EPIPHANY

In Memory of Peggy Wilton

Peggy Irving Allen Wilton
October 19, 1931 - October 5, 2026

Peggy Irving Allen Wilton was born in Everett, Washington, where her family was active in Trinity Church. Peggy graduated from the University of Washington, where she was an enthusiastic Delta Gamma and also earned successive letters for her participation on the Women's Diving Team and the Women's Synchronized Swimming Team.

Peggy was active in Epiphany Parish: she not only kept alive the folding of the palm crosses and the passing on of that symbol to the next generation, but also served for decades on the Altar Guild, was Wedding Director for several years, and served on the Flower Committee. Peggy was also a member of several Seattle organizations: the Seattle Tennis Club, the Sunset Club, and the Seattle Garden Club, where she was a Certified Garden Club of America Horticulture Judge. With several other Epiphany members, she was one of the founding members of Martha's Moms Rowing Club.

Peggy was preceded in death by her husband, Bill, in 1993. She is survived by three children, nine grandchildren, one great-grandchild, and five nieces.

Worship Instructions

When the text of this worship bulletin is in bold, it is spoken or sung by all.

Though posture cues (standing, sitting, or kneeling) are provided, we invite you to adopt whatever posture is comfortable for you.

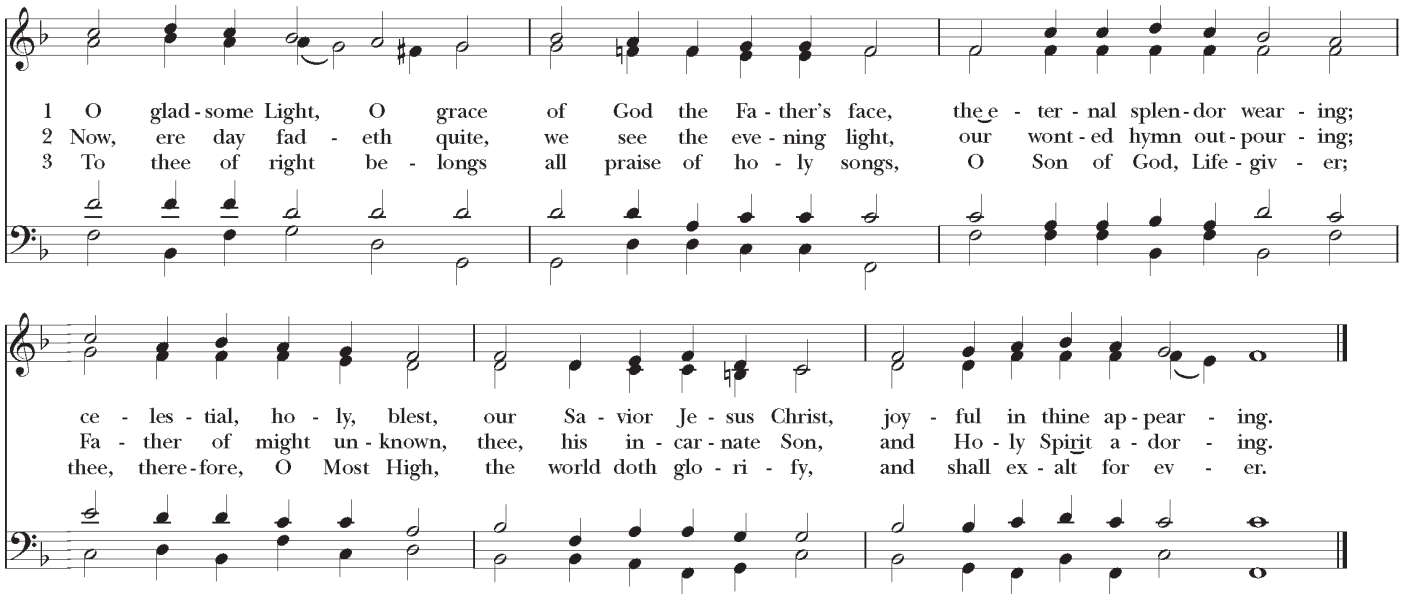

An induction loop is provided for the benefit of hearing aid users. To use, please switch your hearing aid to "T."

Evensong begins with a series of short prayers sung between officiant and choir. Called the Preces*, from the Latin word for "prayers," these ancient responses gather the community into worship and ask God to open our lips to praise.*

The Phos Hilaron ("O Gracious Light") is one of the oldest Christian hymns still in use, dating from the early centuries of the Church. Traditionally sung as lamps were lit at evening, it welcomes the coming of night by praising Christ as the light that no darkness can overcome.

Phos Hilaron

O gladsome Light, O grace of God the Father's face Le Cantique de Siméon

The people are seated.

The Psalms stand at the center of Evensong and of the Church's ancient tradition of daily prayer. For centuries, Christians have returned to these biblical songs day after day, allowing their words of praise, lament, anger, hope, and thanksgiving to become the language of prayer. Even their most difficult words of anger or vengeance are not necessarily convictions we endorse, but honest human emotions brought before God in humility, to be transformed rather than acted upon. Sung at Evensong in Anglican chant, the Psalms connect our prayer with generations of Christians who have ordered the rhythm of each day around this shared treasury of Scripture.

Psalm

Psalm 121 (sung by the choir) Byron Adams

I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills from whence cometh my help.

My help cometh even from the Lord who hath made heaven and earth.

He will not suffer thy foot to be moved and he that keepeth thee will not sleep.

Behold, he that keepeth Israel shall neither slumber nor sleep.

The Lord himself is thy keeper
the Lord is thy defence upon thy right hand;

So that the sun shall not burn thee by day neither the moon by night.

The Lord shall preserve thee from all evil yea, it is even he that shall keep thy soul.

The Lord shall preserve thy going out, and thy coming in from this time forth for evermore.

The people stand and bow.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost:
as it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be,
world without end. Amen.

Lesson

Isaiah 40:27–31

Why do you say, O Jacob, and assert, O Israel, "My way is hidden from the Lord, and my right is disregarded by my God"?

Have you not known? Have you not heard? The Lord is the everlasting God, the Creator of the ends of the earth. He does not faint or grow weary; his understanding is unsearchable.

He gives power to the faint and strengthens the powerless.

Even youths will faint and be weary, and the young will fall exhausted, but those who wait for the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings like eagles; they shall run and not be weary; they shall walk and not faint.

The Magnificat is Mary's song of praise from the Gospel of Luke, sung after the first reading. Mary rejoices in a God who overturns the world's expectations—lifting up the lowly, feeding the hungry, and remembering the promise of mercy.

Magnificat

Herbert Howells

My soul doth magnify the Lord, and my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Savior.
For he hath regarded the lowliness of his handmaiden.
For behold from henceforth all generations shall call me blessed.
For he that is mighty hath magnified me,
and holy is his Name.
And his mercy is on them that fear him throughout all generations.

He hath showed strength with his arm;
he hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.
He hath put down the mighty from their seat,
and hath exalted the humble and meek.
He hath filled the hungry with good things,
and the rich he hath sent empty away.
He remembering his mercy hath holpen his servant Israel,
as he promised to our forefathers,
Abraham and his seed for ever.

The people stand and bow.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost:
as it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be,
world without end. Amen.

Lesson

2 Corinthians 4:7–9, 16–18

But we have this treasure in clay jars, so that it may be made clear that this extraordinary power belongs to God and does not come from us. We are afflicted in every way but not crushed, perplexed but not driven to despair, persecuted but not forsaken, struck down but not destroyed.

So we do not lose heart. Even though our outer nature is wasting away, our inner nature is being renewed day by day. For our slight, momentary affliction is producing for us an eternal weight of glory beyond all measure, because we look not at what can be seen but at what cannot be seen, for what can be seen is temporary, but what cannot be seen is eternal.

Nunc Dimittis

Herbert Howells

Lord, now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace, according to thy word;
For mine eyes have seen thy salvation,
which thou hast prepared before the face of all people,
To be a light to lighten the Gentiles, and to be the glory of thy people Israel.

The people stand and bow.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost:
as it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be,
world without end. Amen.

The Nunc dimittis is the song of Simeon, who recognizes the infant Jesus as the fulfillment of God's promise and declares himself ready to depart in peace. Sung near the close of the day, it gives Evensong its distinctive character of trust, completion, and peaceful surrender to God.*

__The Apostles' Creed__ is an ancient summary of the Christian faith, rooted in the baptismal teaching of the early Church. Evensong uses the Apostles' rather than the Nicene Creed because it belongs to the Church's Daily Office: the Apostles' Creed has traditionally accompanied the Church's daily prayer, while the Nicene Creed is especially associated with the Eucharist on Sundays and principal feasts. Here we recite the Creed not as a test of individual certainty, but as the shared faith of the Church—a faith we receive, inhabit, question, and grow into together.

Apostles' Creed

All: I believe in God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth;
And in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord;
who was conceived by the Holy Ghost,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried.
He descended into hell.
The third day he rose again from the dead.
He ascended into heaven,
and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father almighty.
From thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Ghost,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

__The Responses__ weave together versicles, the Lord's Prayer, and collects in a dialogue between officiant and choir. Their alternating voices express something fundamental about Christian prayer: it belongs not to one person alone, but to the whole gathered Church.

The Responses

Cantor: The Lord be with you.
Choir: And with thy spirit.
Cantor: Let us pray.

The people remain standing or kneel.

Choir: Lord, have mercy upon us.
Christ, have mercy upon us.
Lord, have mercy upon us.

All: Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil. Amen.

Cantor: O Lord, shew thy mercy upon us.
Choir: And grant us thy salvation.

Cantor: O Lord, save the state.
Choir: And mercifully hear us when we call upon thee.

Cantor: Endue thy ministers with righteousness.
Choir: And make thy chosen people joyful.

Cantor: O Lord, save thy people.
Choir: And bless thine inheritance.

Cantor: Give peace in our time, O Lord.
Choir: Because there is none other that fighteth for us, but only thou, O God.

Cantor: O God, make clean our hearts within us.
Choir: And take not thy Holy Spirit from us.

Cantor: O God, whose mercies cannot be numbered: Accept our prayers on behalf of thy servant Peggy, and grant her an entrance into the land of light and joy, in the fellowship of thy saints; through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

O God, from whom all holy desires, all good counsels, and all just works do proceed: Give unto thy servants that peace which the world cannot give, that our hearts may be set to obey thy commandments, and also that by thee, we, being defended from the fear of all enemies, may pass our time in rest and quietness; through the merits of Jesus Christ our Savior. Amen.

Lighten our darkness, we beseech thee, O Lord; and by thy great mercy defend us from all perils and dangers of this night; for the love of thy only Son, our Savior Jesus Christ. Amen.

The Welcome

Anthem

In the Heavenly Kingdom Healey Willan (1880-1968)

In the heavenly kingdom the souls of the saints are rejoicing. They followed the footsteps of Christ their master, and from him shall inherit a throne of fadeless splendour, wherein they rejoice with gladness unceasing. Light perpetual shall shine upon thy saints, O Lord, and an ageless eternity. Alleluia.

Monarch of all things, fit us for thy mansions; Banish our weakness, health and wholeness sending; Bring us to heaven, where thy saints united joy without ending. Alleluia.

The Anthem gives the choir space to offer a more extended musical meditation on Scripture, the season, or the themes of the day. Rather than interrupting the liturgy as a performance, it allows music itself to become a form of prayer and contemplation.

During the anthem, a collection is taken for Music at Epiphany. You may contribute by using the QR code here, or by cash or check. This evening's service of Choral Evensong is funded directly by your support, and we thank you in advance for your generosity. Gifts of any size are needed and appreciated.

The General Thanksgiving

All:
Almighty God, Father of all mercies, we thine unworthy servants do give thee most humble and hearty thanks for all thy goodness and loving-kindness to us and to all thou hast made.
We bless thee for our creation, preservation, and all the blessings of this life;
but above all for thine inestimable love in the redemption of the world by our Lord Jesus Christ;
for the means of grace, and for the hope of glory.
And, we beseech thee,
give us that due sense of all thy mercies,
that our hearts may be unfeignedly thankful;
and that we show forth thy praise,
not only with our lips, but in our lives,
by giving up our selves to thy service,
and by walking before thee in holiness and righteousness all our days;
through Jesus Christ our Lord,
to whom, with thee and the Holy Ghost, be all honour and glory, world without end. Amen.

Added to the Book of Common Prayer in the seventeenth century, the General Thanksgiving gathers the Church's gratitude into one expansive prayer. We give thanks not only for particular blessings, but for creation, preservation, the gifts of this life, and above all for God's redeeming love in Christ.

Named for the great fourth-century preacher St. John Chrysostom*, this prayer entered Anglican worship through Archbishop Thomas Cranmer's translation of an ancient Eastern Christian liturgy. It asks God to receive the prayers we have offered together and reminds us of Christ's promise to be present wherever his people gather in his name.*

A Prayer of St. Chrysostom

Officiant: Almighty God, who hast given us grace at this time with one accord to make our common supplication unto thee; and hast promised through thy well-beloved Son that when two or three are gathered together in his Name thou wilt be in the midst of them: Fulfill now, O Lord, the desires and petitions of thy servants as may be best for us; granting us in this world knowledge of thy truth, and in the world to come life everlasting. Amen.

The Blessing

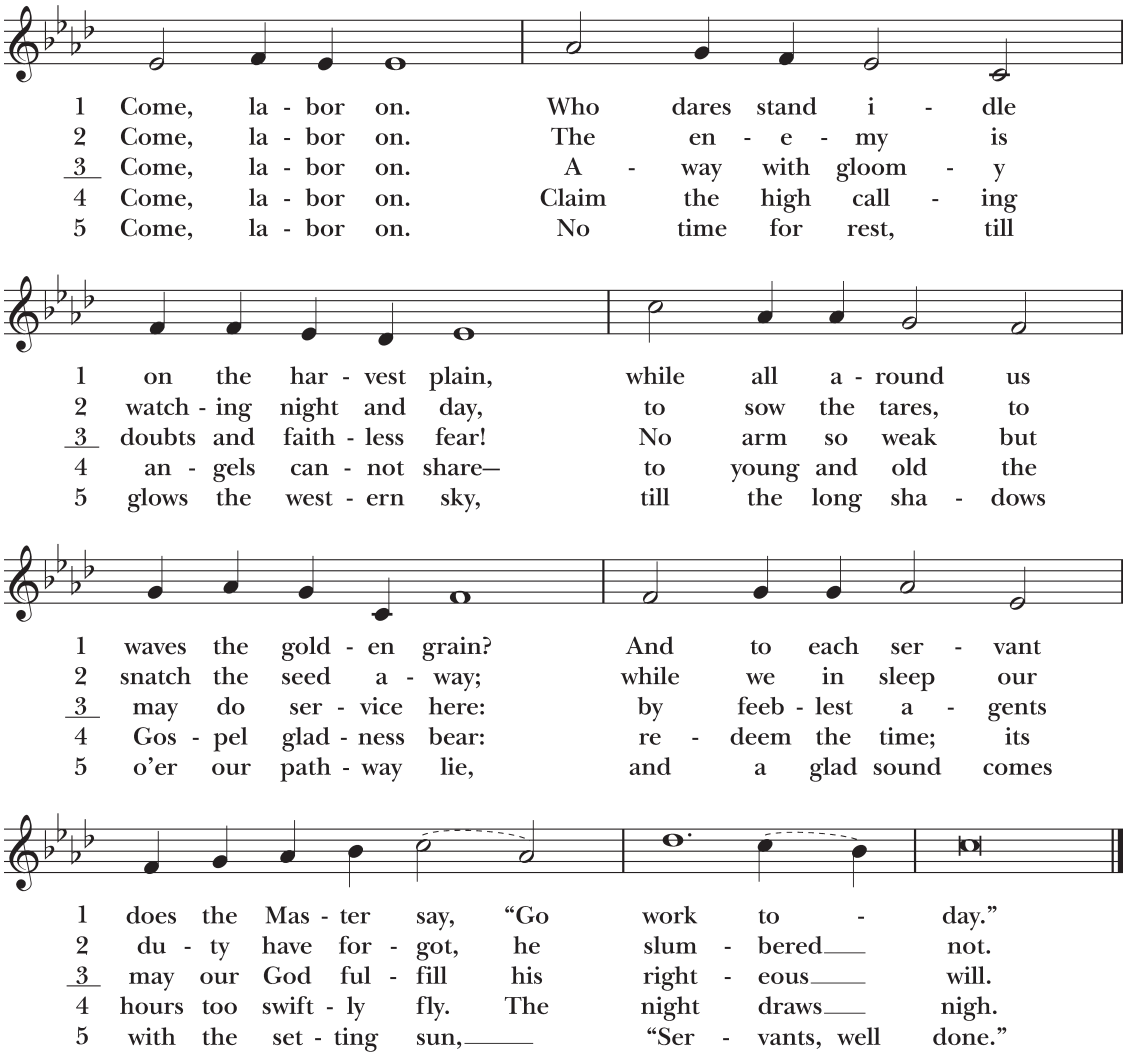

Officiant: The Lord be with you.
All: And with thy spirit.

Officiant: Let us bless the Lord.
All: Thanks be to God.

Officiant: Glory to God whose power, working in us, can do infinitely more than we can ask or imagine: Glory to him from generation to generation in the Church, and in Christ Jesus for ever and ever. Amen.

Sunday Forum: Epiphany's Architecture

The Spiritual Exercise of Worship

Sunday, November 8 | 10:00 am | Church

Have you ever wondered why a church looks the way it does? Why do we enter through a particular door, move down a long nave, and gather around an altar? Why are some churches shaped like a cross? What are a narthex, nave, transept, chancel, and apse—and why do they matter?

Church architecture is about more than creating a beautiful building. Sacred spaces are designed to shape how we move, where we look, how we gather, and even how we understand God. For centuries, Christians have used architecture to tell the story of our faith, drawing us from the world outside into a space set apart for prayer, worship, and encounter with the holy. Join Kate Wesch for an exploration of church architecture and the theology woven into the spaces where we worship.

A Family Series: Weaving a Faith That Holds

Sunday, November 15
5:30 - 6:45 pm
Great Hall

Every parent wants their child to thrive — emotionally, physically, mentally. But what does it look like to tend to their spiritual lives with the same intentionality? This year's Family Series takes that question seriously. Drawing on Meredith Miller's Woven: Nurturing a Faith Your Kid Doesn't Have to Heal From, we'll spend two sessions together exploring what it means to raise children in a faith that holds them — honestly, tenderly, and well. And if your own faith feels uncertain or unfinished right now, you're still welcome here.

On Sunday, November 15, author Meredith Miller joins us virtually for "How Do We Weave Faith at Home?: A Conversation on Woven," followed by time for parents and caregivers to reflect and shape simple faith practices that fit their own homes. The evening begins with a free family dinner for those who RSVP, and children of all ages will enjoy activities during the talk. No reading required, just bring your questions and register your family today! Please contact Cadence Granados at cgranados@epiphanyseattle.org with any questions.

It's almost that time again, and we'd love your helping hands to get our tree ready for another wonderful Advent season. Join us as we put the tree together and decorate it with ornaments, bringing a little extra joy to our parish community.

If you're available to lend a hand on Tuesday, November 17, at 11:00 am in the St. Francis Garden, we'd love to have you! Please reach out to Amanda Eap at amanda@epiphanyseattle.org to let her know you can help.

Thanksgiving Eucharist

Thursday, November 26
9:00 am

Before settling down to your Thanksgiving feast, join your Epiphany family for a simple and lovely Holy Eucharist and give thanks to God for everything God has done for you in the words of the Collect for Thanksgiving Day: "Almighty and gracious Father, we give you thanks for the fruits of the earth in their season and for the labors of those who harvest them. Make us, we pray, faithful stewards of your great bounty, for the provision of our necessities and the relief of all who are in need, to the glory of your Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen."

Sunday School

Sundays | 10:00 - 11:00 am | September – May

Children are invited to weekly faith formation on Sunday mornings, where they'll find a place to call their own within the life of Epiphany. On the first Sunday of each month, children and their families are invited to join the congregation for brunch during the Faith Formation hour.

Seekers · Ages 2–6

Garden Room
(adjacent to St. Francis Garden)

Our youngest children are welcomed into a warm, wonder-filled space of their own. Seekers begin their journey through the liturgical year by discovering their place of belonging at Epiphany. Each class will teach a foundational story from the Christian tradition and feature creative ways of engaging God's world.

Explorers · Ages 7–11

Luke Classroom
(down the hall from Garden Room)

Children in this group dig deeper into Scripture, into questions, into the traditions of our faith. Explorers engage the Bible through conversation, creativity, and hands-on discovery, building a foundation that grows with them.

Wayfinders · Ages 12–18

Youth Room
(basement of Christie House)

Our teenagers are invited into honest, substantive conversation about faith and life. Wayfinders chart their own course through Scripture and tradition, asking hard questions and finding their footing as young people of faith within this community.

Worship Activity Boxes

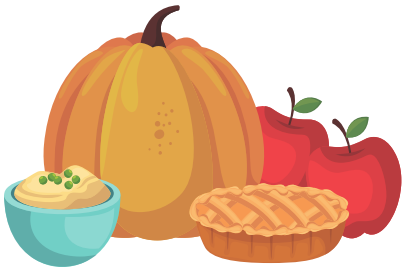

All children are welcome to grab a worship activity box before the service, located in the Narthex as you enter the Church. These boxes provide tools to help our youngest parishioners more fully engage in our liturgy.

If you would like a box labeled with your child's name, please email Cadence Granados at cgranados@epiphanyseattle.org.
