THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

All Grant us, O Lord, to trust in you with all our hearts; for, as you always resist the proud who confide in their own strength, so you never forsake those who make their boast of your mercy; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

All are seated.

THE LESSON: Romans 13:8-14

Owe no one anything, except to love one another; for the one who loves another has fulfilled the law. The commandments, "You shall not commit adultery; You shall not murder; You shall not steal; You shall not covet"; and any other commandment, are summed up in this word, "Love your neighbor as yourself." Love does no wrong to a neighbor; therefore, love is the fulfilling of the law.

Besides this, you know what time it is, how it is now the moment for you to wake from sleep. For salvation is nearer to us now than when we became believers; the night is far gone, the day is near. Let us then lay aside the works of darkness and put on the armor of light; let us live honorably as in the day, not in reveling and drunkenness, not in debauchery and licentiousness, not in quarreling and jealousy. Instead, put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for the flesh, to gratify its desires.

Lector The Word of the Lord.
All Thanks be to God.

The people stand as able and sing.

Music: Spiritual

THE GOSPEL: Matthew 18:15-20

Gospeler The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.
All Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said, "If another member of the church sins against you, go and point out the fault when the two of you are alone. If the member listens to you, you have regained that one. But if you are not listened to, take one or two others along with you, so that every word may be confirmed by the evidence of two or three witnesses. If the member refuses to listen to them, tell it to the church; and if the offender refuses to listen even to the church, let such a one be to you as a Gentile and a tax collector. Truly I tell you, whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven. Again, truly I tell you, if two of you agree on earth about anything you ask, it will be done for you by my Father in heaven. For where two or three are gathered in my name, I am there among them."

Gospeler The Gospel of the Lord.
All Praise to you, Lord Christ.

THE SERMON: Kelli Martin

Reflective silence and stillness are kept after the sermon.

Sermon notes:

The people stand to say
THE NICENE CREED

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The people may add their own petitions.

Intercessor Lord, let your loving-kindness be upon them;
All Who put their trust in you.

The Presider offers a Concluding Collect.

God of glory, who calls us to take up our cross and follow Jesus, hear the prayers we offer this day and so transform the peoples of this earth that they may know your will; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Presider continues

THE CONFESSION OF SIN

Presider We pray also for the forgiveness of our sins.

The people kneel. A moment of reflective silence is kept.

Said by all

All Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,
have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Presider Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

The people stand.

THE PEACE

Presider The peace of the Lord be always with you.

All And also with you.

The ministers and people greet one another in the name of Christ.

WELCOME AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

THE LITURGY OF THE TABLE

OFFERTORY SENTENCE

Presider Ascribe to the Lord the honor due his Name; bring offerings and come into his courts.

The offertory is the time during the service when we give offerings to God, acknowledging that all we have comes from God. The choir offers their gift of music, and this is our opportunity to offer thanks to God through a monetary gift to support the ministries of Epiphany. Active Epiphany parishioners make an annual pledge commitment toward the vitality of our ministries. In some cases pledging parishioners also make a financial contribution at the offertory. Money placed in the hunger basket at Communion supports our outreach ministry of feeding those in need. You may use the QR code, either during the anthem or later at your convenience, or place your offering in the offering plate as it is passed.

OFFERTORY ANTHEM: How can I keep from singing?

Richard Walters (b. 1982)

My life flows on in endless song above earth's lamentation.
I hear the real, though far off hymn that hails a new creation.
No storm can shake my inmost calm while to that rock I'm clinging.
It sounds an echo in my soul. How can I keep from singing?

What though the tempest round me rears, I know the truth, it liveth.
What though the darkness round me close, songs in the night it giveth.
No storm can shake my inmost calm while to that rock I'm clinging.
Since love is lord of Heaven and earth how can I keep from singing.

When tyrants tremble, sick with fear and hear their death knells ringing:
When friends rejoice both far and near, how can I keep from singing?
In prison cell and dungeon vile our thoughts to them are winging.
When friends by shame are undefiled, how can I keep from singing?

No storm can shake my inmost calm while to that rock I'm clinging.
It sounds an echo in my soul. How can I keep from singing?

INVITATION TO HOLY COMMUNION

Presider We now turn our attention to the altar, where we first witness, and then share in, the very becoming of God among us: first as bread and wine, then within ourselves through that bread and wine, and finally out into the world through the lives we live. Everyone is welcome to receive communion at this table.

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER A

Presider The Lord be with you.

All And also with you.

Presider Lift up your hearts.

All We lift them to the Lord.

Presider Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

All It is right to give God thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, for you are the source of light and life, you made us in your image, and called us to new life in Jesus Christ our Lord. Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow - er and might, heaven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.
 Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

The people stand or kneel. Then the Presider continues.

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all. He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Presider and people

Christ has died.
 Christ is risen.
 Christ will come again.

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him.

Presider and people

Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

Presider

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. AMEN.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to pray,

THE LORD'S PRAYER said by all

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name.
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

BREAKING OF THE BREAD

The Presider breaks the consecrated Bread. A period of silence is kept.

FRACTION ANTHEM: Lamb of God

Lamb of God, you take a - way the sins of the world: have mer - cy on us.

Lamb of God, you take a - way the sins of the world: have mer - cy on us.

Lamb of God, you take a - way the sins of the world: grant us peace.

THE INVITATION TO COMMUNION

Presider The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

All are invited to receive the Holy Communion. It is your choice as to whether you receive Holy Communion or a blessing. You may receive Communion or a blessing at the standing station in the front of the nave or proceed to the altar rail. The bread will be placed in your palm. You may consume the bread and then drink from the chalice (please grasp the bottom of the chalice firmly and guide it to your lips); or, you may leave the bread in your palm for the chalice bearer to dip it into the wine and place it on your tongue. Self-intinction is strongly discouraged by the Episcopal church. The people's response to receiving the bread and the wine is "Amen." Gluten-free wafers are available. To indicate to the Eucharistic minister that you would like a gluten-free wafer, please present your hands palms down. Those who do not wish to receive Communion are invited to come forward for a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms over your chest.

MUSIC DURING COMMUNION

Let us break bread together

Walters

Let us break together on our knees,
Let us break together on our knees,
When I fall on my knees, with my face to the rising sun,
O Lord, have mercy on me.

Let us drink wine together on our knees,
Let us drink wine together on our knees,
When I fall on my knees, with my face to the rising sun,
O Lord, have mercy on me.

Let us praise God together on our knees,
Let us praise God together on our knees,
When I fall on my knees, with my face to the rising sun,
O Lord, have mercy on me.

The people stand as able.

POSTCOMMUNION PRAYER

Presider Let us pray.

All Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood. Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE BLESSING

Presider May God bless you and keep you. May God's face shine upon you, and be gracious to you. May God's countenance be upon you, and give you peace. And the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit—the God who loves you, who really, really loves you—be with you now and forever more. Amen.

The Rector's Bible Study: Singing in the Dark

Fridays, 10:30 am, beginning September 18 | Christie House Library & Zoom

The Psalms are the oldest prayer book in the world, and still the most honest. This fall, we'll spend twelve weeks with twelve psalms that together cover the full terrain of human experience: creation and death, joy and rage, desolation and adoration, pilgrimage and worship. Along the way, we'll discover why these ancient Hebrew poems have sustained Jewish and Christian communities for three millennia, and why they still speak.

Whether you're new to the Psalms or have prayed them your whole life, you'll find something here that surprises you. Join us this fall for Singing in the Dark. To join by Zoom, contact Diane Carlisle at dcarlisle@epiphanyseattle.org.

Road to Wisdom A Discussion with Paul Lange

Wednesday, September 9
6:00 - 8:00 pm
Great Hall

How can we as a Christian church improve our fellowship in these polarized times? Francis Collins is a Christian and a world-famous scientist. His book The Road to Wisdom: Truth, Science, Faith, and Trust is a science- and faith-based instruction manual on how we can, with patience, learn from each other; with courage, speak the truth as we see it; and with Christian neighborly love come together — particularly as it relates to the harmonies between science, religion, and society. Pick up a free copy of the book in the Great Hall at 10:00 am, then join us to discuss it on Wednesday, September 9 at 6:00 pm in the Great Hall. Light refreshments will be served. For more information please contact Amanda at amanda@epiphanyseattle.org or Paul at lange@uw.edu.

September 13: Kick-Off Sunday & Chapel Bell Celebration

On Sunday, September 13, we will be celebrating three things:

- The completion of the "Preserve & Enhance" Capital Campaign
- The installation of the Chapel Bell
- And our Annual Fall Kickoff Picnic

A special note for families: Sunday School meets at 8:45 am (chapel) and 11:00 am (nursery) with a special lesson on bells: how they call us to worship, mark our milestones, and now celebrate the close of our Capital Campaign. Children's activities continue at the picnic after the 11:00 am service.

Join us as we celebrate the end of our Capital Campaign with the installation and ringing of Epiphany's new chapel bell! This century-old bell was saved from an Episcopal church in Sedro-Woolley through the efforts of Bob Barnes and others, and will be dedicated in Epiphany's chapel tower in Bob's honor and memory. Come ring it in with us! Wear blue! And join us right after the 8:45 am service as we process around the campus and take a parish photo before the ringing of the bell!

This will be done in the likeness of the ancient Anglican tradition of beating the bounds, where the congregation walks the perimeter of the parish with holy water, prayer placards, and bells to entice the blessing of the Holy Spirit. We will end in the Christie House courtyard for an All-Parish Photo taken by drone. Then the bell will be hoisted and rung from the Chapel belfry for the first time.

And that's not all! Right after the 11:00 am service, we will kick off a new program year at Epiphany with good food, fun, and fellowship! Join us in the Great Hall and Courtyard for our Annual Fall Picnic—with Richard's Too Good BBQ, The Reptile Lady, a bouncy house, and more. We're looking for volunteers to bring a dish, help with setup, or help with cleanup. To sign up or learn more, contact Amanda Eap at amanda@epiphanyseattle.org.

- We are inviting everyone to wear something BLUE.
- We need your help providing side dishes, desserts, and assisting with set up/clean up.

Sunday, September 20
12:30 - 3:30 pm
Christie House Library

This is a 400-series spiritual formation conversation that is highly self-directed, based on the Renovaré Spiritual Formation Bible and Workbook. Once a month for eight months, participants meet in person to discuss one chapter from the workbook.

This requires a great deal of independent study, with guidance from the Rev. Kate Wesch. The goal is to learn how to use scripture for personal spiritual formation—or, in the words of the authors, how to most fully live the with-God life. Evensong Talk

September 20, 6:30 pm
Church

Every third Sunday immediately following Evensong, join Director of Music Zach Hemenway for a 15-minute talk about the service you just experienced. Epiphany is one of only a few churches in the United States where Choral Evensong is sung weekly year-round. Each month, Zach will take you deeper into a different aspect of it: its history, its structure, how the music is chosen, and more. Come discover why this centuries-old service still has so much to offer us today.

20s & 30s Financial Literacy

Sundays in October | 10:00 - 11:30 am | Christie House Library

A four-session class for parishioners in their 20s and 30s who want to get more comfortable with how money actually works. Each session tackles a different foundational topic, led by financial experts from within the parish.

- October 4: Budgeting — practical tools for tracking income, controlling spending, and building margin.
- October 11: Business Literacy — foundational concepts for understanding how businesses work, whether you're an employee, entrepreneur, or investor.
- October 18: Investing — the basics of saving, compound growth, and long-term wealth-building.
- October 25: Theology of Money & Stewardship — a conversation with Doyt on what Scripture says about wealth, ownership, and our role as stewards rather than owners.

PILGRIMAGES TO THE UK

Epiphany Parish • Journeys of Faith Across Britain • July and August 2027

1. Rochester to Canterbury — Walking Pilgrimage

~45 miles • 8–10 miles/day • Ideal first pilgrimage & introduction to long-distance walking

Following the ancient pilgrim route through the North Downs, this journey moves at a walking pace of 8-10 miles a day, steady enough to challenge, gentle enough to welcome first-time pilgrims. Along the way, we build in intentional time inside village churches and both great cathedrals, treating each stop as a place of prayer rather than a photo opportunity (although you will be able to take photographs!). The heart of this pilgrimage is the inner journey: walking as a spiritual discipline, letting the rhythm of footsteps become a kind of moving prayer as we draw closer to Canterbury, one of Christianity's oldest and most storied destinations.

2. Winchester to Canterbury — Bus Pilgrimage

Winchester -> York -> Lincoln -> Cambridge -> Canterbury • And more! • No hiking required

Designed for those who want to go deep into our Anglican heritage without long days on foot, this pilgrimage travels by coach across England, visiting the cathedrals, churches, and holy sites that shaped the English church, from Winchester's ancient roots, north to York and Lincoln, then south through Cambridge before arriving in Canterbury. Expect time in each cathedral and church, conversation about the history and theology that formed Anglican identity, and a pace that leaves room for rest, reflection, and fellowship along the way.

3. Melrose to Holy Island — Walking Pilgrimage

~85 miles • 10–12 miles/day • Borders Abbeys Way and St Cuthbert's Way • Five abbey ruins along the route

This walk follows part of the Borders Abbeys Way and picks up St Cuthbert's Way through the quiet farmland and hills of the Scottish Borders, passing the evocative ruins of five medieval abbeys along the route. The pace is unhurried, built for silence, prayer, and noticing, culminating in the crossing of the historic Pilgrims' Way, the tidal causeway path across the sands to Lindisfarne (Holy Island), timed carefully with the tides. It ends where Celtic Christianity took deep root in Britain, on the same shores St Cuthbert once walked. Walkers need to be in good physical shape.
