COME AS YOU ARE HOLY EUCHARIST
SEPTEMBER 6, 2026 AT 4:30 PM

WE GATHER IN GOD'S NAME

Welcome to Epiphany for our Come As You Are Worship Service. As we share scripture, pray together, and join in communion, allow yourselves—children and adults—to be drawn freely into this participatory worship experience.

Lord, show me the way, and make me ready to follow it.

OPENING ACCLAMATION

Presider Blessed be the one, holy, and living God.
All Glory to God for ever and ever.

THE PRAYER OF THE DAY

Presider God be with you.
All And also with you.
Presider Let us pray together.

All Grant us, O Lord, to trust in you with all our hearts; for, as you always resist the proud who confide in their own strength, so you never forsake those who make their boast of your mercy; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

WE HEAR THE WORD

All are seated.

THE LESSON: Romans 13:8-14

Owe no one anything, except to love one another; for the one who loves another has fulfilled the law. The commandments, "You shall not commit adultery; You shall not murder; You shall not steal; You shall not covet"; and any other commandment, are summed up in this word, "Love your neighbor as yourself." Love does no wrong to a neighbor; therefore, love is the fulfilling of the law.

Besides this, you know what time it is, how it is now the moment for you to wake from sleep. For salvation is nearer to us now than when we became believers; the night is far gone, the day is near. Let us then lay aside the works of darkness and put on the armor of light; let us live honorably as in the day, not in reveling and drunkenness, not in debauchery and licentiousness, not in quarreling and jealousy. Instead, put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for the flesh, to gratify its desires.

Lector Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.
All Thanks be to God.

The people stand.

GOSPEL ALLELUIA

THE GOSPEL: Matthew 18:15-20

Gospeler The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

All Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said, "If another member of the church sins against you, go and point out the fault when the two of you are alone. If the member listens to you, you have regained that one. But if you are not listened to, take one or two others along with you, so that every word may be confirmed by the evidence of two or three witnesses. If the member refuses to listen to them, tell it to the church; and if the offender refuses to listen even to the church, let such a one be to you as a Gentile and a tax collector. Truly I tell you, whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven. Again, truly I tell you, if two of you agree on earth about anything you ask, it will be done for you by my Father in heaven. For where two or three are gathered in my name, I am there among them."

Gospeler The Gospel of the Lord.

All Praise to you, Lord Christ.

THE SERMON: Kelli Martin

Reflective silence and stillness are kept after the sermon.

The people stand to sing.

WELCOME AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

WE CELEBRATE COMMUNION

OFFERTORY SENTENCE

Presider Offer to God a sacrifice of thanksgiving, and make good your vows to the Most High.

The offertory is a time during the service when we give offerings to God, acknowledging that all we have comes from God. This is our opportunity to offer thanks to God through a monetary gift to support the ministries of Epiphany. Active Epiphany parishioners make an annual pledge commitment toward the vitality of our ministries. In some case pledging parishioners also make a financial contribution at the offertory. You may place your offering in the plate, or use the QR code. The collection will be brought up alongside the bread and the wine as we make our offering of “first fruits” to God.

The people stand to sing.

OFFERTORY HYMN: From all that dwell below the skies

1 From all that dwell be - low the skies let

Name be sung through ev - ery land, by ev - ery tongue!
shore to shore till suns shall rise and set no more.
heaven - ly host: praise Fa - ther, Son, and Ho - ly Ghost.

INVITATION TO HOLY COMMUNION

Presider We now turn our attention to the altar, where we first witness, and then share in, the very becoming of God among us: first as bread and wine, then within ourselves through that bread and wine, and finally out into the world through the lives we live. Everyone is welcome to receive communion at this table.

PRAYER FOR THE MEAL. (Church of Kenya)

During the Eucharistic Prayer, we invite you to participate in the ancient tradition of bowing at certain moments as a sign of reverence. A simple bow of the head is appropriate. During the recitation of the Sanctus ("Holy, holy, holy"), consider a profound bow, lowering the upper half of your body to about a 45-degree angle. These gestures are ways of using our whole bodies in worship, reminding us of the sacredness of the moments we share together in prayer. If you are unsure, feel free to observe others or do what the presider does behind the altar.

Priest Is God with us?

People God is with us.

Priest Is Christ among us?

People Christ is with us.

Priest Is the Spirit here?

People The Spirit is with us.

Priest This is our God.

People Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

Priest We are God's people.

People We are redeemed.

Priest Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Priest Let us give thanks to the Lord our God

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

It is right and our delight to give you thanks and praise, living God, supreme over the world, Creator, Provider, Savior and Giver. From a wandering nomad you created your family; for a burdened people you raised up a leader; for a confused nation you chose a king; for a rebellious crowd you sent your prophets. In these last days you have sent us your Son, your perfect image, bringing your kingdom, revealing your will, dying, rising, reigning, and remaking your people for yourself. Through him you have poured out your Holy Spirit, filling us with light and life.

Therefore with angels, archangels, faithful ancestors, and all in heaven, we proclaim your great and glorious name, forever praising you and singing:

SANCTUS

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow - er and might, heav-en and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

Bless - ed is the One who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho -

-san - na in the high - est, ho - san - na in the high - est.

The people remain standing. The Priest continues

Almighty God, owner of all things, We thank you for giving up your only Son to die on the cross for us who owe you everything. Pour your refreshing Spirit on us as we remember him in the way he commanded, through these gifts of your creation.

On the same night that he was betrayed he took bread and gave you thanks; he broke it and gave it to his disciples saying, "Take, eat; this is my body which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me."

People Amen. His body was broken for us.

Priest In the same way, after supper he took the cup and gave thanks; he gave it to them, saying, "Drink this, all of you; this is my blood of the new covenant which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Do this as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me."

People Amen. His blood was shed for us.

Priest Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith.

People Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

Priest Therefore, heavenly Father, hear us as we celebrate this covenant with joy, and await the coming of our brother, Jesus Christ. the perfect sacrifice, once and for all. To fulfill your purpose, Jesus gave himself up to death, and rising from the grave, destroyed death, and made the whole creation new. Sanctify these holy gifts by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him.

People Amen. Jesus is Lord.

Priest And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to pray:

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

BREAKING OF THE BREAD

The Priest breaks the consecrated Bread. A period of silence is kept.

FRACTION ANTHEM

Presider Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us.

People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

THE BLESSING

Presider Let us depart from this place in peace, and as we go on our way, forget not those who are poor, pray for those who are sick, make no peace with oppression, and love one another in God as Christ has loved us, and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit—the God who loves you, who really, really loves you—be with you now and forever more. Amen.

The Rector's Bible Study: Singing in the Dark

Fridays, 10:30 am, beginning September 18 | Christie House Library & Zoom

The Psalms are the oldest prayer book in the world, and still the most honest. This fall, we'll spend twelve weeks with twelve psalms that together cover the full terrain of human experience: creation and death, joy and rage, desolation and adoration, pilgrimage and worship. Along the way, we'll discover why these ancient Hebrew poems have sustained Jewish and Christian communities for three millennia, and why they still speak.

Whether you're new to the Psalms or have prayed them your whole life, you'll find something here that surprises you. Join us this fall for Singing in the Dark. To join by Zoom, contact Diane Carlisle at dcarlisle@epiphanyseattle.org.

Road to Wisdom A Discussion with Paul Lange

Wednesday, September 9
6:00 - 8:00 pm
Great Hall

How can we as a Christian church improve our fellowship in these polarized times? Francis Collins is a Christian and a world-famous scientist. His book The Road to Wisdom: Truth, Science, Faith, and Trust is a science- and faith-based instruction manual on how we can, with patience, learn from each other; with courage, speak the truth as we see it; and with Christian neighborly love come together — particularly as it relates to the harmonies between science, religion, and society. Pick up a free copy of the book in the Great Hall at 10:00 am, then join us to discuss it on Wednesday, September 9 at 6:00 pm in the Great Hall. Light refreshments will be served. For more information please contact Amanda at amanda@epiphanyseattle.org or Paul at lange@uw.edu.

September 13: Kick-Off Sunday & Chapel Bell Celebration

On Sunday, September 13, we will be celebrating three things:

- The completion of the "Preserve & Enhance" Capital Campaign
- The installation of the Chapel Bell
- And our Annual Fall Kickoff Picnic

A special note for families: Sunday School meets at 8:45 am (chapel) and 11:00 am (nursery) with a special lesson on bells: how they call us to worship, mark our milestones, and now celebrate the close of our Capital Campaign. Children's activities continue at the picnic after the 11:00 am service.

Join us as we celebrate the end of our Capital Campaign with the installation and ringing of Epiphany's new chapel bell! This century-old bell was saved from an Episcopal church in Sedro-Woolley through the efforts of Bob Barnes and others, and will be dedicated in Epiphany's chapel tower in Bob's honor and memory. Come ring it in with us! Wear blue! And join us right after the 8:45 am service as we process around the campus and take a parish photo before the ringing of the bell!

This will be done in the likeness of the ancient Anglican tradition of beating the bounds, where the congregation walks the perimeter of the parish with holy water, prayer placards, and bells to entice the blessing of the Holy Spirit. We will end in the Christie House courtyard for an All-Parish Photo taken by drone. Then the bell will be hoisted and rung from the Chapel belfry for the first time.

And that's not all! Right after the 11:00 am service, we will kick off a new program year at Epiphany with good food, fun, and fellowship! Join us in the Great Hall and Courtyard for our Annual Fall Picnic—with Richard's Too Good BBQ, The Reptile Lady, a bouncy house, and more. We're looking for volunteers to bring a dish, help with setup, or help with cleanup. To sign up or learn more, contact Amanda Eap at amanda@epiphanyseattle.org.

- We are inviting everyone to wear something BLUE.
- We need your help providing side dishes, desserts, and assisting with set up/clean up.
- Sunday School meets at 8:45 am (chapel) and 11:00 am (nursery) with a special lesson on bells: how they call us to worship, mark our milestones, and now celebrate the close of our Capital Campaign. Children's activities continue at the picnic after the 11:00 am service.

Renovaré Spiritual Formation

Sunday, September 20
12:30 - 3:30 pm
Christie House Library

This is a 400-series spiritual formation conversation that is highly self-directed, based on the Renovaré Spiritual Formation Bible and Workbook. Once a month for eight months, participants meet in person to discuss one chapter from the workbook.

This requires a great deal of independent study, with guidance from the Rev. Kate Wesch. The goal is to learn how to use scripture for personal spiritual formation—or, in the words of the authors, how to most fully live the with-God life. To sign up, contact Diane Carlisle at dcarlisle@epiphanyseattle.org.

Evensong Talk

September 20, 6:30 pm
Church

Every third Sunday immediately following Evensong, join Director of Music Zach Hemenway for a 15-minute talk about the service you just experienced. Epiphany is one of only a few churches in the United States where Choral Evensong is sung weekly year-round. Each month, Zach will take you deeper into a different aspect of it: its history, its structure, how the music is chosen, and more. Come discover why this centuries-old service still has so much to offer us today.

20s & 30s Financial Literacy

Sundays in October | 10:00 - 11:30 am | Christie House Library

A four-session class for parishioners in their 20s and 30s who want to get more comfortable with how money actually works. Each session tackles a different foundational topic, led by financial experts from within the parish.

- October 4: Budgeting — practical tools for tracking income, controlling spending, and building margin.
- October 11: Business Literacy — foundational concepts for understanding how businesses work, whether you're an employee, entrepreneur, or investor.
- October 18: Investing — the basics of saving, compound growth, and long-term wealth-building.
- October 25: Theology of Money & Stewardship — a conversation with Doyt on what Scripture says about wealth, ownership, and our role as stewards rather than owners.
