creator
of every last thing in life,
she who is the glory of the angelic host and the astounding splendor of the mysteries which are unknown to humanity;
she who is in the life of all creation.

(Sung in Latin)

The people stand as able.

POSTCOMMUNION PRAYER

Presider Let us pray.

All Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood. Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE BLESSING

Presider May God bless you and keep you. May God's face shine upon you, and be gracious to you. May God's countenance be upon you, and give you peace. And the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit—the God who loves you, who really, really loves you—be with you now and forever more. Amen.

HYMN 615: "Thy kingdom come!" on bended knee

St. Flavian

1 "Thy king - dom come!" on bend - ed knee the pass - ing a - ges pray;
2 But the slow watch - es of the night not less to God be - long;

Words: Frederick Lucian Hosmer (1840-1929)

Music: melody from Day's Psalter, 1562

DISMISSAL

Minister Go in peace to love and serve the Lord.

All Thanks be to God.

After the procession has led the way out of the church, we invite you to remain for the Voluntary or depart quietly.

VOLUNTARY: Variations on “Endless Song”

Special Summer Forum: A Journey of Faith

Sunday, August 23
10:00 am
Great Hall

Next summer, Epiphany parishioners can journey in the footsteps of the saints: a walking pilgrimage from Rochester to Canterbury, a bus pilgrimage through Winchester, York, Lincoln, Cambridge, and Canterbury, or a contemplative trek through the Scottish Borders. Come learn more at our Information Meeting. Contact Diane Carlisle at dcarlisle@epiphanyseattle.org.

Ronald McDonald House

Wednesday, August 26
12:45 - 4:00 pm

The Ronald McDonald House is a home away from home for families while their children undergo treatment at Seattle Children's Hospital. At the house they offer homemade meals provided by volunteers! This month, Epiphany is seeking more volunteers to help cook. Questions? Contact Amanda Eap at amanda@epiphanyseattle.org or Audrey Seale at audreyseale@comcast.net.

Teen Feed

Thursday, August 27
6:00 - 8:30 pm
U-District

Epiphany has partnered with Teen Feed since the early 1980s, serving meals to young people experiencing homelessness in Seattle's University District. In addition to meals, Teen Feed provides social and health services, housing support, and job assistance. We are looking for volunteers to help prepare and serve meals on the fourth Thursday of each month (except November and December). To volunteer or learn more, please contact Amanda Eap at amanda@epiphanyseattle.org.

Wednesday Morning Meditation: Starting September 2

Wednesdays | 7:30 - 8:00 am | Chapel

For years before the pandemic, a small group gathered in the Chapel on Wednesday mornings to sit silently together. That practice quietly ended in 2020 and never resumed. Beginning Wednesday, September 2, Morning Meditation returns, to be held by Michael Megalli and John Neff. Michael and John both have well-developed personal meditation practices, but neither is offering himself as a teacher. There is no prescriptive method to follow and no goal anyone is expected to reach. Instead, consider this an invitation to join others in the community who are interested in coming together to experience the power of group meditation.

The morning begins at 7:30 am with about five minutes of settling in, a few words of orientation, sometimes a short reading. Then twenty minutes of silence, sitting together. Then five minutes at the end for anyone who wants to say something about how the sit went, though no one has to. At 8:00 am, the session ends, and everyone is out the door and into the day. If you've never meditated, this is a great place to start. If you've been sitting for years, this is an opportunity to come and practice with others. The Chapel is a wonderful place to sit and Wednesday mornings are a natural hinge in the week. Chairs are provided; those who prefer a cushion are welcome to bring their own.

Questions? Contact Michael at megalli@live.com or John at johnneff1860@gmail.com.

Road to Wisdom A Discussion with Paul Lange

Wednesday, September 9
6:00 - 8:00 pm
Great Hall

How can we as a Christian church improve our fellowship in these polarized times? Francis Collins is a Christian and a world-famous scientist. His book The Road to Wisdom: Truth, Science, Faith, and Trust is a science- and faith-based instruction manual on how we can, with patience, learn from each other; with courage, speak the truth as we see it; and with Christian neighborly love come together — particularly as it relates to the harmonies between science, religion, and society. Pick up a free copy of the book in the Great Hall at 10:00 am, then join us to discuss it on Wednesday, September 9 at 6:00 pm in the Great Hall. Light refreshments will be served. For more information please contact Amanda at amanda@epiphanyseattle.org or Paul at lange@uw.edu.

Women's Retreat Group

Saturday, September 12
8:30 - 11:00 am
Great Hall

The next Women's Retreat Group meeting will be September 12 in the Great Hall. Come at 8:30 am for light snacks and fellowship, with the meeting starting at 9:00 am. The Rev. Doyt Conn will share about the upcoming year at Epiphany and what we have to look forward to. To sign up, contact Valerie Conn at valerie.conn@gmail.com.

WRG Book Group

Monday, September 14
5:30 - 7:00 pm
Fireside Room

The WRG Book Group is a ministry within Epiphany's Women's Retreat Group, open to all Epiphany women. We gather most Monday evenings from 5:30 to 7:00 pm in the Fireside Room for conversation around that month's book. Each gathering is a chance to read carefully and think together. All are welcome. Questions? Contact Cadence Granados at cgranados@epiphanyseattle.org.

Men's Ministry Breakfast

Saturday, September 19
8:00 - 9:30 am
Great Hall

The men at Epiphany gather monthly to encourage renewed fellowship and deeper connections. This month, we welcome Joy Hollingsworth, Seattle City Council President and 3rd District Representative. She'll speak about the issues most pressing in her work representing our community, and how Epiphany's men can be a constructive presence for her and for Seattle. All men are invited to attend. Questions? Contact Brook Berry at brook@brookberry.biz.

September 13: Kick-Off Sunday & Chapel Bell Celebration

Join us as we celebrate the end of our Capital Campaign with the installation and ringing of Epiphany's new chapel bell! This century-old bell was saved from an Episcopal church in Sedro-Woolley through the efforts of Bob Barnes and others, and will be dedicated in Epiphany's chapel tower in Bob's honor and memory. Come ring it in with us! Wear blue! And join us right after the 8:45 am service as we process around the campus and take a parish photo before the ringing of the bell!

This will be done in the likeness of the ancient Anglican tradition of beating the bounds, where the congregation walks the perimeter of the parish with holy water, prayer placards, and bells to entice the blessing of the Holy Spirit. We will end in the Christie House courtyard for an All-Parish Photo taken by drone. Then the bell will be hoisted and rung from the Chapel belfry for the first time.

And that's not all! Right after the 11:00 am service, we will kick off a new program year at Epiphany with good food, fun, and fellowship! Join us in the Great Hall and Courtyard for our Annual Fall Picnic—with Richard's Too Good BBQ, The Reptile Lady, a bouncy house, and more. We're looking for volunteers to bring a dish, help with setup, or help with cleanup. To sign up or learn more, contact Amanda Eap at amanda@epiphanyseattle.org.

Please note:

- We are inviting everyone to wear something BLUE.
- We need your help providing side dishes, desserts, and assisting with set up/clean up.
- Sunday School meets at 8:45 am (chapel) and 11:00 am (nursery) with a special lesson on bells: how they call us to worship, mark our milestones, and now celebrate the close of our Capital Campaign. Children's activities continue at the picnic after the 11:00 am service.

Evensong Talk

September 20, 6:30 pm
Church

Every third Sunday immediately following Evensong, join Director of Music Zach Hemenway for a 15-minute talk about the service you just experienced. Epiphany is one of only a few churches in the United States where Choral Evensong is sung weekly year-round. Each month, Zach will take you deeper into a different aspect of it: its history, its structure, how the music is chosen, and more. Come discover why this centuries-old service still has so much to offer us today.

Renovaré Spiritual Formation

Sunday, September 20
12:30 - 3:30 pm
Christie House Library

This is a 400-series spiritual formation conversation that is highly self-directed, based on the Renovaré Spiritual Formation Bible and Workbook. Once a month for eight months, participants meet in person to discuss one chapter from the workbook.

This requires a great deal of independent study, with guidance from the Rev. Kate Wesch. The goal is to learn how to use scripture for personal spiritual formation—or, in the words of the authors, how to most fully live the with-God life. To sign up, contact Diane Carlisle at dcarlisle@epiphanyseattle.org.

20s & 30s Financial Foundations

Sundays in October | 10:00 – 11:30 am | Christie House Library

A four-session class for parishioners in their 20s and 30s who want to get more comfortable with how money actually works. Each session tackles a different foundational topic, led by financial experts from within the parish.

- October 4: Budgeting — practical tools for tracking income, controlling spending, and building margin.
- October 11: Business Literacy — foundational concepts for understanding how businesses work, whether you're an employee, entrepreneur, or investor.
- October 18: Investing — the basics of saving, compound growth, and long-term wealth-building.
- October 25: Theology of Money & Stewardship — a conversation with Doyt on what Scripture says about wealth, ownership, and our role as stewards rather than owners.

Parishioners have received emails or text messages appearing to be from Doyt or another member of our clergy, asking for gift cards, wire transfers, financial assistance, or personal information. These messages are fake. Unfortunately, scams like these are becoming increasingly sophisticated as bad actors gain access to more information about us online and use artificial intelligence to make their messages more convincing.

Scammers can now use publicly available information—including names, photographs, parish websites, social media, and other online sources—to make a message look and sound remarkably authentic. AI can also help scammers create polished emails and texts, imitate a person's writing style, and personalize messages in ways that make it much harder to recognize a scam at first glance. A message may use a familiar name, reference a real parish event, or sound exactly like something a clergy member might say. Even a message that looks completely legitimate may not be. With the increased ubiquity of such tools, scam attempts will only increase in frequency with time.

Please remember: our staff or clergy will never contact you unexpectedly by text or email to ask you to purchase gift cards, send money, make a wire transfer, or provide sensitive personal or financial information. If a message creates a sense of urgency—especially if it asks you to keep the request confidential or act immediately—that is another important warning sign. If you receive a message that seems suspicious:

- Don't reply.
- Don't click any links or open unexpected attachments.
- Don't purchase gift cards or send money.
- Don't provide passwords, account numbers, or other personal information.
- If you're unsure, contact the Parish Office directly at 206-324-2573 to verify the request before doing anything.

When in doubt, pause and verify. Scammers are counting on us to respond quickly before we have a chance to think critically about what we're being asked to do. Thank you for your diligence in helping protect each other.

PILGRIMAGES TO THE UK

Epiphany Parish • Journeys of Faith Across Britain • July and August 2027

1. Rochester to Canterbury — Walking Pilgrimage

~45 miles • 8–10 miles/day • Ideal first pilgrimage & introduction to long-distance walking

Following the ancient pilgrim route through the North Downs, this journey moves at a walking pace of 8-10 miles a day, steady enough to challenge, gentle enough to welcome first-time pilgrims. Along the way, we build in intentional time inside village churches and both great cathedrals, treating each stop as a place of prayer rather than a photo opportunity (although you will be able to take photographs!). The heart of this pilgrimage is the inner journey: walking as a spiritual discipline, letting the rhythm of footsteps become a kind of moving prayer as we draw closer to Canterbury, one of Christianity's oldest and most storied destinations.

2. Winchester to Canterbury — Bus Pilgrimage

Winchester -> York -> Lincoln -> Cambridge -> Canterbury • And more! • No hiking required

Designed for those who want to go deep into our Anglican heritage without long days on foot, this pilgrimage travels by coach across England, visiting the cathedrals, churches, and holy sites that shaped the English church, from Winchester's ancient roots, north to York and Lincoln, then south through Cambridge before arriving in Canterbury. Expect time in each cathedral and church, conversation about the history and theology that formed Anglican identity, and a pace that leaves room for rest, reflection, and fellowship along the way.

3. Melrose to Holy Island — Walking Pilgrimage

~85 miles • 10–12 miles/day • Borders Abbeys Way and St Cuthbert's Way • Five abbey ruins along the route

This walk follows part of the Borders Abbeys Way and picks up St Cuthbert's Way through the quiet farmland and hills of the Scottish Borders, passing the evocative ruins of five medieval abbeys along the route. The pace is unhurried, built for silence, prayer, and noticing, culminating in the crossing of the historic Pilgrims' Way, the tidal causeway path across the sands to Lindisfarne (Holy Island), timed carefully with the tides. It ends where Celtic Christianity took deep root in Britain, on the same shores St Cuthbert once walked. Walkers need to be in good physical shape.
