The Feast of All Saints

Renewal of Baptismal Vows & Holy Eucharist

November 1, 2026

4:30 pm

Welcome

Welcome to Epiphany. Christian worship is a practice that forms us over time: through prayer, Scripture, music, silence, and sacrament, we are shaped more deeply into the life and love of Christ. You do not need to understand everything—or believe everything—to begin. At Epiphany, we prioritize belonging over believing, trusting that faith grows within a community where there is room for questions, doubt, discovery, and wonder. Wherever you are on your spiritual journey, you are welcome to participate as fully as you wish, and to allow the rhythms of worship to become familiar in their own time.

From the Parochial Vicar

On this Feast of All Saints', we are baptizing five people: two children, one teenager, and an adult. At the 8:45 service, water will be poured, foreheads marked with the cross in oil, and the Epiphany community gathered around the font. These five will join the great company of saints, reminding us that we belong to that company, too.

All Saints' Sunday celebrates the whole communion of saints: those who have gone before and those living faithfully today. Through baptism, we become members of Christ's Body, connected across generations and geography. We don't become saints because we've achieved perfection. We belong because God has claimed us as God's own.

The range of ages represented today reminds us that there is no single timetable for responding to God's call. Baptism isn't a declaration that we've figured everything out. It's the beginning of a lifelong journey toward becoming more fully who God created us to be. As we renew our baptismal promises today, we remember that the Christian life asks us to say yes, again and again. The saints aren't people who have reached a finish line. They are ordinary people who keep saying yes to walking with Jesus.

And we do not walk alone. Today, we are more than witnesses to baptism; we are participants. We promise to support the newly baptized in their life in Christ. In doing so, we renew our own calling to live as Christ's Body and we renew our commitment to one another.

Can you recall your baptism, or the baptism of someone you love? What did it mean to you then, and what does it mean now? The communion of saints isn't only history preserved in stained glass, it is also the people sitting beside you, right here. On this Feast of All Saints', may we remember that the communion of saints isn't simply something we celebrate. It is a life we are called to share, together.

In Christ,
The Reverend Kate Wesch

The Gathering

VOLUNTARY

HYMN 287: For all the saints Sine Nomine

Presider Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
People And blessed be God's kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

Presider There is one Body and one Spirit.
People There is one hope in God's call to us.

Presider One Lord, one Faith, one Baptism
People One God and Father of all.

Presider The Lord be with you.
All And also with you.
Presider Let us pray.

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

All Almighty God, you have knit together your elect in one communion and fellowship in the mystical body of your Son Christ our Lord: Give us grace so to follow your blessed saints in all virtuous and godly living, that we may come to those ineffable joys that you have prepared for those who truly love you; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who with you and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns, one God, in glory everlasting. Amen.

The Liturgy of the Word

All are seated.

THE LESSON: Revelation 7:9-17

After this I, John, looked, and there was a great multitude that no one could count, from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, robed in white, with palm branches in their hands. They cried out in a loud voice, saying,

"Salvation belongs to our God who is seated on the throne, and to the Lamb!" And all the angels stood around the throne and around the elders and the four living creatures, and they fell on their faces before the throne and worshiped God, singing,

"Amen! Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and might be to our God forever and ever! Amen."

Then one of the elders addressed me, saying, "Who are these, robed in white, and where have they come from?" I said to him, "Sir, you are the one that knows." Then he said to me, "These are they who have come out of the great ordeal; they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

"For this reason they are before the throne of God, and worship him day and night within his temple, and the one who is seated on the throne will shelter them. They will hunger no more, and thirst no more; the sun will not strike them, nor any scorching heat; for the Lamb at the center of the throne will be their shepherd, and he will guide them to springs of the water of life, and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes."

Lector The Word of the Lord.
All Thanks be to God.

The people stand.

GOSPEL ALLELUIA

THE GOSPEL: Matthew 5:1-12

Gospeler The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.
All Glory to you, Lord Christ.

When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain; and after he sat down, his disciples came to him. Then he began to speak, and taught them, saying:

"Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
"Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted."
"Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth.
"Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled.
"Blessed are the merciful, for they will receive mercy.
"Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God.
"Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God.

"Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

"Blessed are you when people revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you."

Gospeler The Gospel of the Lord.
All Praise to you, Lord Christ.

THE SERMON: The Reverend Doyt L. Conn, Jr.

Reflective silence and stillness are kept after the sermon.

The people stand.

RENEWAL OF BAPTISMAL COVENANT

Presider Let us renew our baptismal covenant.

Presider Do you reaffirm your renunciation of evil and renew your commitment to Jesus Christ?
People I do.

Presider Do you believe in God the Father?
People I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

Presider Do you believe in Jesus Christ, the Son of God?
People I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord. He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary. He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again. He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again to judge the living and the dead.

Presider Do you believe in God the Holy Spirit?
People I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting.

Presider Will you continue in the apostles' teaching and fellowship, in the breaking of bread, and in the prayers?
People I will, with God's help.

Presider Will you persevere in resisting evil, and, whenever you fall into sin, repent and return to the Lord?
People I will, with God's help.

Presider Will you proclaim by word and example the Good News of God in Christ?
People I will, with God's help.

Presider Will you seek and serve Christ in all persons, loving your neighbor as yourself?
People I will, with God's help.

Will you strive for justice and peace among all people, and respect the dignity of every human being?
People I will, with God's help.

Presider May Almighty God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has given us a new birth by water and the Holy Spirit, and bestowed upon us the forgiveness of sins, keep us in eternal life by his grace, in Christ Jesus our Lord. Amen.

PRAYERS FOR THE PEOPLE

Leader Deliver us, O Lord, from the way of sin and death.
People Lord, hear our prayer.

Leader Open our hearts to your grace and truth.
People Lord, hear our prayer.

Leader Fill us with your holy and life-giving Spirit.
People Lord, hear our prayer.

Leader Keep them in the faith and communion of your holy Church.
People Lord, hear our prayer.

Leader Teach us to love others in the power of the Spirit.
People Lord, hear our prayer.

Leader Send us into the world in witness to your love.
People Lord, hear our prayer.
Leader Bring us to the fullness of your peace and glory.
People Lord, hear our prayer.

Presider Grant, O Lord, that all who are baptized into the death of Jesus Christ your Son may live in the power of his resurrection and look for him to come again in glory; who lives and reigns now and for ever. Amen.

The people remain standing during the Asperges.

RITE OF SPRINKLING

As a reminder of our own Baptism, the congregation is sprinkled with Holy Water for reconciliation and renewal.

THE PEACE

Presider The peace of the Lord be always with you.
All And also with you.

The ministers and people greet one another in the name of Christ.

THE WELCOME AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

The Liturgy of the Table

OFFERTORY SENTENCE

Presider To you we come, Father of lights, with angels and saints, where heaven and earth unite. May Jesus meet us in the breaking of the bread.

The offertory is the time during the service when we give offerings to God, acknowledging that all we have comes from God. The choir offers their gift of music, and this is our opportunity to offer thanks to God through a monetary gift to support the ministries of Epiphany. Active Epiphany parishioners make an annual pledge commitment toward the vitality of our ministries. In some cases pledging parishioners also make a financial contribution at the offertory. Money placed in the hunger basket at Communion supports our outreach ministry of feeding those in need. You may use the QR code, either during the anthem or later at your convenience, or place your offering in the offering plate as it is passed.

The people stand to sing.

OFFERTORY HYMN: From All That Dwell Below the Skies

INVITATION TO HOLY COMMUNION

Presider We now turn our attention to the altar, where we first witness, and then share in, the very becoming of God among us: first as bread and wine, then within ourselves through that bread and wine, and finally out into the world through the lives we live. Everyone is welcome.

The people stand.

EUCHARISTIC PRAYER A

Presider The Lord be with you.
All And also with you.
Presider Lift up your hearts.
All We lift them to the Lord.
Presider Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
All It is right to give God thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, for in the multitude of your saints you have surrounded us with a great cloud of witnesses, that we might rejoice in their fellowship, and run with endurance the race that is set before us; and, together with them, receive the crown of glory that never fades away.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

SANCTUS sung by all Richard Proulx

The people stand or kneel. Then the Presider continues.

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all. He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Presider and people

Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him.

Presider and people

Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

Presider

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. AMEN.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to pray,

THE LORD'S PRAYER said by all

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name.
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

BREAKING OF THE BREAD

The Presider breaks the consecrated Bread. A period of silence is kept.

FRACTION ANTHEM

Presider Alleluia. Christ, our passover is sacrified for us.
All Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

THE INVITATION TO COMMUNION

Presider The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

All are invited to receive the Holy Communion. It is your choice as to whether you receive Holy Communion or a blessing. You may receive Communion or a blessing at the standing station in the front of the nave or proceed to the altar rail. The bread will be placed in your palm. You may consume the bread and then drink from the chalice (please grasp the bottom of the chalice firmly and guide it to your lips); or, you may leave the bread in your palm for the chalice bearer to dip it into the wine and place it on your tongue. Self-intinction is strongly discouraged by the Episcopal church. The people's response to receiving the bread and the wine is "Amen." Gluten-free wafers are available. To indicate to the Eucharistic minister that you would like a gluten-free wafer, please present your hands palms down. Those who do not wish to receive Communion are invited to come forward for a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms over your chest.

The people stand as able.

POSTCOMMUNION PRAYER

Presider Let us pray.

All Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood. Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE BLESSING

Presider May Almighty God, to whose glory we celebrate this festival of all the Saints, be now and evermore your guide and companion in the way. Amen.

May God, who has bound us together in the company of the elect, in this age and the age to come, attend to the prayers of his faithful servants on your behalf, as he hears your prayers for them. Amen.

May God, who has given us, in the lives of his saints, patterns of holy living and victorious dying, strengthen your faith and devotion, and enable you to bear witness to the truth against all adversity. Amen.

And the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit—the God who loves you, who really, really loves you—be with you now and forever more. Amen.

HYMN: For a Thousand Tongues to Sing

6 Glory to God and praise and love be now and ever given by saints below and saints above, the Church in earth and heaven.

DISMISSAL

Minister Go in peace to love and serve the Lord.
All Thanks be to God.

First Sunday Brunch

Sunday, November 1 | 10:00 am | Great Hall

Join us in the Great Hall on the first Sunday of each month, October through June, during Everybody Hour at 10:00 am! Each brunch is hosted by a different ministry, offering a wonderful opportunity to share a meal, connect with one another, and build community at Epiphany. Would your ministry like to host a future brunch? We'd love to have you participate! Please contact Amanda Eap at amanda@epiphanyseattle.org to learn more.

All Souls' Fauré Requiem Mass

& All Faithful Departed Necrology

Sunday, November 1 | 5:30 pm | Church

On Sunday, November 1 at 5:30 pm, we will gather to commemorate All Faithful Departed. The service will include the Fauré Requiem sung by the choir and accompanied by orchestra, and the names of those in our parish who have died during 2026 will be read aloud from the ends of the altar.

Youth Group: Great Bake Challenge

Sunday, November 1 | 5:30 - 7:00 pm | Fireside Room

Once a month, our youth gather on Sunday evenings for something a little different—from service projects to cooking challenges to honest conversations about faith and life. This month: the Great Bake Challenge! Youth Group is the heartbeat of our youth community at Epiphany, and all middle and high schoolers (6th - 12th grade) are warmly welcomed.

Celebration of Life for Julia Putnam

Saturday, November 7
4:30 pm
Church

We will gather on Saturday, November 7, at 4:30 pm in the church for a service honoring and remembering Julia Putnam, a beloved and faithful member of the Epiphany community and choir for many years. Julia died on October 23 at the age of 74. Please join us as we give thanks for Julia's life, her gift of music, and the lasting memories she leaves with us. We look forward to gathering together in love, remembrance, and celebration.

Evensong & Reception in Memory of Peggy Wilton

Sunday, November 8
5:30 pm
Church
followed by a reception in the Chapel

We will dedicate our Evensong service on Sunday, November 8, to honoring and remembering Peggy Wilton, a beloved longtime member of the Epiphany community. Following the service, we invite you to join us for a festive reception in the Chapel as we celebrate Peggy's life and the lasting memories she leaves with us.

If you have photographs of Peggy that you would like to share, please feel free to bring them along. We kindly ask that you take your photos with you when you leave. We look forward to gathering together in love, remembrance, and celebration of Peggy's life.

Sunday Forum: Epiphany's Architecture

The Spiritual Exercise of Worship
Sunday, November 8 | 10:00 am | Church

Have you ever wondered why a church looks the way it does? Why do we enter through a particular door, move down a long nave, and gather around an altar? Why are some churches shaped like a cross? What are a narthex, nave, transept, chancel, and apse—and why do they matter? Church architecture is about more than creating a beautiful building. Sacred spaces are designed to shape how we move, where we look, how we gather, and even how we understand God. For centuries, Christians have used architecture to tell the story of our faith, drawing us from the world outside into a space set apart for prayer, worship, and encounter with the holy. Join Kate Wesch for an exploration of church architecture and the theology woven into the spaces where we worship. Together we'll learn the language of church buildings, consider how architecture has changed across Christian history, and look more closely at Epiphany itself—discovering how the building around us quietly helps form what we believe and how we worship.

A Family Series: Weaving a Faith That Holds

Sunday, November 15
5:30 - 6:45 pm
Great Hall

Every parent wants their child to thrive — emotionally, physically, mentally. But what does it look like to tend to their spiritual lives with the same intentionality? This year's Family Series takes that question seriously. Drawing on Meredith Miller's Woven: Nurturing a Faith Your Kid Doesn't Have to Heal From, we'll spend two sessions together exploring what it means to raise children in a faith that holds them — honestly, tenderly, and well. And if your own faith feels uncertain or unfinished right now, you're still welcome here.

On Sunday, November 15, author Meredith Miller joins us virtually for "How Do We Weave Faith at Home?: A Conversation on Woven," followed by time for parents and caregivers to reflect and shape simple faith practices that fit their own homes. The evening begins with a free family dinner for those who RSVP, and children of all ages will enjoy activities during the talk. No reading required, just bring your questions and register your family today! Please contact Cadence Granados at cgranados@epiphanyseattle.org with any questions.

Handel's Messiah

Friday & Saturday, December 4 & 5 | 7:30 pm | Church

Music at Epiphany is excited to present two nights of George Frideric Handel's famous oratorio, Messiah, performed by an all-star Baroque orchestra under the direction of Zach Hemenway. The Epiphany Choir will be joined by four outstanding soloists and period instruments in the warm acoustics of Epiphany for this presentation of a holiday favorite. This year's soloists are: Soprano Elijah McCormack returning from last year; Epiphany's own John Garlid, countertenor; tenor Alex Longnecker; and baritone Zachary Lenox returning from 2024. Tickets are available on Eventbrite at the QR code below.
