EPIPHANY

Seattle

Twenty-Fourth Sunday After Pentecost

Holy Eucharist

November 8, 2026 at 4:30 pm

Welcome

Welcome to Epiphany. Christian worship is a practice that forms us over time: through prayer, Scripture, music, silence, and sacrament, we are shaped more deeply into the life and love of Christ. You do not need to understand everything—or believe everything—to begin. At Epiphany, we prioritize belonging over believing, trusting that faith grows within a community where there is room for questions, doubt, discovery, and wonder. Wherever you are on your spiritual journey, you are welcome to participate as fully as you wish, and to allow the rhythms of worship to become familiar in their own time.

From the Rector

FAITHFULNESS IS OWNING THE STORY

*That which we have heard and known, and what our forefathers have told us,  we will not hide from their children.

We will recount to generations to come
*the praiseworthy deeds and the power of the Lord, **
and the wonderful works he has done.

*So that they might put their trust in God, **
and not forget the deeds of God,
but keep his commandments. Psalm 78:3, 4, 7

I am currently teaching the Rector's Bible Study on the Psalms.

Psalm 78 is a psalm about identity, and how identity is passed from one generation to the next through faithfulness. Identity connects to the story; faithfulness is showing up again and again to listen to it. Once a year the Jewish people gather to tell the story of the Passover. Here at Epiphany, we gather once a week to hear the story of Jesus. That is what is happening during the Eucharist: it is the retelling of the story which, when we own it, is the mark of our identity. It is who we say we are to the world.

We internalize this identity with bread and wine. The Body of Christ, which we receive in the form of a wafer of bread, is our way of saying we are the body of Jesus in the world right now. The cup, his Blood, represents our owning of his vitality, his ways of being, his faithfulness, his willingness to live in the Kingdom of God, and our accepting that into our own lives.

And so we arrive Sunday after Sunday to step into the story, to own our identity as people of faith. Because that faith, as the final verse of Psalm 78 reminds us, is an outward, visible sign of our trust in God.

Peace upon your soul.

The Gathering

We invite you to help create the experience of silence before our service.
Our hope is to calm our hearts as we prepare to enter into an intensity of shared presence.
Thank you for turning off all electronic devices.

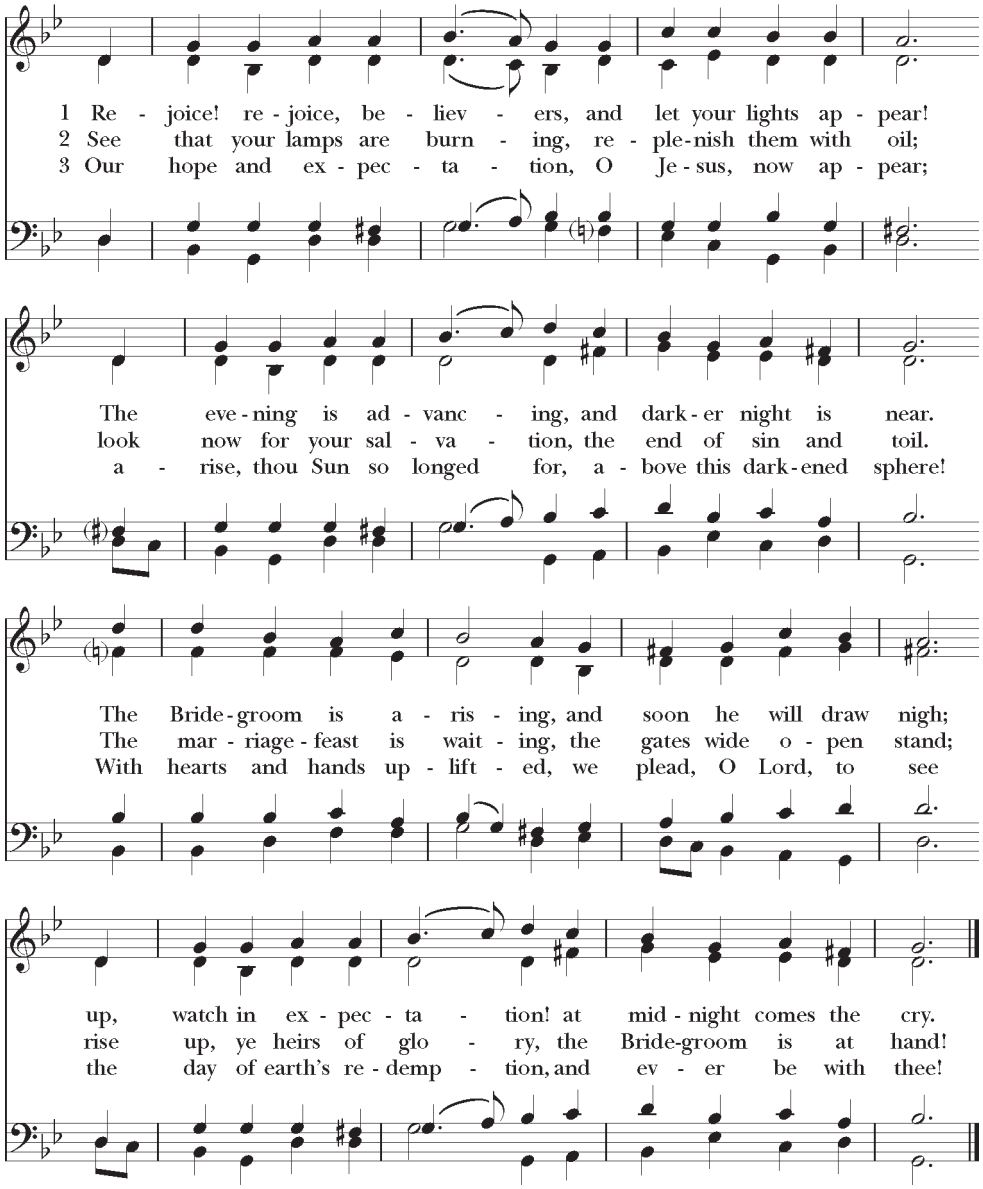

VOLUNTARY

At the sound of the bell, all rise as able.

Presider Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
All And blessed be God's kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

Presider Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

HYMN: Rejoice, Rejoice Believers

Presider The Lord be with you.
All And also with you.
Presider Let us pray.

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

All O God, whose blessed Son came into the world that he might destroy the works of the devil and make us children of God and heirs of eternal life: Grant that, having this hope, we may purify ourselves as he is pure; that, when he comes again with power and great glory, we may be made like him in his eternal and glorious kingdom; where he lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

All are seated.

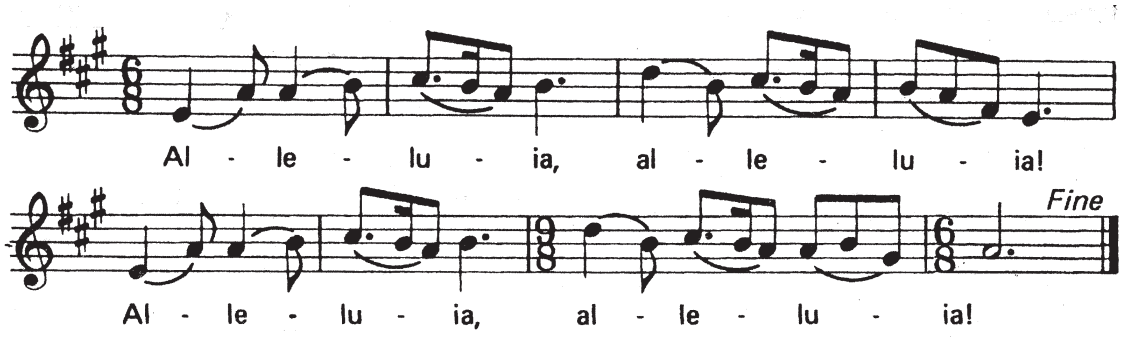

THE LESSON*: 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18*

We do not want you to be uninformed, brothers and sisters, about those who have died, so that you may not grieve as others do who have no hope. For since we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so, through Jesus, God will bring with him those who have died. For this we declare to you by the word of the Lord, that we who are alive, who are left until the coming of the Lord, will by no means precede those who have died. For the Lord himself, with a cry of command, with the archangel's call and with the sound of God's trumpet, will descend from heaven, and the dead in Christ will rise first. Then we who are alive, who are left, will be caught up in the clouds together with them to meet the Lord in the air; and so we will be with the Lord forever. Therefore encourage one another with these words.

Lector The Word of the Lord.
All Thanks be to God.

The people stand.

GOSPEL ALLELUIA

THE GOSPEL: Matthew 25:1-13

Gospeler The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.
All Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said, "Then the kingdom of heaven will be like this. Ten bridesmaids took their lamps and went to meet the bridegroom. Five of them were foolish, and five were wise. When the foolish took their lamps, they took no oil with them; but the wise took flasks of oil with their lamps. As the bridegroom was delayed, all of them became drowsy and slept. But at midnight there was a shout, 'Look! Here is the bridegroom! Come out to meet him.' Then all those bridesmaids got up and trimmed their lamps. The foolish said to the wise, 'Give us some of your oil, for our lamps are going out.' But the wise replied, 'No! there will not be enough for you and for us; you had better go to the dealers and buy some for yourselves.' And while they went to buy it, the bridegroom came, and those who were ready went with him into the wedding banquet; and the door was shut. Later the other bridesmaids came also, saying, 'Lord, lord, open to us.' But he replied, 'Truly I tell you, I do not know you.' Keep awake therefore, for you know neither the day nor the hour."

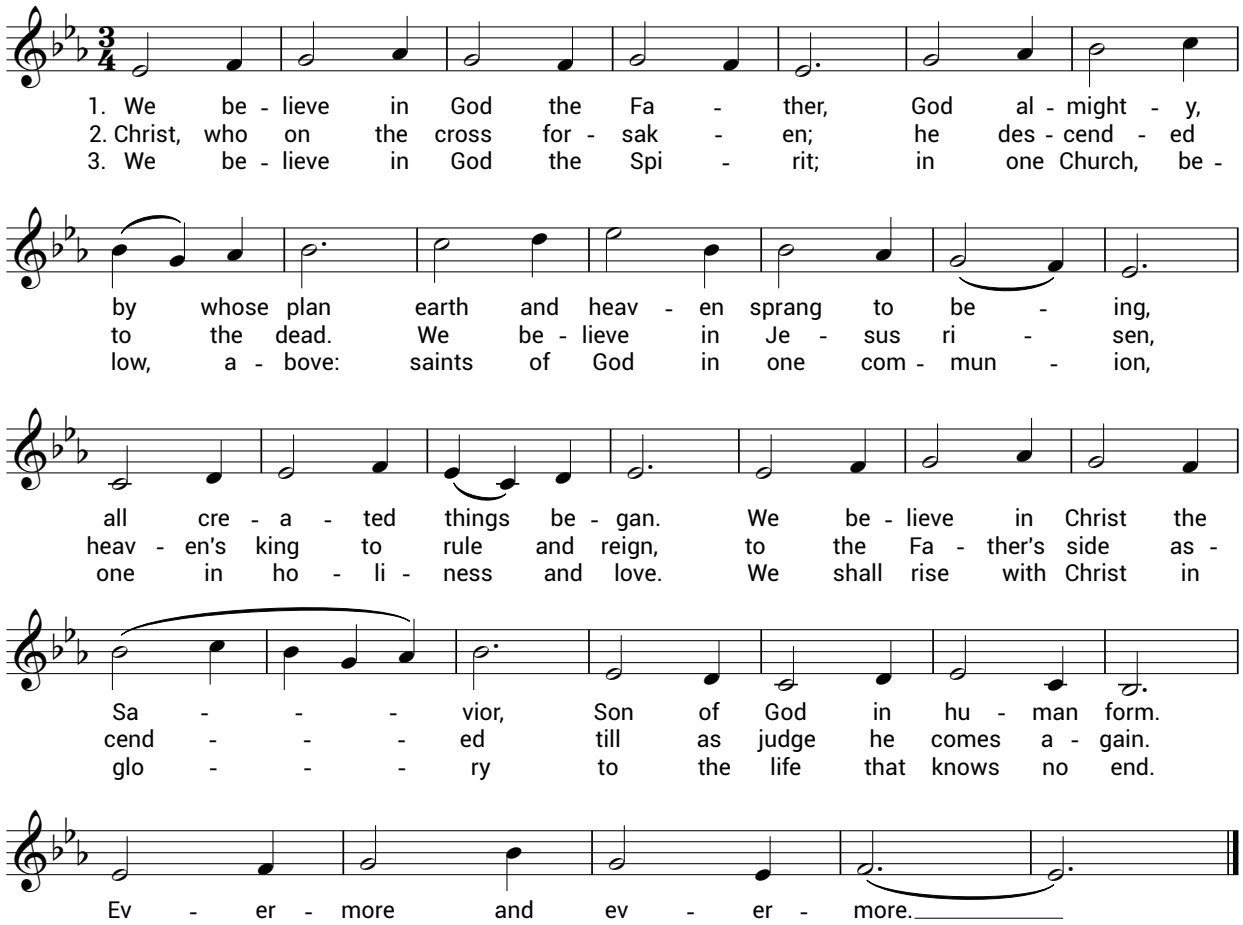

Gospeler The Gospel of the Lord.
All Praise to you, Lord Christ.

THE SERMON: The Reverend Kate Wesch

Reflective silence and stillness are kept after the sermon.

The people stand to sing.

THE CREED

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

The intercessor and people pray responsively.

Intercessor With all our heart and with all our mind, let us pray to the Lord, saying "Lord, have mercy."

The people remain standing or kneel.

Intercessor For the peace from above, for the loving-kindness of God, and for the salvation of our souls, let us pray to the Lord.

All Lord have mercy.

Intercessor For all believers who put their trust in the incarnate Son of God, let us pray to the Lord.

All Lord have mercy.

Intercessor For the good earth which God has given us, and for the wisdom and will to conserve it, let us pray to the Lord.

All Lord have mercy.

Intercessor For all who struggle to establish greater peace upon earth, especially those who serve in the military, those on missions of hope and mercy, and their families, let us pray to the Lord.

All Lord have mercy.

Intercessor For the sick and the suffering, for the hungry and the oppressed, and for the dying and the dead, let us pray to the Lord.

All Lord have mercy.

Intercessor For those on our hearts, offering intercession and solace, comfort and healing, praise and thanksgiving, for those we now name silently or aloud.

The people may add their own petitions.

Intercessor Lord, let your loving-kindness be upon them;

All Who put their trust in you.

The Presider offers a Concluding Collect.

Almighty and eternal God, ruler of all things in heaven and earth: Mercifully accept the prayers of your people, and strengthen us to do your will; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Presider continues

THE CONFESSION OF SIN

Presider We pray also for the forgiveness of our sins.

A moment of reflective silence is kept.

Said by all

All Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,
have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Presider Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

The people stand.

THE PEACE

Presider The peace of the Lord be always with you.

All And also with you.

The ministers and people greet one another in the name of Christ.

WELCOME AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

The Liturgy of the Table

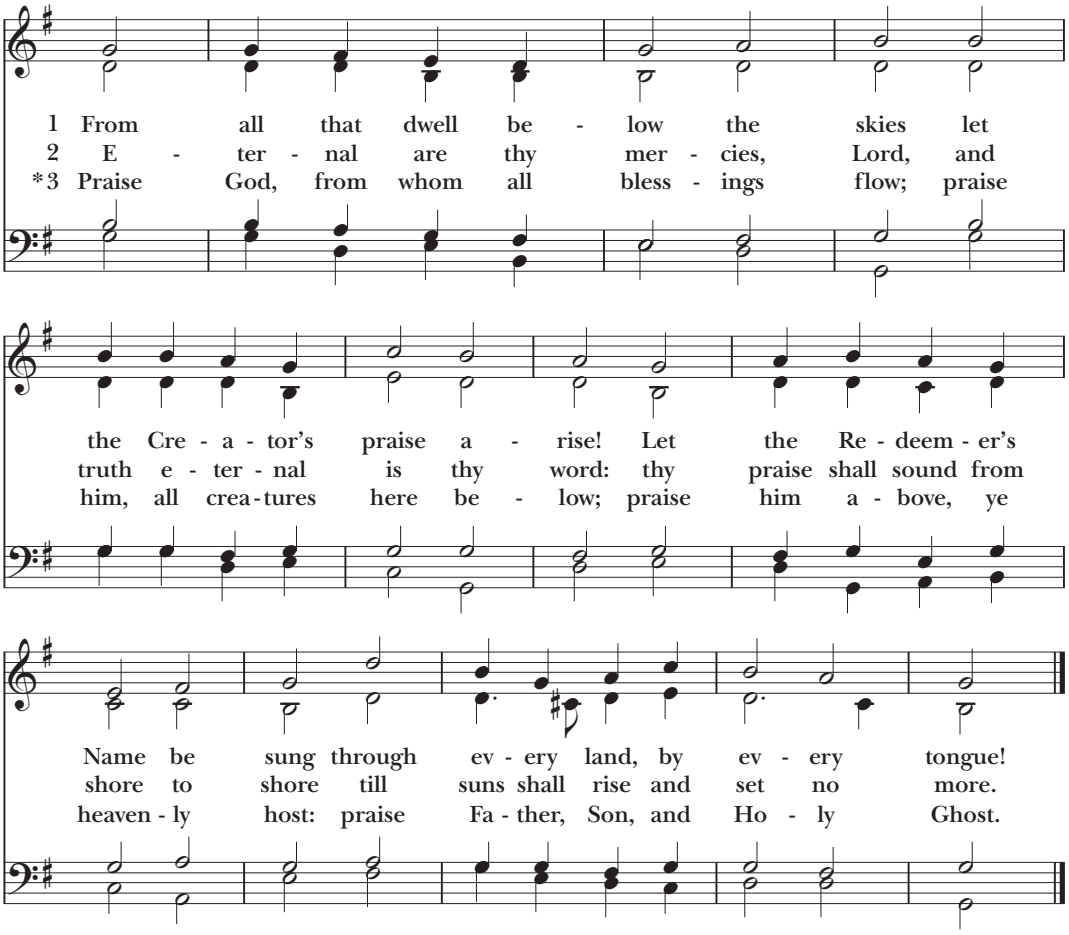

OFFERTORY SENTENCE

Presider Ascribe to the Lord the honor due his Name; bring offerings and come into his courts.

The offertory is the time during the service when we give offerings to God, acknowledging that all we have comes from God. The choir offers their gift of music, and this is our opportunity to offer thanks to God through a monetary gift to support the ministries of Epiphany. Active Epiphany parishioners make an annual pledge commitment toward the vitality of our ministries. In some cases pledging parishioners also make a financial contribution at the offertory. Money placed in the hunger basket at Communion supports our outreach ministry of feeding those in need. You may use the QR code, either during the anthem or later at your convenience, or place your offering in the offering plate as it is passed.

The people stand to sing.

OFFERTORY HYMN: From All That Dwell Below the Skies

INVITATION TO HOLY COMMUNION

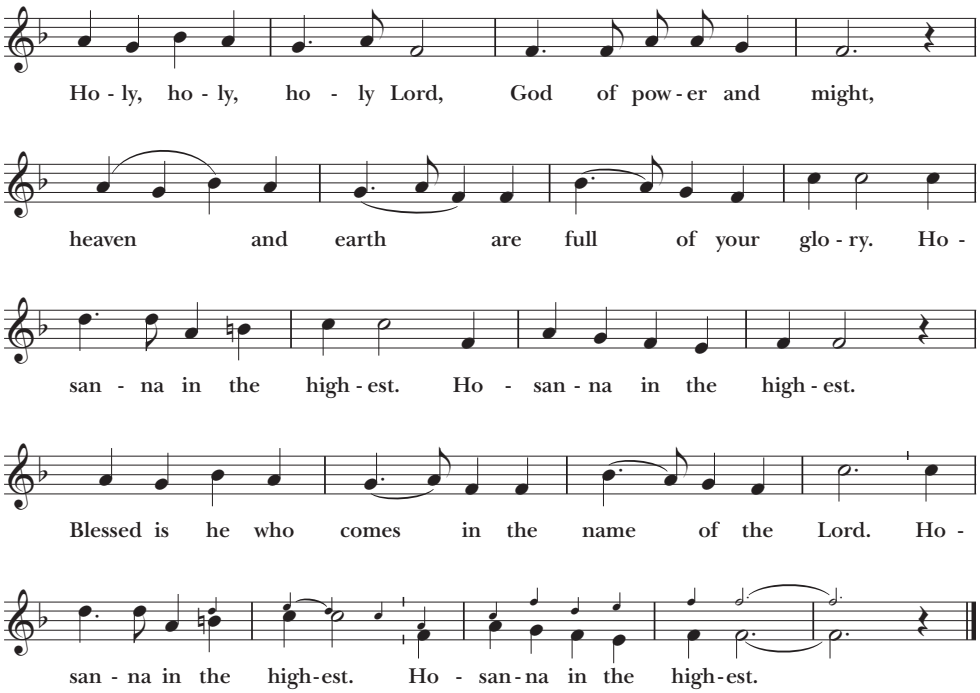

Presider We now turn our attention to the altar, where we first witness, and then share in, the very becoming of God among us: first as bread and wine, then within ourselves through that bread and wine, and finally out into the world through the lives we live. Everyone is welcome to receive communion at this table.

EUCHARISTIC PRAYER A

Presider The Lord be with you.
All And also with you.
Presider Lift up your hearts.
All We lift them to the Lord.
Presider Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
All It is right to give God thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, for you are the source of light and life, you made us in your image, and called us to new life in Jesus Christ our Lord. Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

SANCTUS sung by all Richard Proulx

The people stand or kneel. Then the Presider continues.

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all. He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Presider and people

Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him.

Presider and people

Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

Presider

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. AMEN.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to pray,

THE LORD'S PRAYER said by all

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name.
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

BREAKING OF THE BREAD

The Presider breaks the consecrated Bread. A period of silence is kept.

FRACTION ANTHEM

Presider Alleluia. Christ, our passover is sacrified for us.
All Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

THE INVITATION TO COMMUNION

Presider The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

All are invited to receive the Holy Communion. It is your choice as to whether you receive Holy Communion or a blessing. You may receive Communion or a blessing at the standing station in the front of the nave. The bread will be placed in your palm. You may consume the bread and then drink from the chalice (please grasp the bottom of the chalice firmly and guide it to your lips); or, you may leave the bread in your palm for the chalice bearer to dip it into the wine and place it on your tongue. Self-intinction is strongly discouraged by the Episcopal church. The people's response to receiving the bread and the wine is "Amen." Gluten-free wafers are available. To indicate to the Eucharistic minister that you would like a gluten-free wafer, please present your hands palms down. Those who do not wish to receive Communion are invited to come forward for a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms over your chest.

The people stand as able.

POSTCOMMUNION PRAYER

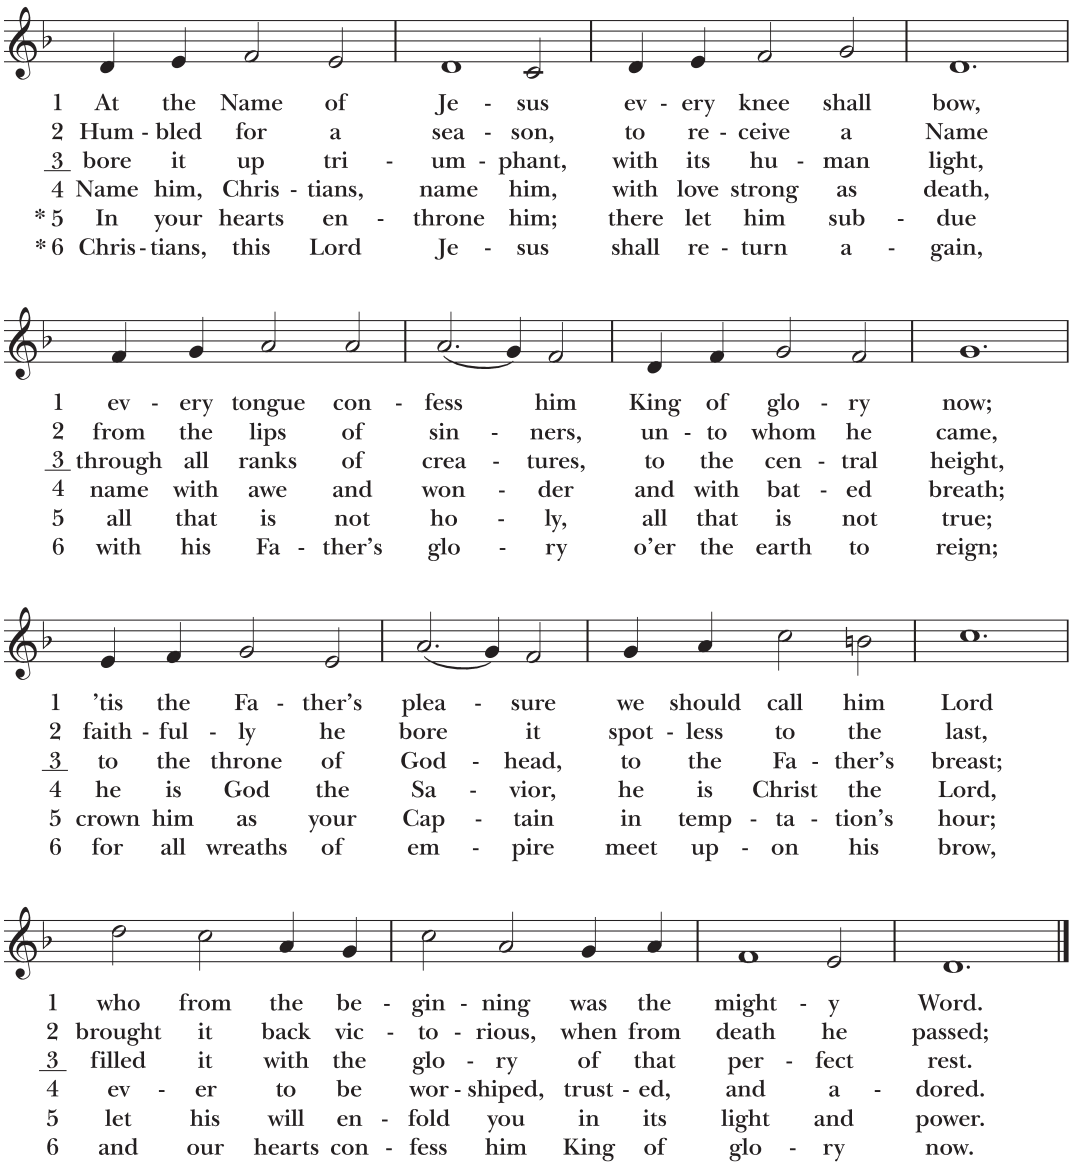

Presider Let us pray.

All Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood. Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE BLESSING

Presider May God bless you and keep you. May God's face shine upon you, and be gracious to you. May God's countenance be upon you, and give you peace. And the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit—the God who loves you, who really, really loves you—be with you now and forever more. Amen.

HYMN: At the Name of Jesus

DISMISSAL

Minister Go in peace to love and serve the Lord.

All Thanks be to God.

Sunday Forum: Epiphany's Architecture

The Spiritual Exercise of Worship

Sunday, November 8 | 10:00 am | Church

Have you ever wondered why a church looks the way it does? Why do we enter through a particular door, move down a long nave, and gather around an altar? Why are some churches shaped like a cross? What are a narthex, nave, transept, chancel, and apse—and why do they matter?

Church architecture is about more than creating a beautiful building. Sacred spaces are designed to shape how we move, where we look, how we gather, and even how we understand God. For centuries, Christians have used architecture to tell the story of our faith, drawing us from the world outside into a space set apart for prayer, worship, and encounter with the holy. Join Kate Wesch for an exploration of church architecture and the theology woven into the spaces where we worship.

Evensong & Reception in Memory of Peggy Wilton

Sunday, November 8 | 5:30 pm | Church

We will dedicate our Evensong service on Sunday, November 8, to honoring and remembering Peggy Wilton, a beloved longtime member of the Epiphany community. Following the service, we invite you to join us for a festive reception in the Chapel as we celebrate Peggy's life and the lasting memories she leaves with us.

If you have photographs of Peggy that you would like to share, please feel free to bring them along. We kindly ask that you take your photos with you when you leave. We look forward to gathering together in love, remembrance, and celebration of Peggy's life.

Free Dinner for Veterans

Wednesday, November 11
6:00 pm
Ivar's Salmon House

Veterans, you're invited! Let's come together for a wonderful evening of fellowship, good food, and gratitude as we honor those who have served our country. Join Brad Wakeman at Ivar's Salmon House on Wednesday, November 11, at 6:00 pm for a complimentary dinner and a chance to connect and enjoy one another's company. RSVPs required! Please contact Brad Wakeman at *brad@carrollwakeman.com.

Sages' Luncheon

Friday, November 13
Noon - 1:00 pm
Great Hall

As part of our parish life, Epiphany invites our senior adults to our monthly luncheon from September through May, hosted by the Epiphany Parish Life Team and the Pastoral Care Chaplains. On the second Friday of each month from noon - 1:00 pm in the Great Hall, there will be a meal followed by a short program. This month's program features Michael Fraas.

Ronald McDonald House

Tuesdays, Nov 10 & 24
12:45 - 4:00 pm

The Ronald McDonald House provides a home away from home for families whose children are receiving treatment at Seattle Children's Hospital. One of the ways they support families is by providing home-cooked meals prepared with love by volunteers.

Epiphany is looking for more volunteers to join us in preparing meals at the Ronald McDonald House on the second and fourth Tuesday of each month, from 12:45 - 4:00 pm. If you would like to learn more or would like to sign up, please contact Amanda Eap at amanda@epiphanyseattle.org or Audrey Seale at audreyseale@comcast.net.

Men's Ministry Breakfast

Saturday, November 14
8:00 - 9:30 am
Great Hall

The men at Epiphany gather monthly to encourage renewed fellowship and deeper connections. During the year, the Men's Ministry meets monthly, usually on the third Saturday (except summer months), 8:00 - 9:30 am in the Great Hall. Together they learn from a guest speaker and pray for each other's needs, all while enjoying a delicious breakfast. All are welcome to join and bring guests! Questions? Contact Brook Berry at brook@brookberry.biz. Scan to register:

Evensong Talk

Sunday, November 15 | 6:30 pm | Church

Every third Sunday immediately following Evensong, join Director of Music Zach Hemenway for a 15-minute talk about the service you just experienced. Epiphany is one of only a few churches in the United States where Choral Evensong is sung weekly year-round. Each month, Zach will take you deeper into a different aspect of it: its history, its structure, how the music is chosen, and more. Come discover why this centuries-old service still has so much to offer us today.

A Family Series: Weaving a Faith That Holds

Sunday, November 15
5:30 - 6:45 pm
Great Hall

Every parent wants their child to thrive — emotionally, physically, mentally. But what does it look like to tend to their spiritual lives with the same intentionality? This year's Family Series takes that question seriously. Drawing on Meredith Miller's Woven: Nurturing a Faith Your Kid Doesn't Have to Heal From, we'll spend two sessions together exploring what it means to raise children in a faith that holds them — honestly, tenderly, and well. And if your own faith feels uncertain or unfinished right now, you're still welcome here.

On Sunday, November 15, author Meredith Miller joins us virtually for "How Do We Weave Faith at Home?: A Conversation on Woven," followed by time for parents and caregivers to reflect and shape simple faith practices that fit their own homes. The evening begins with a free family dinner for those who RSVP, and children of all ages will enjoy activities during the talk. No reading required, just bring your questions and register your family today! Please contact Cadence Granados at cgranados@epiphanyseattle.org with any questions.

Welcoming Advent: Community Tree Decorating

Tuesday, November 17
11:00 am - noon
St. Francis Garden

For the past four years, our Community Advent Tree has been a beautiful part of the season, brightening our garden and lighting up each evening at 5:00 pm! It's almost that time again, and we'd love your helping hands to get our tree ready for another wonderful Advent season. Join us as we put the tree together and decorate it with ornaments, bringing a little extra joy to our parish community.

If you're available to lend a hand on Tuesday, November 17, at 11:00 am in the St. Francis Garden, we'd love to have you! Please reach out to Amanda Eap at amanda@epiphanyseattle.org to let her know you can help.

Thanksgiving Eucharist

Thursday, November 26
9:00 am
Chapel

Before settling down to your Thanksgiving feast, join your Epiphany family for a simple and lovely Holy Eucharist and give thanks to God for everything God has done for you in the words of the Collect for Thanksgiving Day: "Almighty and gracious Father, we give you thanks for the fruits of the earth in their season and for the labors of those who harvest them. Make us, we pray, faithful stewards of your great bounty, for the provision of our necessities and the relief of all who are in need, to the glory of your Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen."

Angeline's Day Center

Thursday, November 19
11:30 am - 2:00 pm

Epiphany will serve lunch at Angeline's Day Center for Women in Belltown every third Thursday from 11:30 am - 2:00 pm each month. Angeline's, operated by the YWCA, supports women experiencing homelessness with meals, hygiene services, health care access, case management, and pathways to permanent housing. To sign up, contact Sherilyn Peterson at speterson@perkinscoie.com.

Save the Date: Holiday Festival

Sunday, December 13 | 4:00 pm | Great Hall

Followed by a service of Advent Lessons & Carols in the Church

We warmly invite you to join us for this year's Holiday Festival! Enjoy a festive hour filled with holiday crafts, ornament-making, and a special opportunity to take photos with Santa. We'll then gather outside just before 5:00 pm for the Tree Lighting—a magical moment for all ages. All are welcome at this joyful family event! For more information, please contact Amanda Eap at amanda@epiphanyseattle.org.

The evening continues at 5:30 pm in the Church with Advent Lessons & Carols, a candlelit service of Scripture and music to prepare for the coming of Christ, with favorite Advent carols and choral music sung by the Epiphany Choir from various locations in the church. A cookie reception follows in the Great Hall. We'd love your help! If you're able, please consider bringing 2–3 dozen of your favorite holiday cookies and a jug of cider to share. If you'd like to volunteer, please reach out to Amanda Eap.

Handel's Messiah

Friday & Saturday, December 4 & 5 | 7:30 pm | Church

Music at Epiphany is excited to present two nights of George Frideric Handel's famous oratorio, Messiah, performed by an all-star Baroque orchestra under the direction of Zach Hemenway. The Epiphany Choir will be joined by four outstanding soloists and period instruments in the warm acoustics of Epiphany for this presentation of a holiday favorite. This year's soloists are: Soprano Elijah McCormack returning from last year; Epiphany's own John Garlid, countertenor; tenor Alex Longnecker; and baritone Zachary Lenox returning from 2024. Tickets are available on Eventbrite at the QR code below.

Sunday School

Sundays | 10:00 - 11:00 am | September – May

Children are invited to weekly faith formation on Sunday mornings, where they'll find a place to call their own within the life of Epiphany. On the first Sunday of each month, children and their families are invited to join the congregation for brunch during the Faith Formation hour.

Seekers · Ages 2–6

Garden Room
(adjacent to St. Francis Garden)

Our youngest children are welcomed into a warm, wonder-filled space of their own. Seekers begin their journey through the liturgical year by discovering their place of belonging at Epiphany. Each class will teach a foundational story from the Christian tradition and feature creative ways of engaging God's world.

Explorers · Ages 7–11

Luke Classroom
(down the hall from Garden Room)

Children in this group dig deeper into Scripture, into questions, into the traditions of our faith. Explorers engage the Bible through conversation, creativity, and hands-on discovery, building a foundation that grows with them.

Wayfinders · Ages 12–18

Youth Room
(basement of Christie House)

Our teenagers are invited into honest, substantive conversation about faith and life. Wayfinders chart their own course through Scripture and tradition, asking hard questions and finding their footing as young people of faith within this community.

Worship Activity Boxes

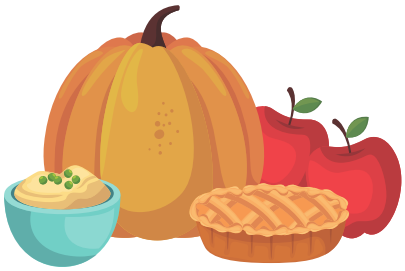

All children are welcome to grab a worship activity box before the service, located in the Narthex as you enter the Church. These boxes provide tools to help our youngest parishioners more fully engage in our liturgy.

If you would like a box labeled with your child's name, please email Cadence Granados at cgranados@epiphanyseattle.org.

PILGRIMAGES TO THE UK

Epiphany Parish • Journeys of Faith Across Britain • July and August 2027

1. Rochester to Canterbury — Walking Pilgrimage

~60 miles ● 8–10 miles/day ● Ideal first pilgrimage & introduction to long-distance walking

July 24 through August 2, 2027: Following the ancient pilgrim route through the North Downs, this journey moves at a walking pace of 8–10 miles a day, steady enough to challenge, gentle enough to welcome first-time pilgrims. Along the way, we build in intentional time inside village churches and both great cathedrals, treating each stop as a place of prayer rather than a photo opportunity (although you will be able to take photographs!). The heart of this pilgrimage is the inner journey: walking as a spiritual discipline, letting the rhythm of footsteps become a kind of moving prayer as we draw closer to Canterbury, one of Christianity's oldest and most storied destinations.

2. Winchester to Canterbury — Bus Pilgrimage

Winchester → York → Lincoln → Cambridge → Canterbury • and more! • no hiking required

July 21 through August 2, 2027: Designed for those who want to go deep into our Anglican heritage without long days on foot, this pilgrimage travels by coach across England, visiting the cathedrals, churches, and holy sites that shaped the English church, from Winchester's ancient roots, north to York and Lincoln, then south through Cambridge before arriving in Canterbury. Expect time in each cathedral and church, conversation about the history and theology that formed Anglican identity, and a pace that leaves room for rest, reflection, and fellowship along the way.

3. Melrose to Holy Island — Walking Pilgrimage

~85 miles • 10–12 miles/day • Borders Abbeys Way & St Cuthbert's Way • Five ruins

August 4 through August 16, 2027: This walk follows part of the Borders Abbeys Way and picks up St Cuthbert's Way through the quiet farmland and hills of the Scottish Borders, passing the evocative ruins of five medieval abbeys along the route. The pace is unhurried, built for silence, prayer, and noticing, culminating in the crossing of the historic Pilgrims' Way, the tidal causeway path across the sands to Lindisfarne (Holy Island), timed carefully with the tides. It ends where Celtic Christianity took deep root in Britain, on the same shores St Cuthbert once walked. Walkers need to be in good physical shape.
